

No copyright materials are used in this text
The summary and interpretation of the specific chapter and verses are from the Bible, they are religious text that is in the public domain.

Free to Copy and Distribute: Spread the Word!

(Peter Lok) 駱沅祺
lokpeter@outlook.com

Prayers for Exodus

Chapter 1:

Dear God, we pray for all those who suffer under oppressive systems, just as the Israelites did in Egypt. May you have mercy on them and grant them liberation from their oppression. Help us to be agents of justice and mercy in the world.

Chapter 2:

Dear Lord, we thank you for the example of Moses, who risked his own life to save the life of another. Give us the courage to stand up for what is right, even when it is difficult or dangerous.

Chapter 3:

Heavenly Father, we praise you for your holiness and your faithfulness to your promises. Help us to listen for your voice and follow your guidance, just as Moses did when he encountered you in the burning bush.

Chapter 4:

Dear God, we pray for those who doubt their own abilities, just as Moses did when you called him to lead the Israelites out of Egypt. May they trust in your strength and your guidance, and may we encourage and support them in their journey.

Chapter 5:

Dear Lord, we pray for those who suffer under the weight of injustice, just as the Israelites did when Pharaoh increased their burden. May you raise up leaders who will advocate for the oppressed and work to bring about change in their lives.

Chapter 6:

Heavenly Father, we praise you for your faithfulness to your promises, even when we are faithless. Help us to trust in your goodness and your power, just as the Israelites did when you promised to deliver them from Egypt.

Chapter 7:

Dear God, we pray for those who are stubborn and resistant to your will, just as Pharaoh was when he refused to let the Israelites go. May your Spirit soften their hearts and open their eyes to your truth.

Chapter 8:

Dear Lord, we pray for those who are plagued by hardship and suffering, just as the Egyptians were when you sent plagues upon their land. May we be compassionate and generous to those who are struggling, and may you bring healing and restoration to their lives.

Chapter 9:

Heavenly Father, we praise you for your power and your sovereignty over all creation. Help us to recognize your authority and submit to your will, just as the Egyptians did when they were struck by your plagues.

Chapter 10:

Dear God, we pray for those who are prideful and arrogant, just as Pharaoh was when he refused to acknowledge your power. May they humble themselves before you and seek your mercy and forgiveness.

Chapter 11:

Dear Lord, we thank you for your protection and provision, even in the midst of danger and uncertainty. Help us to trust in your care for us, just as the Israelites trusted in your promise to protect them from the final plague.

Chapter 12:

Heavenly Father, we praise you for your deliverance and salvation, which we see foreshadowed in the Passover. Help us to understand the significance of Christ's sacrifice for us, and to live in the freedom that he has won for us.

Chapter 13:

Dear God, we pray for your guidance and your presence with us, just as you were present with the Israelites in the pillar of cloud and fire. Help us to follow your lead and to trust in your protection and provision.

Chapter 14:

Dear Lord, we thank you for your power to save us, even in the midst of impossible situations. May we never lose faith in your ability to deliver us from our trials and tribulations.

Chapter 15:

Heavenly Father, we praise you for your victory over sin and death, which we see celebrated in the Song of Moses. Help us to rejoice in your salvation and to sing praises to your name, knowing that you are our strength and our defender.

Chapter 16:

Dear God, we thank you for your provision and sustenance, just as you provided manna for the Israelites in the wilderness. Help us to trust in your daily provision and to be content with what you have given us.

Chapter 17:

Dear Lord, we pray for those who are facing battles and struggles, just as the Israelites did when they were attacked by the Amalekites. May you give them strength and courage to persevere, and may we support and encourage them in their fight.

Chapter 18:

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the gift of wise counsel, just as Jethro provided for Moses. Help us to seek out wise mentors and advisors, and to listen to their guidance with humility and gratitude.

Chapter 19:

Dear God, we praise you for your holiness and your majesty, which we see reflected in your appearance on Mount Sinai. Help us to approach you with reverence and awe, knowing that you are a holy God.

Chapter 20:

Dear Lord, we thank you for your commandments, which guide us in how to love you and love others. Help us to live in obedience to your word, and to honor you in all that we do.

Chapter 21:

Heavenly Father, we pray for justice and mercy in our world, just as you instructed the Israelites to provide for the needs of their servants and to protect the vulnerable. May we be advocates for justice and mercy in our own communities and beyond.

Chapter 22:

Dear God, we thank you for your laws that govern our relationships with others, from caring for the poor to respecting the property of others. Help us to live in love and compassion toward our neighbors, following the example of Christ.

Chapter 23:

Dear Lord, we pray for your guidance and protection, just as you promised to lead the Israelites into the Promised Land. May we trust in your guidance and provision, and may we follow your will for our lives.

Chapter 24:

Heavenly Father, we praise you for your covenant with your people, which is marked by sacrifice and obedience. Help us to honor our commitments to you, and to trust in your faithfulness to your promises.

Chapter 25:

Dear God, we thank you for your dwelling place among your people, which we see reflected in the instructions for the Tabernacle. Help us to honor you in our worship and to create spaces where we can encounter your presence.

Chapter 26:

Dear Lord, we pray for unity and cooperation among your people, just as the Israelites worked together to construct the Tabernacle. May we be united in our love for you and for one another, and may we work together to accomplish your purposes.

Chapter 27:

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the way in which you provide for our spiritual needs, just as the Israelites were provided with oil for the lamps in the Tabernacle. Help us to be filled with your Holy Spirit, and to shine your light in a dark world.

Chapter 28:

Dear God, we pray for those who serve in ministry, just as the priests served in the Tabernacle. May they be set apart for your purposes and filled with your Spirit, and may we support and encourage them in their work.

Chapter 29:

Dear Lord, we praise you for the way in which you sanctify your people, just as the priests were consecrated for their service in the Tabernacle. Help us to be holy and set apart for your purposes, and to honor you in all that we do.

Chapter 30:

Heavenly Father, we thank you for your mercy and forgiveness, which we see reflected in the instructions for the incense altar and the bronze basin. Help us to confess our sins and seek your forgiveness, and to be filled with the sweet fragrance of your grace.

Chapter 31:

Dear God, we praise you for your creativity and your gifts, which we see reflected in the skilled craftsmen who built the Tabernacle. Help us to use our talents and abilities to honor you and serve your purposes.

Chapter 32:

Dear Lord, we pray for those who have turned away from you, just as the Israelites worshipped the golden calf. May they repent and turn back to you, and may we be faithful witnesses to your grace and truth.

Chapter 33:

Heavenly Father, we thank you for your presence with us, just as you were present with the Israelites in the wilderness. Help us to seek your face and to know you more deeply, and to walk in the power of your Spirit.

Chapter 34:

Dear God, we praise you for your mercy and your faithfulness, which we see reflected in your covenant with your people. Help us to honor our covenant with you, and to trust in your steadfast love and faithfulness.

Chapter 35:

Dear Lord, we pray for generosity and obedience in our giving, just as the Israelites gave generously for the construction of the Tabernacle. May we be faithful stewards of the resources you have given us, and may we give generously for the sake of your kingdom.

Chapter 36:

Heavenly Father, we thank you for your provision and your abundance, which we see reflected in the gifts and offerings given for the Tabernacle. Help us to trust in your provision, and to use our resources to honor you and bless others.

Chapter 37:

Dear God, we praise you for the beauty and excellence that we see in the craftsmanship of the Tabernacle furnishings. Help us to use our talents and abilities to create beauty and excellence that honors you and blesses others.

Chapter 38:

Dear Lord, we pray for integrity and obedience in our work, just as the craftsmen were careful to follow your instructions for the construction of the Tabernacle. May we be diligent and faithful in the work you have given us, and may we honor you in all that we do.

Chapter 39:

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the way in which you equip and empower your people for your purposes, just as you equipped the priests for their service in the Tabernacle. Help us to be filled with your Holy Spirit, and to walk in the power and authority you have given us.

Chapter 40:

Dear God, we praise you for your presence with us, just as you were present with the Israelites in the Tabernacle. Help us to honor your presence, and to be filled with the joy and peace that come from being in your presence. May we be faithful to follow you wherever you lead us, and may we be witnesses to your love and grace in the world.
Amen.