

No copyright materials are used in this text
The summary and interpretation of the specific chapter and verses are from the Bible, they are religious text that is in the public domain.

Free to Copy and Distribute: Spread the Word!

(Peter Lok) 駱沅祺
lokpeter@outlook.com

My little prayer 1

Heavenly Father, We humbly come before you tonight, recognizing our weaknesses and shortcomings. We ask for your grace to overcome our pride, and your mercy to dispel our doubts. Above all, we seek your love to comfort us during these dark times. Grant us the courage to face whatever lies ahead with open hearts and a willingness to accept your will. May your love be the foundation of our strength, and your wisdom guide us in times of confusion.

We praise you for your kindness and unfailing love, for you alone are the source of life and health. As the sun rises each day, may your love rise in our hearts and overflow into our lives. May it inspire us to work diligently, to pursue excellence, and to build trust with those around us. As we approach this season, help us to enjoy the beauty of your creation and to rest in your provision. Guide us along your path, and give us the courage to follow wherever it leads.

May your word be a lamp to our feet and a light to our path, and may we bear fruit in our lives through everything we have learned. Let your grace and peace rest upon us, and let us be rooted firmly in your love. We ask for discernment, that we may not be led astray by false voices or distractions. May we thrive in every area of our lives, and may your light shine through us so that others may come to know you.

In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Dear Holy Spirit, You are the source of strength and light for our souls. We recognize that in You, we can live holy and in Your grace, we can resist sin. Help us to watch for Your light, listen to Your voice, and follow Your gracious inspirations. We are grateful for Your compassion and mercy and for watching over our weaknesses.

Adorable Spirit, Helper of our infirmity, we implore You to come and penetrate our inmost hearts. Help us to shun all things that can offend You and make us worthy to appear before the pure eyes of Your Divine Kingdom. Fill us with Your spirit and cover us with the wisdom of Your word.

We give thanks for the cross, where we became the bride of Christ and where You took away our sickness and disease, guilt and shame. It was at the cross where we first saw the light of hope, and we thank You, God. We are heirs of Your throne and are royal ambassadors, and we acknowledge that Your love has no limit, Your grace has no measure, and Your power is greater than the greatest.

In 2 Corinthians 10:4, we recognize that we have access to God's mighty weapons and that we can pull down the fortress of satanic power. We can conquer the demons' accusations with this supernatural power, and we will win all the battles we are fighting for. We have the authority in Jesus' name and the authority of the Word.

We understand that what we do on our knees in prayer will be received in heaven, and we are committed to living together in the love of God. In 1 Timothy 6:12, we are called to fight the good fight for the true faith, hold tightly to eternal life, and put on all of God's armor to fight against all strategies of the devil. We choose to be strong, bold, aggressive, and fearless, and we release the power of heaven to claim the victory that is already ours. In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Dear Holy Spirit,

Thank you for being with us and helping us in our daily lives. You are the one who defines the Kingdom of God and brings us hope. We ask for your forgiveness for grieving you in the past and pray that we will be filled with your Spirit. Help us to set aside distractions and worries of this world that often cause us to ignore your voice. We desire to be slaves to your Spirit and not to our bodies. Grant us a fresh filling of your Spirit and help us to reach a point of being so full of your Spirit that all chains of worry and weakness are broken. We pray that all our pain and sickness will be gone in your presence.

We ask that you empower us to be bold for you and to seek you like never before. As our cup of the Holy Spirit rises and your power grows in our lives, we know that you will use us for the work of your Kingdom. We are ready for you, Lord.

Please help us to spill our overfilled Spirit onto others, influencing and supporting them as we go. May your power operate in our lives like never before, and may we be filled with your love and grace.

We pray this in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ,. Amen.

Dear Holy Spirit,

Thank you for dwelling in our hearts and working in our lives. You have guided us into salvation and opened our eyes to the Truth. We ask that you help us see you more clearly and recognize your movement in our lives. Thank you for interceding for us and providing comfort in times of need. Help us to walk in you and produce good fruit in our lives.

You understand our pain and anxieties, and you provide far beyond our expectations in personal and spiritual ways. We desire to build a better relationship with you, Lord, and to experience the victory and celebration that comes with spending our days with you. We know that through the blood of Jesus Christ, demons tremble, and we have access to the powerful, glorious life that it gives us. It is through our relationship with Jesus, not religion, that we experience true freedom from guilt, sickness, loneliness, depression, and rejection. We are grateful for the freedom that we have as children of God and that we can live our lives in His name.

We ask that our testimony be filled with the blood of Jesus, and that our prayers be anointed with it as well. Leviticus 17:11 says, "For the life of a creature is in the blood."

May our lives be transformed by the power of the blood of Jesus Christ, and may we continually seek a deeper relationship with you, Holy Spirit.
In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Dear God,

Thank you for the joy of living in the Father's world. Thank you for providing a blueprint for the family in your Word. We are your creations, and you are our shepherd, leading and guiding us every day. Your Word saturates us, keeping our hearts warm and filling us with kindness.

When we are hungry, sick, or feeling beaten up by the world, we can always run to you for shelter and protection. You anoint us with oil and make us feel like the most important people in the world. Your Word teaches us what is right and what is wrong, and you send angels to watch over us. You are Jehovah-jireh, our provider.

With your promises, we are priests and prophets, representing Jesus to the world. Even when the angel of death is near or when evil tempts us, we will not be afraid because you are the ultimate authority in the universe. Your power is great enough to shake the earth, and we ask that your mighty power rule over our lives, attitudes, moods, and weaknesses. Only you can cure our diseases, heal our pain, and restore our broken hearts. Only you can remove our bitterness and painful memories. We humbly offer our drooping hands and feeble knees to you, with the love of God and the joy of the Holy Spirit. We bow before you and worship you.

Amen.

Father,

Please grant us strength and faith, and do not let the prince of darkness whisper in our ear. With one drop of blood from Jesus Christ, our sins can be cleansed, and we can be as white as snow. When he spoke into the stormy waters, the wind calmed down, and even demons trembled in his presence. Jesus was cleverly crucified, but on the third day, he walked down from his grave. Because he lives, we also live, and because of his resurrection, we all have a resurrection day. We shall all have hope and peace, as promised in Philippians 4:7.

Let us fix our thoughts on what is true, honorable, right, pure, lovely, and admirable. Let us concentrate on you, God, for you are worthy of praise. You said we will not fear when earthquakes come, or the mountains crumble into the sea. We will not fear when we are in pain, trouble, or financial turbulence, or even when our family is in a war zone, for you are with us, God, and you are in control. We are the property of the Kingdom of God, and it is your kingdom of power that protects us. You will give us total victory, and let there be miracles in our prayer. The power of our tongue is the power of life and death, as stated in Luke 1:37.

Let us live without limitations, for we can ask for anything in your name, as stated in John 14:13. Miracles can only happen when we are ready to receive them. Let us open our hearts to receive the miracles and answers from our prayers. Let the power of the Holy Spirit burn in our hearts, and let the Spirit of God live in us.

Proverbs 31:30-31 says, "Charm is deceptive, and beauty does not last, but a woman who fears the Lord will be greatly praised. Reward her for all she has done. Let her deeds publicly declare her praise." Father, bless all the mothers, as when she puts her hand on the child, she is leaving her fingerprints for the next generation and generation after. The righteousness of her will pass on to the child, and she leaves her footprint on the sand as she carries the child. She cares, encourages, and enriches the child, just as Jesus understands us, as stated in Hebrews 4:15.

We ask you to send an angel before us, and may your peace, joy, and the love of God flood our hearts and minds. Amen.

Father,

"When you spoke, the heavens were created. By the breath of your mouth, all the stars were born." - This is a beautiful statement about the power of God's word.

Joh 14:12 - "I tell you the truth, anyone who believes in me will do the same works I have done, and even greater works." This is a powerful promise that Jesus gave to his disciples, and it is a reminder to us that we too can do great things through faith in him.

Mar 11:23 - "Have faith in God. I tell you the truth, you can say to this mountain, 'May you be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' and it will happen..." This is another reminder of the power of faith and the power of speaking God's word.

Father, we thank you for your word, and for the promises and miracles that it contains. Help us to claim these promises and to use the power of your word to overcome any obstacles in our lives. We know that we are in a spiritual battle, but we also know that we are armed with your power, and we have faith that we will be victorious in Jesus' name. We ask that you turn our wilderness and dry land into a rose garden, and that our finest hour is just ahead of us. We trust that all bad things that have happened or will happen will be left behind us, and we will only see them in our rearview mirror.

Father, we ask for your guidance and wisdom as we study your word. May our hearts burn with passion for your truth, and may we have a deeper understanding of what your word means for us. Help us to honor you and remain faithful to you, as we strive to be obedient learners and to rightly divide the word of truth.

Thank you for the gift of your word, and for the promises and miracles that it contains. We trust that you will guide us and protect us, and we pray that your peace, love, and joy will fill our hearts and minds.

In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Dear Lord,

You are the miracle maker who breathes life into a handful of dirt, creating a living soul. You separate day from night and light from darkness. Even medical science cannot explain the miraculous birth of Jesus from a virgin girl. Our Lord, Jesus, became a healing and miracle-working God, healing the lame, the deaf, the blind, and curing diseases with just one touch. Your words are living water and living words, and when we believe in you, you release supernatural power to us.

In Psalm 103:3, you forgive all our sins and heal all our diseases. We claim this promise and ask you to heal our diseases and problems, renewing our strength. We pray that our faith shakes the dark world, changing the odds of what medical science says, and turning stormy waters into peaceful streams.

In Philippians 4:6, you tell us not to worry about anything but to pray about everything. Let Holy Spirit open us up and bring God into our hearts, knowing that you hold the stars and universe together. You call the stars by name and hold the seven seas in your hand. You are in charge, and in Mark 11:24, you tell us that if we pray for anything and believe, we will receive it.

Mighty God, you are in control, and death has been reduced to a shadow that cannot harm us. We command the shadow of evil and the devil to stay away from us, knowing that you are the strength of our lives, and we shall not be afraid. Let all our troubles, pain, and illnesses be gone because you are with us. We praise you, Lord, and leave tonight transformed, fearing no more.

Amen

Our Father God,

When the winds of tragedy crush our dreams and the waves of sorrow and suffering drown our hopes, let us have faith like Abraham, who believed that "God will provide." Help us to stop being pushed around by our problems and let our dreams lead us into the future.

The Word of God is near us and within us. Faith is inside us and on our lips through prayer. Let us confess our faith and receive it. Give us this day our daily bread, and let this proclamation release the authority of our living God - the authority of healing, the power to overcome the battles we face, and the authority to break down the mountains of our troubles.

Let this proclamation make demons tremble, and let the miracle in our prayers change our troubles into comfort. May our faith enable us to see things happen before our very eyes.

Proverbs 24:16 says, "Though the righteous fall seven times, they rise again." Let us have a new beginning and get up again, be strong and be well. May all stumbling blocks become stepping stones.

John 14:17 says, "But you know Him, because He lives with you now and later will be in you." Let us release the power of the Word in the Bible that terrifies the devil in hell. Let us speak to the source of our problems and believe in what we say.

Job 22:28 says, "You will succeed in whatever you choose to do, and light will shine on the road ahead of you." May our illnesses be healed, our prayers be heard, our troubles be over, and the impossible become possible.

Faith has no distance. The Lord is our light, and the Lord is the strength of our life. When the enemy rises against us and makes us stumble and fall, our hearts will not fear because we believe in You, God. You will hide us in Your provision. We ask for Your supernatural power and Your protection, right now, in this moment.

In Jesus' name, we pray. Amen.

Father,

Please touch us with your healing hand. We believe that it is your will for us to be well in mind, body, soul, and spirit. Please cover us and cast out anything that should not be within us. Root out any unhealthy and abnormal cells, rebuild and replenish any damaged areas, and cleanse us by the power of Jesus' precious blood. Let the fire of your healing love pass through our entire body and make our body function the way you created us to function. Please touch our mind, emotions, and even the deepest recesses of our heart. Saturate our entire body with your presence, love, joy, and peace. Draw us closer to you, Father, and fill us with the Holy Spirit. Empower us to do your works and bring glory and honor to your holy name.

Heavenly Father,

Please help us to listen to what Jesus is saying to us and act on your Word so that rivers of living water may flow from our hearts. Let this study touch our hearts and change our lives. Please help us to listen with openness and honesty, eager to learn from the talents of each other in this group. Please never let differences of opinion diminish our mutual respect and love. We pray all of this in Jesus' name.

Amen.

God, we thank You When the enemy comes in like a flood, You raise up a barrier wall
God, we feel the power of Your Spirit Lord, let us lift our eyes to seek Your face Lord, we do not accept what the enemy is doing to us We stand in the power of the Holy Spirit Thank You, Lord, for this small group Let Your Spirit surround us and the enemy cannot touch us Let our prayers shake the foundations of hell Lord, we declare our victory with our mouths and shout it out Let the sick be healed and pain be gone God, we are not neutral or lukewarm, we are a flame of fire Lord, let our prayers propel us into faith and love for one another Lord, we ask You to put Your hand on... (please specify the person or situation) Lord, uncover the plans of the enemy and heal the evil that surrounds us
There is nobody like Jesus You are the captain of our salvation Lead us today and honor us with Your blessings.

Amen.

Prayers 1