

No copyright materials are used in this text
The summary and interpretation of the specific chapter and verses are from the Bible, they are religious text that is in the public domain.

Free to Copy and Distribute: Spread the Word!

(Peter Lok) 駱沅祺
lokpeter@outlook.com

Prayers for Leviticus

Chapter 1:

Dear God, as we read about the burnt offering in Leviticus chapter 1, we are reminded of your holiness and our need to approach you with reverence and humility. Thank you for providing a way for us to come into your presence through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ. Help us to offer ourselves as living sacrifices to you, holy and pleasing, as a spiritual act of worship.

Chapter 2:

Lord, we thank you for the grain offering described in Leviticus chapter 2. Help us to remember that everything we have comes from you, and to give back to you with grateful hearts. May our lives be a sweet fragrance to you, pleasing and acceptable through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Chapter 3:

Father, we thank you for the peace offering described in Leviticus chapter 3. Help us to remember that our peace with you comes through Jesus Christ, who reconciled us to you through his death on the cross. May we experience the peace that surpasses all understanding, as we trust in you and follow your ways.

Chapter 4:

Lord, we confess our sins to you, as described in Leviticus chapter 4. We acknowledge that we have all fallen short of your standards, and we ask for your forgiveness and cleansing. Thank you for the blood of Jesus, which washes away our sins and makes us pure and righteous in your sight.

Chapter 5:

Heavenly Father, we thank you for the sin offering described in Leviticus chapter 5. Help us to remember that our sins have consequences, but that you are gracious and merciful, forgiving us when we confess and repent. May we be quick to admit our wrongdoing and seek your forgiveness, knowing that you are faithful and just to forgive us and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Chapter 6:

Lord, we thank you for the instructions regarding the burnt offering and the grain offering in Leviticus chapter 6. Help us to remember that our worship and service to you should be characterized by obedience, humility, and sincerity. May we offer ourselves to you as living sacrifices, holy and acceptable through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Chapter 7:

Father, we thank you for the peace offering described in Leviticus chapter 7. Help us to remember that our peace with you comes through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ, who made peace by the blood of his cross. May we experience the joy and comfort of your peace, and share it with others as we serve you with gladness and generosity.

Chapter 8:

Lord, we thank you for the consecration of Aaron and his sons, as described in Leviticus chapter 8. Help us to remember that we too are called to be a holy priesthood, set apart for your purposes and empowered by your Spirit. May we be filled with your wisdom and grace, and serve you faithfully all the days of our lives.

Chapter 9:

Father, we thank you for the dedication of the tabernacle and the priesthood, as described in Leviticus chapter 9. Help us to remember that you dwell among us, and that we are called to worship and serve you with reverence and awe. May our lives be a living sacrifice to you, holy and pleasing through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Chapter 10:

Lord, we thank you for the solemn reminder of your holiness and our need for obedience, as described in Leviticus chapter 10. Help us to remember that our actions have consequences, and that we must take seriously our responsibility to represent you and honor you in all that we do. May we be filled with your Spirit and walk in your ways, bringing glory to your name.

Chapter 11:

Father, we thank you for the instructions regarding clean and unclean animals, as described in Leviticus chapter 11. Help us to remember that you are a God of order and purity, and that you call us to live holy and righteous lives. May we discern what is good and pleasing to you, and avoid what is harmful and defiling.

Chapter 12:

Lord, we thank you for the laws regarding childbirth and purification, as described in Leviticus chapter 12. Help us to remember that every life is a precious gift from you, and that we are called to nurture and protect the vulnerable. May we honor you by valuing and respecting all human life, from conception to natural death.

Chapter 13:

Father, we thank you for the instructions regarding skin diseases and infections, as described in Leviticus chapter 13. Help us to remember that sin and its effects have brought sickness and death into the world, but that you are a God who heals and restores. May we seek your mercy and grace, and trust in your power to heal and save.

Chapter 14:

Lord, we thank you for the laws regarding cleansing from leprosy, as described in Leviticus chapter 14. Help us to remember that you are a God of mercy and compassion, who restores the outcast and heals the brokenhearted. May we offer comfort and hope to those who are suffering, and proclaim your good news of salvation to all.

Chapter 15:

Father, we thank you for the laws regarding bodily discharges, as described in Leviticus chapter 15. Help us to remember that you have created us as sexual beings, and that our sexuality is a gift to be enjoyed within the boundaries of marriage. May we honor you by living pure and holy lives, and by treating others with respect and dignity.

Chapter 16:

Lord, we thank you for the Day of Atonement, as described in Leviticus chapter 16. Help us to remember that our sins have separated us from you, but that you have provided a way for us to be reconciled through the sacrifice of Jesus Christ. May we confess our sins and trust in his atoning work, and be filled with joy and peace as we experience your forgiveness and love.

Chapter 17:

Father, we thank you for the laws regarding the slaughter of animals and the prohibition against eating blood, as described in Leviticus chapter 17. Help us to remember that you have created all things, and that we are called to be good stewards of the earth and its resources. May we honor you by respecting your creation, and by offering ourselves to you as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Chapter 18:

Lord, we thank you for the laws regarding sexual immorality, as described in Leviticus chapter 18. Help us to remember that you have designed sex as a gift to be enjoyed within the boundaries of marriage, and that any sexual activity outside of marriage is sin. May we honor you by living pure and holy lives, and by respecting and protecting the sanctity of marriage and the family.

Chapter 19:

Father, we thank you for the laws regarding holiness and justice, as described in Leviticus chapter 19. Help us to remember that you are a God of love and righteousness, who calls us to be holy and to love our neighbors as ourselves. May we be known for our compassion, generosity, and integrity, and may we seek to promote justice and righteousness in our world.

Chapter 20:

Lord, we thank you for the laws regarding punishments for sin, as described in Leviticus chapter 20. Help us to remember that sin has consequences, and that your justice demands that sin be punished. May we fear you and obey your commands, and may we trust in your mercy and grace to forgive us and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Chapter 21:

Father, we thank you for the laws regarding the holiness of priests, as described in Leviticus chapter 21. Help us to remember that you have set apart those who serve you, and that they are to live holy and blameless lives, setting an example for others to follow. May we honor you by respecting and supporting those who serve in ministry, and by praying for them and their families.

Chapter 22:

Lord, we thank you for the laws regarding the sanctity of offerings, as described in Leviticus chapter 22. Help us to remember that you deserve our best, and that we are to offer to you our first fruits, our finest and our purest. May we honor you by giving you our whole heart, our whole mind, and our whole strength, and by offering to you our best in all that we do.

Chapter 23:

Father, we thank you for the appointed times and festivals, as described in Leviticus chapter 23. Help us to remember that you are a God of celebration and joy, who desires to be in relationship with us. May we honor you by setting aside special times to worship you, to remember your faithfulness and your salvation, and to fellowship with others who love you.

Chapter 24:

Lord, we thank you for the laws regarding the lampstand, the showbread, and the blasphemer, as described in Leviticus chapter 24. Help us to remember that you are the light of the world, the bread of life, and the only true God. May we honor you by worshipping you in spirit and in truth, and by bearing witness to your truth and your grace.

Chapter 25:

Father, we thank you for the laws regarding the Sabbath year and the Year of Jubilee, as described in Leviticus chapter 25. Help us to remember that you are a God of rest and renewal, who desires to restore all things and to set the captives free. May we honor you by trusting in your provision and your faithfulness, and by sharing your love and your justice with those who are oppressed and in need.

Chapter 26:

Lord, we thank you for the blessings and curses, as described in Leviticus chapter 26. Help us to remember that you are a God of mercy and judgment, who rewards obedience and punishes disobedience. May we fear you and obey your commands, and may we trust in your promises and your faithfulness, even in times of trial and difficulty.

Chapter 27:

Father, we thank you for the laws regarding vows and dedications, as described in Leviticus chapter 27. Help us to remember that you have called us to offer ourselves as living sacrifices, holy and pleasing to you. May we honor you by keeping our promises and commitments, and by dedicating our lives and our resources to your service and your glory.

Thank you for your guidance and wisdom, Lord. May we always remember the lessons and teachings of Leviticus, and may we apply them to our lives as we seek to honor you and follow your ways. Help us to trust in your love and grace, and to live lives that bring you glory and honor. In Jesus' name we pray, Amen.