God's Promises in Ezekiel

The book of Ezekiel contains several promises made by God to the people of Israel. Here are some examples

1. Restoration and a New Covenant - "I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit in you; I will remove from you your heart of stone and give you a heart of flesh" (Ezekiel 36:26).
2. Salvation for His People - "I will save you from all your uncleanness" (Ezekiel 36:29).
3. Blessings for the Land of Israel - "I will make them and the places surrounding my hill a blessing. I will send down showers in season; there will be showers of blessing" (Ezekiel 34:26).
4. Hope for the Future - "I will give them an undivided heart and put a new spirit in them; I will remove from them their heart of stone and give them a heart of flesh" (Ezekiel 11:19).
5. The Return of God's Glory to Israel - "Then the glory of the LORD went up from within the city and stopped above the mountain east of it" (Ezekiel 11:23).

These promises made by God through the prophet Ezekiel are meant to give hope and encouragement to the people of Israel during a time of great turmoil and uncertainty. They demonstrate God's love and faithfulness towards His people, and the fulfillment of these promises ultimately points towards the coming of Jesus Christ as the ultimate fulfillment of God's plan for salvation.

6. Renewal of the Temple - "I will be their God, and they will be my people... I will place my sanctuary among them forever" (Ezekiel 37:27-28).
7. Protection from Enemies - "I will make them a covenant of peace and rid the land of savage beasts so that they may live in the wilderness and sleep in the forests in safety" (Ezekiel 34:25).
8. Restoration of the Davidic Dynasty - "I will set over them one shepherd, my servant David, and he will tend them; he will tend them and be their shepherd" (Ezekiel 34:23).
9. Judgement of the Nations - "I will execute vengeance in anger and fury on the nations that have not obeyed me" (Ezekiel 5:13).

10. Resurrection and Restoration of Israel - "I will put my Spirit in you and you will live, and I will settle you in your own land" (Ezekiel 37:14).

These promises reveal God's plan for His people and His intention to bless them with peace, safety, and prosperity. They also demonstrate His justice in judging those who oppose Him and His power to bring new life and hope to a people who have suffered great loss and exile.

11. Blessings of Prosperity - "I will send down showers in season; there will be showers of blessing" (Ezekiel 34:26).

12. A New Name and a New Reputation - "Then the nations will know that I am the Lord, declares the Sovereign Lord, when I am proved holy through you before their eyes" (Ezekiel 36:23).

13. Cleansing from Sin - "I will sprinkle clean water on you, and you will be clean; I will cleanse you from all your impurities and from all your idols" (Ezekiel 36:25).

14. Restoration of the Land - "I will make the land a desolate waste, and her proud strength will come to an end, and the mountains of Israel will become desolate so that no one will cross them" (Ezekiel 33:28).

15. A New Covenant of Peace - "I will make a covenant of peace with them; it will be an everlasting covenant" (Ezekiel 37:26).

These promises reflect God's deep compassion for His people and His desire to bless them in every way. They offer hope for a better future and provide assurance that God is working to restore all that has been lost or damaged. They also reveal His holiness and His power to redeem and transform even the most hopeless situations.

16. Justice for the Oppressed - "I will rescue my flock from their mouths, and it will no longer be food for them" (Ezekiel 34:10).

17. Unity Among God's People - "I will make them one nation in the land, on the mountains of Israel" (Ezekiel 37:22).

18. Protection from False Prophets - "I will set my face against the prophets who see false visions and utter lying divinations. They will not belong to the council of my people or be listed in the records of Israel" (Ezekiel 13:9).

19. God's Presence Among His People - "I will be their God, and they will be my people" (Ezekiel 37:27).

20. A New Heart and Mind - "I will give them an undivided heart and put a new spirit in them; I will remove from them their heart of stone and give them a heart of flesh" (Ezekiel 11:19).

These promises reveal God's deep love for His people and His desire to be in relationship with them. They also demonstrate His power to protect them from harm, to unify them in purpose and vision, and to transform them from the inside out. Overall, the promises made in the book of Ezekiel reflect God's faithfulness, mercy, and grace towards His people.
