

No copyright materials are used in this text
The summary and interpretation of the specific chapter and verses are from the Bible, they are religious text that is in the public domain.

Free to Copy and Distribute: Spread the Word!

(Peter Lok) 駱沅祺
lokpeter@outlook.com

Prayers Psalm 42-72

Dear Father,

As we read through Psalms 42-52, we are reminded of your unfailing love, your mercy, and your faithfulness. We come before you now, seeking your guidance and your comfort in our lives.

We thank you for Psalm 42, which speaks of the psalmist's thirst for you. We pray that you would give us a thirst for you and that we would long to be in your presence. Help us to trust in you and to find our hope in your unfailing love.

We thank you for Psalm 43, which is a prayer for deliverance. We pray that you would deliver us from all our enemies and that you would guide us in the paths of righteousness. Help us to find our joy in you and to praise you always.

We thank you for Psalm 44, which is a reminder of your past faithfulness. We pray that you would continue to be faithful to us and that you would guide us through all the trials and struggles of life. Help us to trust in your steadfast love and to find rest in your promises.

We thank you for Psalm 45, which speaks of your greatness and your majesty. We pray that we would see your beauty and your glory, and that we would be filled with awe and wonder. Help us to praise you and to give you thanks for all that you have done for us.

We thank you for Psalm 46, which speaks of your protection and your care. We pray that you would be our refuge and our strength, and that you would help us in times of trouble. Help us to trust in your power and to find rest in your presence.

We thank you for Psalm 47, which is a call to worship and praise. We pray that we would worship you in spirit and in truth, and that we would give you the honor and the glory that you deserve. Help us to rejoice in your salvation and to sing your praises always.

We thank you for Psalm 48, which speaks of your love for your people. We pray that you would continue to love us and to protect us, and that you would guide us in all that we do. Help us to trust in your unfailing love and to find joy in your salvation.

We thank you for Psalm 49, which is a reminder of the fleeting nature of earthly riches. We pray that we would not put our trust in wealth or in the things of this world, but that we would put our trust in you alone. Help us to seek first your kingdom and your righteousness.

We thank you for Psalm 50, which is a reminder of your justice and your mercy. We pray that we would fear you and honor you, and that we would trust in your justice and your mercy. Help us to offer to you the sacrifice of praise and to fulfill our vows to you.

We thank you for Psalm 51, which is a prayer for forgiveness and restoration. We pray that you would cleanse us from our sins and that you would restore us to a right relationship with you. Help us to confess our sins to you and to find joy in your forgiveness and your grace.

In Jesus's name, Amen

Dear God, as we read through Psalms 53-72, we are reminded of your greatness and your faithfulness. We come before you now, seeking your guidance and your comfort in our lives.

We thank you for Psalm 53, which speaks of the folly of those who reject you. We pray that you would open the eyes of those who are blind to your truth, and that they would come to know you as their Lord and Savior. Help us to be bold witnesses for you, and to share your love with those around us.

We thank you for Psalm 54, which is a prayer for deliverance. We pray that you would deliver us from all our enemies, and that you would guide us in the paths of righteousness. Help us to trust in your unfailing love, and to find our strength in you alone.

We thank you for Psalm 55, which speaks of the psalmist's anguish and pain. We pray for those who are hurting and suffering today, that you would comfort them and heal their brokenness. Help us to be a source of comfort and encouragement to those around us.

We thank you for Psalm 56, which is a reminder of your faithfulness in the face of fear. We pray that you would help us to trust in you, even when we are afraid. Help us to find our refuge in you, and to take comfort in your promises.

We thank you for Psalm 57, which is a prayer of praise and thanksgiving. We pray that we would always be mindful of your goodness and your mercy, and that we would give you thanks and praise for all that you have done for us. Help us to sing your praises and to rejoice in your salvation.

We thank you for Psalm 58, which speaks of your justice and your righteousness. We pray that you would bring justice to the oppressed and the downtrodden, and that you would hold accountable those who do evil. Help us to be agents of justice and mercy in our world.

We thank you for Psalm 59, which is a prayer for deliverance from enemies. We pray that you would protect us from those who seek to harm us, and that you would guide us in the way of righteousness. Help us to trust in your power and to find our security in you alone.

We thank you for Psalm 60, which is a prayer for restoration. We pray that you would restore us to a right relationship with you, and that you would heal the brokenness in our lives. Help us to put our trust in you, and to find our strength in your love.

We thank you for Psalm 61, which speaks of your sheltering love. We pray that you would be our refuge and our strength, and that you would guide us in all that we do. Help us to find our rest in you, and to trust in your unfailing love.

We thank you for Psalm 62, which is a reminder of your steadfast love and your unfailing mercy. We pray that we would trust in you alone, and that we would find our hope and our salvation in you. Help us to rest in your promises, and to live each day for your glory.

In Jesus's name. Amen. Dear God, as we read through Psalms 63-72, we are reminded of your greatness and your power. We come before you now, seeking your guidance and your wisdom in our lives.

We thank you for Psalm 63, which speaks of the psalmist's thirst for you. We pray that we too would hunger and thirst for your presence in our lives, and that we would find our satisfaction in you alone. Help us to seek you with all our hearts, and to know you more deeply each day.

We thank you for Psalm 64, which speaks of your protection in the face of enemies. We pray that you would protect us from those who seek to harm us, and that you would guide us in the way of righteousness. Help us to trust in your power, and to find our security in your love.

We thank you for Psalm 65, which is a hymn of praise to your greatness and your power. We pray that we too would give you thanks and praise for all that you have done for us, and that we would celebrate your goodness in our lives. Help us to sing your praises and to rejoice in your salvation.

We thank you for Psalm 66, which is a hymn of praise for your mighty deeds. We pray that we would always be mindful of your power and your greatness, and that we would give you thanks and praise for all that you have done for us. Help us to testify to your goodness and to share your love with those around us.

We thank you for Psalm 67, which is a prayer for your blessing on all nations. We pray that your kingdom would come, and that your will would be done on earth as it is in heaven. Help us to be agents of your peace and your justice in our world.

We thank you for Psalm 68, which speaks of your power and your protection for the oppressed. We pray for those who are oppressed and downtrodden today, that you would protect them and guide them in the way of righteousness. Help us to stand with the marginalized and to speak out against injustice.

We thank you for Psalm 69, which is a cry for help in the face of suffering. We pray for those who are suffering today, that you would comfort them and heal their brokenness. Help us to be a source of compassion and empathy for those who are hurting.

We thank you for Psalm 70, which is a prayer for deliverance from enemies. We pray that you would protect us from those who seek to harm us, and that you would guide us in the way of righteousness. Help us to trust in your power, and to find our security in your love.

We thank you for Psalm 71, which is a prayer for your protection in old age. We pray for the elderly and the vulnerable, that you would protect them and provide for their needs. Help us to honor our elders and to care for those who are in need.

We thank you for Psalm 72, which is a prayer for the king's reign. We pray for our leaders, that they would rule with justice and righteousness, and that they would seek your wisdom and guidance in all that they do. Help us to be agents of your peace and your love in our communities and in our world.

In Jesus's name, Amen