

No copyright materials are used in this text
The summary and interpretation of the specific chapter and verses are from the Bible, they are religious text that is in the public domain.

Free to Copy and Distribute: Spread the Word!

(Peter Lok) 駱沅祺
lokpeter@outlook.com

Promises for Book 1 John

1 John is a book in the New Testament of the Bible. Chapter 1 of 1 John primarily focuses on the message that John and the other apostles received from Jesus Christ and the importance of living in the light of God's truth. There are several promises made in this chapter, but they are not necessarily "God's promises" in the traditional sense. Here are a few key themes and promises from 1 John 1:

Fellowship with God: John emphasizes the importance of having a relationship with God through Jesus Christ. He promises that if we walk in the light of God's truth, we will have fellowship with God and with one another (1 John 1:3).

Forgiveness of sins: John acknowledges that all of us sin and fall short of God's standard, but he promises that if we confess our sins, God is faithful and just to forgive us and cleanse us from all unrighteousness (1 John 1:9).

Joy and fullness of life: John emphasizes that the message he and the other apostles received from Jesus Christ is not only true, but it also leads to a life of joy and fullness. He promises that if we walk in the light, we will experience the joy of fellowship with God and the satisfaction of living a life that is pleasing to him (1 John 1:4-7).

Overall, the promises in 1 John 1 are centered around the idea of living in the light of God's truth and having a relationship with him through Jesus Christ. These promises are not necessarily material or earthly in nature, but they offer something far greater: a deep and meaningful relationship with the creator of the universe.

1 John 2 continues the theme of the importance of walking in the light of God's truth and having a relationship with Him through Jesus Christ. Here are some key promises and themes from 1 John 2:

Advocate with the Father: John assures believers that if they sin, they have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous. He promises that Jesus is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not only for ours but also for the sins of the whole world (1 John 2:1-2).

Abiding in Him: John emphasizes the importance of abiding in Christ and keeping His commandments. He promises that those who abide in Him will have assurance of their salvation and will not be deceived by false teachers (1 John 2:3-6).

Love and Light: John encourages believers to love one another and to walk in the light of God's truth. He promises that those who love their brothers and sisters in Christ will not stumble, and that the darkness will pass away and the true light will shine (1 John 2:7-11).

Warning against the world: John warns believers not to love the world or the things in the world, because they are passing away. He promises that those who do the will of God will abide forever (1 John 2:15-17).

Overall, the promises in 1 John 2 focus on the importance of abiding in Christ, keeping His commandments, and loving one another. John emphasizes that believers can have assurance of their salvation and can find strength and hope in Jesus Christ, who is their advocate and atoning sacrifice.

1 John 3 continues the theme of walking in the light of God's truth and having a relationship with Him through Jesus Christ. Here are some key promises and themes from 1 John 3:

Children of God: John emphasizes that believers are children of God, and that the world does not know them because it did not know Jesus. He promises that when Christ appears, believers will be like him, because they will see him as he is (1 John 3:1-3).

Purification: John assures believers that everyone who has this hope in Christ purifies themselves, just as Christ is pure. He promises that those who practice righteousness are born of God (1 John 3:4-10).

Love in action: John encourages believers to love one another in actions and in truth, not just in words. He promises that those who love one another abide in God, and that they can have confidence before Him (1 John 3:11-22).

Confidence in prayer: John promises that believers can have confidence before God when they ask for things that are in accordance with His will. He assures them that God hears their prayers, and that they have the requests they have asked of Him (1 John 3:23-24).

Overall, the promises in 1 John 3 focus on the identity of believers as children of God, the importance of living a pure and righteous life, and the power of love in action. John assures believers that they can have confidence before God and can trust in His promises, including the promise of eternal life through Jesus Christ.

1 John 4 continues to focus on the theme of walking in the light of God's truth and having a relationship with Him through Jesus Christ. Here are some key promises and themes from 1 John 4:

Testing the Spirits: John warns believers to test the spirits, to see whether they are from God or from the world. He promises that those who are from God will listen to the apostles and to the truth of God's word (1 John 4:1-6).

Love: John emphasizes the importance of love, saying that God is love and that those who love know God. He promises that those who love one another abide in God, and that love drives out fear (1 John 4:7-21).

Confidence in love: John encourages believers to have confidence in the love that God has for them, and to love one another as God has loved them. He promises that those who love have been born of God and know Him (1 John 4:16-19).

Overall, the promises in 1 John 4 focus on the importance of love and the need to discern between truth and falsehood. John assures believers that God's love is perfect and that those who abide in His love have nothing to fear. He encourages believers to love one another as a reflection of God's love, and to trust in the promises of eternal life through Jesus Christ.

1 John 5 concludes the letter with a focus on the importance of faith in Jesus Christ as the Son of God, and the promise of eternal life through Him. Here are some key promises and themes from 1 John 5:

Faith: John emphasizes the importance of faith in Jesus Christ, saying that whoever believes that Jesus is the Son of God has eternal life. He promises that those who have faith in Jesus overcome the world (1 John 5:1-5).

Testimony: John assures believers that God has given testimony about His Son, and that those who believe in the Son of God have the testimony in their hearts. He promises that those who believe in the Son of God have eternal life (1 John 5:6-13).

Confidence in prayer: John promises that those who ask anything according to God's will can have confidence that God hears them, and that they will have what they ask for. He assures believers that those who are born of God do not continue to sin, but keep themselves safe (1 John 5:14-21).

Overall, the promises in 1 John 5 focus on the importance of faith in Jesus Christ and the promise of eternal life through Him. John assures believers that they can have confidence in their faith and in their prayers, knowing that God hears them and that they have eternal life through Jesus Christ. He encourages believers to keep themselves safe from sin and to trust in the promises of God.