

No copyright materials are used in this text
The summary and interpretation of the specific chapter and verses are from the Bible, they are religious text that is in the public domain.

Free to Copy and Distribute: Spread the Word!

(Peter Lok) 駱沅祺
lokpeter@outlook.com

God's Promises in Jeremiah

Chapter 1:

God promises to be with Jeremiah and to protect him (verse 8).
God promises to put His words in Jeremiah's mouth and to guide him in what to say (verse 9).
God promises to watch over His word to perform it (verse 12).

Chapter 2:

God promises that He will not forget His people (verse 2).
God promises that His people will have a land flowing with milk and honey (verse 7).
God promises that His people will be a blessing to the nations (verse 10).

Chapter 3:

God promises to restore His people if they return to Him (verse 12).
God promises to bring His people back to the land He gave to their fathers (verse 18).
God promises to give His people shepherds after His own heart (verse 15).

Chapter 4:

God promises that if His people return to Him, they will be blessed (verse 1).
God promises to send His judgment upon those who do not repent (verses 5-9).
God promises to be with His people in the midst of their suffering (verse 27).

Chapter 5:

God promises that if there is even one righteous person among His people, He will spare them from destruction (verse 1).
God promises to search for a man who acts justly and loves truth (verse 1).
God promises that His people will be judged for their sins (verse 9).

These are just a few of the promises that God made to His people in the book of Jeremiah. Throughout the book, God offers hope, restoration, and redemption to those who turn to Him in faith and repentance.

Chapter 6:

God promises to bring judgment upon His people if they do not repent (verse 6).
God promises to refine His people like silver, if they turn back to Him (verse 27).
God promises to provide a path for His people to follow (verse 16).

Chapter 7:

God promises to make His people prosper if they obey Him (verse 5-7).
God promises to dwell with His people in the temple, if they obey Him (verse 2-3).
God promises to cut off His people if they persist in their disobedience (verse 15-16).

Chapter 8:

God promises that His people will be punished for their sins (verse 12).
God promises to heal His people if they repent (verse 22).
God promises to send a time of trouble upon His people (verse 18-19).

Chapter 9:

God promises to judge His people for their deceit and wickedness (verse 9-10).
God promises to bring His people back to the land of Israel (verse 13-14).
God promises to discipline His people, but not to completely destroy them (verse 7-8).

Chapter 10:

God promises that He is the true and living God (verse 10).
God promises that the nations will be judged for their idolatry (verse 11).
God promises to teach His people the right way to live (verse 23).
These are just a few of the promises that God made to His people in the book of Jeremiah. Throughout the book, God offers hope, restoration, and redemption to those who turn to Him in faith and repentance.

Chapter 11:

God promises to fulfill His covenant with His people if they obey Him (verse 4).
God promises to bring judgment upon His people if they do not obey Him (verse 11).
God promises to reveal the conspiracies of His enemies (verse 18-19).

Chapter 12:

God promises to restore His people if they repent (verse 15).
God promises to deal with the nations that harm His people (verse 14).

God promises to discipline His people as a loving father (verse 7-8).
Chapter 13:

God promises to deal with His people's pride (verse 9-11).
God promises to destroy the false prophets and their lies (verse 13-14).
God promises to bring judgment upon His people for their sins (verse 22).
Chapter 14:

God promises to heal His people and their land if they repent (verse 11-12).
God promises to reveal the false prophets and their lies (verse 14-16).
God promises to deal with His people's sin (verse 10).
Chapter 15:

God promises to be merciful to His people if they repent (verse 19).
God promises to protect His people from their enemies (verse 20).
God promises to be a refuge for His people in times of trouble (verse 21).
Chapter 16:

God promises to send fishermen and hunters to gather His people from the nations (verse 16).
God promises to restore His people to their land (verse 15).
God promises to bring judgment upon His people for their sins (verse 18).
Chapter 17:

God promises to bless those who trust in Him and follow His ways (verse 7-8).
God promises to heal His people if they repent (verse 14).
God promises to punish those who trust in themselves and reject Him (verse 5-6).
Chapter 18:

God promises to mold and shape His people like clay (verse 6-10).
God promises to bless His people if they turn from their evil ways (verse 11-12).
God promises to bring disaster upon His people if they do not repent (verse 15).
Chapter 19:

God promises to make Jerusalem and the cities of Judah desolate (verse 8).
God promises to punish His people for their idolatry and wickedness (verse 3-4).
God promises to bring judgment upon the nations that harm His people (verse 11).
Chapter 20:

God promises to be with His faithful servants (verse 11).
God promises to punish those who harm His prophets (verse 4-6).
God promises to bring judgment upon His people for their sins (verse 4-6).
These are just a few of the promises that God made to His people in the book of Jeremiah. Throughout the book, God offers hope, restoration, and redemption to those who turn to Him in faith and repentance.

Chapter 21:

God promises to listen to His people if they repent and pray (verse 12).

God promises to fight against those who oppress His people (verse 13).

God promises to bring judgment upon Jerusalem for its sins (verse 10).

Chapter 22:

God promises to bless the king who rules with justice and righteousness (verse 3).

God promises to bring judgment upon the king who oppresses his people (verse 13-17).

God promises to restore the line of David (verse 30).

Chapter 23:

God promises to raise up a righteous branch from the line of David (verse 5-6).

God promises to punish the false prophets who lead His people astray (verse 16-17).

God promises to gather His people from the nations and bring them back to their land (verse 3-4).

Chapter 24:

God promises to bless His people who remain faithful to Him (verse 5).

God promises to punish His people who reject Him and follow after false gods (verse 8).

God promises to be with His people and make them prosper (verse 6).

Chapter 25:

God promises to punish the nations that have harmed His people (verse 12).

God promises to restore His people to their land after 70 years of exile (verse 11).

God promises to bring judgment upon the nations that refuse to serve Him (verse 28-29).

Chapter 26:

God promises to spare Jerusalem from destruction if the people repent (verse 3).

God promises to punish Jerusalem for its sins if the people do not repent (verse 6).

Chapter 27:

God promises to punish the nations that refuse to serve Babylon (verse 8-11).

God promises to restore His people after their exile in Babylon (verse 22).

Chapter 28:

God promises to judge the false prophets who lead His people astray (verse 15-17).

God promises to restore the nation of Judah after its exile in Babylon (verse 4).

Chapter 29:

God promises to restore His people after their exile in Babylon (verse 10-14).

God promises to hear the prayers of His people if they seek Him with all their heart (verse 12-13).

God promises to punish the false prophets who lead His people astray (verse 21-23).

Chapter 30:

God promises to restore His people and heal their wounds after their exile in Babylon (verse 17).

God promises to punish the nations that harm His people (verse 16).

God promises to raise up a righteous ruler from the line of David (verse 9), particularly in chapters 31-35. Here are some of the key promises:

Chapter 31:

God promises to restore His people and their land (verse 4-5).

God promises to establish a new covenant with His people (verse 31-34).

God promises to gather His people from the ends of the earth and bring them back to their land (verse 8-11).

Chapter 32:

God promises to restore His people and their land (verse 37-41).

God promises to make an everlasting covenant with His people (verse 40).

Chapter 33:

God promises to restore His people and their land (verse 7).

God promises to raise up a righteous branch from the line of David (verse 15-16).

God promises to make an everlasting covenant with His people (verse 20-22).

Chapter 34:

God promises to punish the king of Babylon and restore His people to their land (verse 2-5).

God promises to make an everlasting covenant with His people (verse 8-10).

Chapter 35:

God promises to bless the descendants of Jonadab the son of Rechab for their obedience (verse 18-19).

God promises to punish Judah for their disobedience (verse 13-17).

Chapter 36:

God promises to punish Judah for their disobedience and rejection of His word (verse 31).

Chapter 37:

God promises to protect Jeremiah and spare his life despite the persecution he faced (verse 17-18).

Chapter 38:

God promises to protect and rescue Jeremiah from the cistern where he was imprisoned (verse 6-13).

Chapter 39:

God promises to bring judgment upon Babylon and restore His people to their land (verse 11-14).

Chapter 40:

God promises to protect and provide for Jeremiah as he remains in Judah after the Babylonian conquest (verse 4-5).

God promises to show mercy to those who surrender to Babylon and trust in Him (verse 9-10).

Chapter 42:

God promises to guide and protect the remnant of Judah if they obey His voice and stay in the land (verse 10-12).

Chapter 43:

God promises to punish the Babylonians and protect His people if they obey His voice and stay in the land (verse 10-13).

Chapter 44:

God promises to punish the remnant of Judah who fled to Egypt and refused to listen to His voice (verse 11-14).

Chapter 45:

God promises to protect and preserve Baruch, Jeremiah's scribe, despite the difficult circumstances they faced (verse 5).

Chapter 46:

God promises to punish Egypt and deliver His people from their oppression (verse 25-26).

Chapter 48:

God promises to punish Moab and restore His people to their land (verse 47).

Chapter 49:

God promises to punish Ammon and restore His people to their land (verse 6).

Chapter 50-51:

God promises to punish Babylon for their sins and deliver His people from their captivity (verse 33-34, 45).

Chapter 52:

God's promise of judgment is carried out as the Babylonians destroy Jerusalem and the temple (verse 12-14).