

No copyright materials are used in this text
The summary and interpretation of the specific chapter and verses are from the Bible, they are religious text that is in the public domain.

Free to Copy and Distribute: Spread the Word!

(Peter Lok) 駱沅祺
lokpeter@outlook.com

Prayers for Miach

Chapter 1:

Gracious God, we come before you with heavy hearts as we hear the words of Micah, speaking of judgment and destruction. We confess that we have often strayed from your ways, seeking after our own selfish desires rather than following your commands. Help us to turn back to you, to humble ourselves and seek your forgiveness. Give us the strength to walk in your ways, to act with justice and mercy, and to be a light in the darkness. We pray for your mercy and grace to be upon us, and upon all those who have turned away from you. Amen.

Chapter 2:

Holy One, we hear Micah's words of condemnation for those who oppress the poor and vulnerable, who take what is not theirs and build their wealth on the backs of the weak. We pray for justice to prevail, for the wrongs to be made right and for the oppressed to be lifted up. We ask for your guidance as we seek to be agents of change in a world that is often unjust. Help us to speak truth to power, to stand with the marginalized and to work towards a world where all can live in peace and security. May your justice flow like a river, and your righteousness like a never-failing stream. Amen.

Chapter 3:

Gracious God, we hear Micah's words of rebuke for those who misuse their power and authority, who exploit the trust of others and use violence to get their way. We pray for all those who have suffered at the hands of those in power, for those who have been silenced, abused or oppressed. We ask for your healing presence to be with them, to comfort them and to bring them hope. We pray for those in positions of leadership, that they may be guided by your wisdom and be faithful stewards of the power entrusted to them. May they use their influence to promote justice, to protect the vulnerable and to build a more peaceful and just world. Amen.

Chapter 4:

Holy One, we hear Micah's words of hope for a future where your peace and justice reigns, where weapons of war are turned into tools for farming, where all people are valued and respected. We pray for the vision and courage to work towards this future, to be agents of peace and builders of community. Help us to see the ways in which we can make a difference in our own lives and in the lives of those around us. Give us the strength to stand against violence and oppression, and to work towards a world where all can live in dignity and peace. Amen.

Chapter 5:

Gracious God, we hear Micah's words of prophecy, pointing to a future where a ruler will come from Bethlehem and bring salvation to your people. We give thanks for this promise of hope, for the way in which you have worked throughout history to bring about your purposes. We pray for the strength to trust in your promises, even when the world seems dark and uncertain. Help us to be people of hope, who look to the future with confidence and joy. May we be filled with your love, and share it with all those around us. Amen.

Chapter 6:

Holy One, we hear Micah's words calling your people to remember all that you have done for them, to turn back to you with humble hearts and seek your forgiveness. We pray for the humility to recognize our own shortcomings, and to turn towards you with open hearts and minds. We ask for your mercy and grace, that we may be made new and be filled with your love. Help us to act with justice and mercy, and to walk humbly with you. May our lives be a reflection of your love and grace, and may we use our resources and talents to serve others and bring about your kingdom on earth. We pray for all those who are in need, for the hungry, the sick, the lonely and the marginalized. May we be your hands and feet in the world, bringing healing and hope to all those we encounter. Amen.

Chapter 7:

Gracious God, we hear Micah's words of lament, as he speaks of the corruption and sin that has infected your people. We acknowledge our own complicity in this brokenness, and we seek your forgiveness and mercy. We pray for your healing touch, for the power of your love to overcome all that separates us from you and from each other. We ask for the courage to speak truth to power, to stand against injustice and to work towards a more just and peaceful world. May we be agents of your love and grace, and may our lives be a testimony to your faithfulness and compassion. Amen.