My little Prayer 2

Father God,

We believe in our hearts that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God. Through the power of the Holy Spirit, He was born of the virgin Mary, was crucified for our sins, and was buried. On the third day, He rose again, according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven, where He sits at Your right hand.

We thank You for sending the Holy Spirit to dwell in us and be our Comforter. We believe that the Holy Spirit is here with us now, convicting us of sin and guiding us into all truth.

As we rest tonight, we trust that we are in Your hands. Help us to listen to what Jesus is saying to us and to act on Your Word so that rivers of living water may flow from our hearts. Let this study touch our hearts and change our lives. Help us to listen with openness and honesty, eager to learn from the talents of each other in this group. Never let differences of opinion diminish our mutual respect and love.

We acknowledge that we have all sinned and fallen short of Your glory. At one time, we were blind, enjoyed nothing, loved nothing, found purpose in nothing, and lived for nothing. But now we have a second chance. We have Jesus, and we must make it count. The world has become beautiful, and good things are happening. Our lives have been completely transformed.

Please help us to understand and experience the power of the cross, which is the very power of God. We ask that You would help us to understand the cross and what happened there so that we may not be ignorant or struggle.

We love You with our whole heart and repent sincerely for having ever offended You. In Jesus' name, we pray.

Amen.

Father,

When you spoke, the heavens were created. By the breath of your mouth, all the stars were born (Job 38:4-7). Jesus said in John 14:12, "I tell you the truth, anyone who believes in me will do the same works I have done, and even greater works..." In Mark 11:23, Jesus said, "Have faith in God. I tell you the truth, you can say to this mountain, 'May you be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' and it will happen."

Father, bless these words, for they are your words. We claim these promises, these miracles, and this supernatural power. In this spiritual combat, we have total faith, and we are armed with the power of God - the Bible. Jesus is the living word, and Jesus is the High Priest of our confession. We are in a fight to win, and we will fight a good fight. We are victorious in Jesus' name. Our prayers are words from God, and our prayers from our mouth will bring complete victory. Without complete victory, there is no victory.

Oh God, turn our wilderness and dry land into a rose garden. Our finest hour is just ahead of us. All the bad things happening will be behind us and will only be seen in the rearview mirror. The kingdom will be ours in Jesus' name. We shall win the power of darkness. The miracles in our prayer are waiting to happen. We will not fear, for you are with us. Your words are our strength, our fortress, our high power. We shall mount our wings like eagles.

Father, it is beyond joy to open your word. We are looking forward to having our hearts burn as we understand the true meaning in the Bible. Help us to penetrate what you mean to us as we come through the discussion tonight. We thank you for the fact that Jesus lives and He is living by His Holy Spirit. Lord, your word is so precious. You take us from the tip of despair to the height of joy. We want to honor you and be faithful to you. We will be obedient learners and open our hearts to listen. We will rightly divide the word of truth in the scripture. Thank you, Lord, for this gift.

Dear Lord,

You are a miracle maker. You breathed into a handful of dirt, and a man became a living soul. You separated the day from the night and light from darkness. Jesus was born of a virgin, which defies all medical science. Our Lord, Jesus, became a healing Jesus, a miracle son of God. Our God, our savior, became a miracle-working God. You healed the lame, the deaf, the blind, the leper, and cured blood diseases. With one touch, they were all healed. You even healed the man's son in a long distance away just by saying it. There is no distance in prayer when God's children start to pray. In Mark 16:17, it says, "These miraculous signs will accompany those who believe: they will cast out demons in my name."

Lord, your words are living words, and your words are living water. When we believe in you, you will release supernatural power to us. We are what the Bible says we are. By your name, we shall tremble the demon in hell. There is nothing impossible when we believe. Oh, Lord, change our physical nature into spiritual nature. In Psalm 103:3, it says, "He forgives all my sins and heals all my diseases." Lord, we are claiming this promise, and we ask you to heal our

We ask for your guidance and wisdom as we seek to serve you and fulfill your will. Help us to love others as you have loved us and to be a light in this world. We pray for those who are lost and seeking, that they may find you and your love. We pray for those who are suffering, that they may find healing and peace. We pray for our leaders, that they may be guided by your wisdom and work for the common good. We pray for our families and loved ones, that they may know your love and be protected from harm. We pray for our enemies, that they may come to know you and turn away from their ways. We pray for our world, that there may be peace and justice for all.

Father, we thank you for your mercy and grace. We thank you for sending your Son Jesus to die for our sins and for the gift of eternal life. We thank you for your Holy Spirit who guides us and empowers us. Help us to live our lives in a way that honors you and brings glory to your name. May our prayer be a reflection of our love and devotion to you. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.

Father, we come before you with humble hearts, asking for your healing touch upon us. We believe that it is your will for us to be well in mind, body, soul, and spirit. Please cover us and cast out anything that should not be in us. Root out any unhealthy and abnormal cells, rebuild and replenish any damage areas, and cleanse us by the power of Jesus' precious blood. Let the fire of your healing love pass through our entire body and make our body function the way you created it. Please touch our mind, our emotions, and even the deepest recesses of our heart. Saturate our entire body with your presence, love, joy, and peace. Draw us closer to you, Father, and fill us with your Holy Spirit, empowering us to do your works and bring glory and honor to your holy name. Heavenly Father, please help us to listen to what Jesus is saying to us and to act on your word so that rivers of living waters flow from our hearts. Let this study touch our hearts and change our lives. Help us to listen with openness and honesty, eager to learn from the talents of each other in this group. Please never let differences of opinion diminish our mutual respect and love. In Jesus' name, we thank you.

God, when the enemy comes in like a flood, you raise up a wall barrier. We feel the power of your spirit, and we ask that you let us stretch our eyes to seek your face. We do not accept what the enemy is doing to us, and we stand in the power of the Holy Spirit. Thank you, Lord, for this small group. Let your spirit surround us so that the enemy cannot touch us. Let our prayer shake the foundations of hell, and let the sick be healed and pain be gone. We are not neutral, we are not lukewarm, we are on fire. Lord, let our prayer propel us into faith and loving group. We ask you, Lord, to put your hand on [name], and we pray that the plans of the enemy will be uncovered. Please heal the evil that is surrounding [name]. There is nobody like Jesus, and you are the captain of our salvation. Please lead us today and honor us today with your blessings.

Father God, we believe that Jesus is the Christ, the only begotten Son of God. Through the power of the Holy Spirit, He was born of the virgin Mary, was crucified for our sins, was buried, and on the third day, He rose again according to the scriptures and ascended into heaven, where He sits at the right hand of the Father. We believe that the Holy Spirit indwells in us and is our Comforter, and we believe that the Holy Spirit is here with us now. You convict us of sin and guide us into all truth. We rest tonight and our study in your hand. Help us to listen to what Jesus is saying to us and to act on your word so that rivers of living waters flow from our hearts. Let this study touch our hearts and change our lives. Help us to listen with openness and honesty, eager to learn from the talents of each other in this group. Please let the Holy Spirit to lead and guide us in all that we do, so that we may glorify you in all things. We pray that as we leave this place, we will carry your love and grace with us and share it with those around us who need it most. We ask all of this in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

Dear Father God,

We approach you with reverence and gratitude, for in your presence our lives are illuminated, brighter than the noonday. You transform our darkness into light, and our sorrows into joy.

We find security in your unwavering love and the hope that you offer. We are grateful for your unceasing efforts and compassionate heart, which have sustained us through our trials and tribulations.

Please guide us in our daily endeavors and help us to remain steadfast in our faith. May we continue to draw strength from your love and be a beacon of hope to those around us. In your holy and precious name we pray, Amen.
