God's Promises in Habakkuk

In the book of Habakkuk, God makes several promises to the prophet. Here are some of them, along with their respective Bible references:

1. God promises to raise up the Babylonians to punish Judah for their disobedience, but ultimately the Babylonians themselves will be punished (Habakkuk 1:5-11).
2. God promises that the righteous will live by faith (Habakkuk 2:4).
3. God promises that the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord as the waters cover the sea (Habakkuk 2:14).
4. God promises to bring judgment on the wicked, but salvation to the righteous (Habakkuk 3:13-19).

Overall, the book of Habakkuk is a reminder that God is sovereign, just, and faithful to his promises, even in the midst of difficult and confusing circumstances.

5. God promises to show mercy to His people, even in the midst of judgment (Habakkuk 3:2).
6. God promises to deliver His people from their enemies (Habakkuk 3:13).
7. God promises to bring justice and righteousness to the earth (Habakkuk 2:9, 14).
8. God promises to be a stronghold for His people in times of trouble (Habakkuk 3:19).

These promises show that God is faithful to His people and His character never changes, even in times of trouble or uncertainty.
