

No copyright materials are used in this text
The summary and interpretation of the specific chapter and verses are from the Bible, they are religious text that is in the public domain.

Free to Copy and Distribute: Spread the Word!

(Peter Lok) 駱沅祺
lokpeter@outlook.com

Prayers for 2 Kings

Chapter 1:

Heavenly Father, we pray for wisdom and discernment like Elijah had when he was confronted by King Ahaziah's messengers. May we have the courage to stand firm in our faith and trust in You, even when we are faced with challenges and opposition. Help us to seek Your will and follow Your guidance in all circumstances. Amen.

Chapter 2:

Lord, we ask for a double portion of Your Spirit, just as Elijah asked of Elisha before he was taken up to heaven in a whirlwind. Help us to walk in the power and authority of Your Spirit, and to serve You with our whole hearts. May we be faithful like Elisha in following You and doing Your will, no matter what the cost. Amen.

Chapter 3:

Dear God, we lift up to You the leaders of our nations and communities. May they seek Your guidance and wisdom as they make decisions that affect the lives of many people. Help us to be peacemakers and to work towards reconciliation and unity, just as Elisha brought peace between the kings of Israel, Judah, and Edom. May Your love and mercy be evident in all we do. Amen.

Chapter 4:

Heavenly Father, we thank You for the miracles You performed through Elisha, such as healing the woman's son and multiplying the widow's oil. We pray for Your supernatural provision in our lives and for Your healing touch in our bodies and minds. May we trust in Your goodness and faithfulness, and may we use the resources You provide to bless others and advance Your kingdom. Amen.

Chapter 5:

Lord, we pray for humility and obedience like Naaman's servant girl and Naaman himself, who were willing to follow the instructions of Your prophet and be cleansed of their leprosy. May we recognize our need for Your grace and mercy, and may we submit to Your ways even when they do not make sense to us. Help us to live a life of gratitude and to give You the glory for all You have done. Amen.

Chapter 6:

Dear God, we ask for Your protection and provision in times of trouble and hardship, just as You provided for Elisha and the city of Samaria when they were under siege. Help us to trust in Your power and sovereignty, and to have faith that You are with us even in the midst of difficult circumstances. May we be a light to others, pointing them to You as the source of hope and salvation. Amen.

Chapter 7:

Heavenly Father, we pray for Your miraculous intervention in our lives, just as You provided for the starving people of Samaria by causing the enemy army to flee in terror. May we have faith in Your ability to do the impossible, and may we trust in Your goodness and provision. Help us to be generous and compassionate towards those in need, just as You have been generous and compassionate towards us. Amen.

Chapter 8:

Lord, we ask for Your wisdom and guidance in all our dealings, just as Elisha advised the Shunammite woman to flee from the famine in Israel and later helped her reclaim her land from the king of Judah. May we be wise stewards of the resources You have given us, and may we use them to honor You and bless others. Help us to seek Your will and follow Your guidance in all our decisions. Amen.

Chapter 9:

Dear God, we pray for justice and righteousness in our world, just as You brought judgment upon the house of Ahab through Jehu. May we be faithful in obeying Your commands and living according to Your standards, and may we stand firmly against evil and injustice. Help us to be bold in proclaiming Your truth and living out Your love, even when it is difficult or unpopular. May we trust in Your justice and mercy, and may we seek to extend that mercy to those who are lost or hurting. Amen.

Chapter 10:

Heavenly Father, we pray for courage and discernment in dealing with those who oppose Your truth, just as Jehu eliminated the worship of Baal in Israel. May we be vigilant in guarding our hearts and minds against false teachings and beliefs, and may we be bold in sharing Your gospel with those who are lost. Help us to love our enemies and to pray for those who persecute us, trusting in Your ultimate victory over all evil. Amen.

Chapter 11:

Lord, we ask for Your protection and provision for those who are vulnerable, just as Jehoiada preserved the life of Joash and restored him to the throne of Judah. May we be advocates for the marginalized and oppressed, and may we use our resources to bless and empower those in need. Help us to be faithful in following Your commands and serving Your kingdom, even in the face of opposition or persecution. Amen.

Chapter 12:

Dear God, we pray for integrity and accountability in our leadership, just as Jehoash repaired the temple and collected funds for its maintenance. May we be wise stewards of the resources You have entrusted to us, and may we use them to honor You and further Your kingdom. Help us to live with honesty and transparency, and to hold ourselves and others accountable for our actions. Amen.

Chapter 13:

Heavenly Father, we pray for revival and renewal in our hearts and in our communities, just as Elisha brought new life to the dead bones of the man who touched his bones. May we be filled with Your Spirit and with a passion for Your kingdom, and may we work towards the restoration of all things in Christ. Help us to live with faith and obedience, and to trust in Your power to do immeasurably more than we can ask or imagine. Amen.

Chapter 14:

Lord, we ask for humility and repentance in our lives, just as Amaziah was defeated by Jehoash and sought peace with him. May we recognize our own limitations and weaknesses, and may we submit to Your will and ways. Help us to walk in integrity and righteousness, and to seek reconciliation and peace with others. May Your grace and mercy abound in our lives. Amen.

Chapter 15:

Dear God, we pray for faithfulness and perseverance in the face of opposition and adversity, just as Azariah/Uzziah and Jotham did during their reigns in Judah. May we trust in Your strength and provision, and may we remain steadfast in our commitment to You and Your kingdom. Help us to walk in humility and to rely on Your wisdom and guidance. Amen.

Chapter 16:

Heavenly Father, we pray for discernment and obedience in our relationships and alliances, just as Ahaz made unwise alliances with Assyria and followed their practices instead of Yours. May we seek Your will and guidance in all our relationships, and may we honor You above all else. Help us to be faithful in following Your commands, even when it requires sacrifice or goes against popular opinion. Amen.

Chapter 17:

Lord, we ask for repentance and revival in our hearts and in our nations, just as Israel was carried off into exile due to their persistent disobedience and idolatry. May we turn away from our sin and seek Your forgiveness and mercy. Help us to be faithful in following Your commands and living according to Your ways, and may we work towards the restoration of all things in Christ. Amen.

Chapter 18

Dear God, we pray for courage and faithfulness in the face of opposition and threats, just as Hezekiah faced the Assyrian army and trusted in Your deliverance. May we trust in Your power and provision, even when it seems like the odds are against us. Help us to walk in obedience and righteousness, and to seek Your will above all else. May Your name be glorified through our lives. Amen.

Chapter 19:

Heavenly Father, we pray for hope and trust in the midst of trials and challenges, just as Hezekiah prayed to You when faced with the threats of the Assyrians. May we trust in Your sovereignty and goodness, even when circumstances seem bleak. Help us to seek Your wisdom and guidance, and to trust in Your promises and faithfulness. May Your peace and joy sustain us through all things. Amen.

Chapter 20:

Lord, we ask for humility and gratitude in the face of Your grace and mercy, just as Hezekiah was granted additional years of life after praying to You. May we recognize the ways You have blessed and sustained us, and may we respond with grateful hearts and lives that honor You. Help us to trust in Your plans and purposes, and to walk in obedience and faithfulness. Amen.

Chapter 21:

Dear God, we pray for repentance and revival in our lives and in our nations, just as Manasseh led Judah into idolatry and wickedness. May we turn away from our sin and seek Your forgiveness and mercy. Help us to be faithful in following Your commands, and to live according to Your ways. May Your grace and love transform us from the inside out. Amen.

Chapter 22:

Heavenly Father, we pray for a hunger for Your word and a heart for obedience, just as Josiah rediscovered the book of the law and sought to obey its commands. May we treasure Your word and seek to live by its teachings, and may we be open to the guidance of Your Spirit. Help us to walk in humility and righteousness, and to honor You with our lives. Amen.

Chapter 23:

Lord, we ask for a passion for justice and righteousness, just as Josiah led Judah in reforming the nation and purging it of idolatry and wickedness. May we stand firm against evil and injustice, and may we work towards the restoration of all things in Christ. Help us to be faithful in following Your commands and living according to Your ways, and to trust in Your justice and mercy. Amen.

Chapter 24:

Dear God, we pray for humility and surrender in the face of discipline and consequences, just as Judah was carried off into exile due to their disobedience and idolatry. May we submit to Your will and ways, even when it requires sacrifice or discipline. Help us to trust in Your sovereignty and goodness, and to seek Your guidance and wisdom in all things. May Your grace and mercy sustain us through all things. Amen.

Chapter 25:

Heavenly Father, we pray for restoration and renewal in the midst of devastation and loss, just as the people of Judah were carried off into exile and the temple was destroyed. May we trust in Your faithfulness and provision, even in the midst of trials and challenges. Help us to be faithful in following Your commands and living according to Your ways, and to seek Your glory in all things. May Your name be exalted above all else. Amen.