God's Promises in Joshua

In the book of Joshua, there are several promises that God made to Joshua and the Israelites

1. The promise of the land (Joshua 1:2-4): God promised to give the Israelites all the land from the desert to Lebanon, and from the Euphrates River to the Mediterranean Sea.
2. The promise of victory (Joshua 1:5-6): God promised to be with Joshua and the Israelites and to give them victory over their enemies.
3. The promise of success (Joshua 1:7-8): God promised that if Joshua obeyed his commands and followed his ways, he would be successful in all he did.
4. The promise of courage (Joshua 1:9): God promised to be with Joshua and the Israelites and to give them courage and strength.
5. The promise of divine guidance (Joshua 3:7): God promised to guide Joshua and the Israelites as they crossed the Jordan River.
6. The promise of protection (Joshua 10:8-11): God promised to protect the Israelites as they fought against the armies of the Canaanites.
7. The promise of miraculous signs (Joshua 10:12-14): God promised to perform miraculous signs to show that he was with the Israelites, including causing the sun and moon to stand still.
8. The promise of victory (Joshua 11:6): God promised to give Joshua and the Israelites victory over the armies of the Canaanites, which was fulfilled as they defeated a coalition of Canaanite kings.
9. The promise of the land (Joshua 13:1-7): God promised to give the Israelites all the land that remained to be conquered, which was later divided among the tribes.
10. The promise of rest (Joshua 14:15): God promised to give Caleb and his descendants the land of Hebron as their inheritance, which they received as a place of rest and security.
11. The promise of justice (Joshua 20:2-6): God promised to provide justice for those who accidentally caused the death of another person by providing cities of refuge where they could flee and receive a fair trial.

12. The promise of protection (Joshua 20:7-9): God promised to protect those who sought refuge in the cities of refuge and to prevent the avenger of blood from harming them.
13. The promise of rest (Joshua 21:43-44): God promised to give the Israelites rest from their enemies and to give them all the land he had sworn to give their ancestors.
14. The promise of provision (Joshua 21:45): God promised to fulfill all the good promises he had made to the Israelites and to give them everything he had promised.
15. The promise of unity (Joshua 22:5): God promised to unite the tribes of Israel by calling them to love and serve him with all their heart and soul.
16. The promise of inheritance (Joshua 18:3): God promised to give the Israelites the land as their inheritance, and urged them to survey the land and divide it among the tribes.
17. The promise of provision (Joshua 21:2-3): God promised to provide the Levites with cities to live in and land for their livestock, which was fulfilled as the Levites were given towns and pasturelands throughout the land.
18. The promise of divine presence (Joshua 21:45): God promised to be with the Israelites and to fulfill all the good promises he had made to them, which was fulfilled as they settled in the land and built the tabernacle as a place of worship.
19. The promise of rest (Joshua 21:44): God fulfilled his promise to give the Israelites rest from their enemies by allowing them to conquer and settle in the Promised Land.
20. The promise of provision (Joshua 21:45): God fulfilled his promise to provide for the Israelites by giving them the land flowing with milk and honey, and by providing for their needs throughout their journey.
21. The promise of victory (Joshua 23:10-11): God promised to fight for the Israelites and to give them victory over their enemies, which he fulfilled as they conquered the Canaanites and other nations in the land.
22. The promise of his presence (Joshua 23:14): God promised to be with the Israelites always, and to never leave or forsake them, which he fulfilled as he led them through the wilderness and into the Promised Land.
23. The promise of the covenant (Joshua 24:25): God renewed his covenant with the Israelites and promised to be their God, and for them to be his people, which he fulfilled as they continued to follow him and serve him faithfully
