

No copyright materials are used in this text
The summary and interpretation of the specific chapter and verses are from the Bible, they are religious text that is in the public domain.

Free to Copy and Distribute: Spread the Word!

(Peter Lok) 駱沅祺
lokpeter@outlook.com

Promises for Book 1 Thessalonians

The book of 1 Thessalonians contains several promises from God, but chapter 1 specifically mentions:

"We always thank God for all of you and continually mention you in our prayers." (1 Thessalonians 1:2) - This is a promise of prayer, indicating that God's people will always be remembered and prayed for by the Apostle Paul and his companions.

"For we know, brothers and sisters loved by God, that he has chosen you" (1 Thessalonians 1:4) - This is a promise of election, meaning that God has chosen the Thessalonians to be His people and has called them to faith.

"They tell how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God, and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead—Jesus, who rescues us from the coming wrath." (1 Thessalonians 1:9-10) - This is a promise of salvation, indicating that those who turn to God and believe in Jesus will be saved from judgment and wrath.

Overall, chapter 1 of 1 Thessalonians highlights God's love, grace, and faithfulness towards His people, and the promises of prayer, election, and salvation.

In chapter 2 of 1 Thessalonians, there are several promises of God that are highlighted:

"But we were gentle among you, like a nursing mother taking care of her own children." (1 Thessalonians 2:7) - This is a promise of God's care and nurture, likening the Apostle Paul's ministry to that of a loving mother who cares for her children.

"For you, brothers and sisters, became imitators of the churches of God in Christ Jesus that are in Judea, for you suffered the same things from your own countrymen as they did from the Jews" (1 Thessalonians 2:14) - This is a promise of unity and fellowship, indicating that believers in Thessalonica were not alone in their sufferings but were part of a larger community of faith.

"For what is our hope or joy or crown of boasting before our Lord Jesus at his coming? Is it not you? For you are our glory and joy." (1 Thessalonians 2:19-20) - This is a promise of reward and honor, indicating that believers who faithfully serve God and His people will receive recognition and reward in the age to come.

Overall, chapter 2 of 1 Thessalonians highlights God's care, fellowship, and reward for His people who faithfully serve Him and imitate Christ.

In chapter 3 of 1 Thessalonians, there are several promises of God that are highlighted:

"Therefore, when we could bear it no longer, we were willing to be left behind at Athens alone, and we sent Timothy, our brother and God's coworker in the gospel of Christ, to establish and exhort you in your faith" (1 Thessalonians 3:1-2) - This is a promise of God's provision and care, indicating that He sent Timothy to encourage and strengthen the faith of the Thessalonians.

"And may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, as we do for you" (1 Thessalonians 3:12) - This is a promise of God's grace and empowerment, indicating that He will enable believers to grow in love for one another and for all people.

"so that he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints." (1 Thessalonians 3:13) - This is a promise of God's ultimate redemption, indicating that believers will be made blameless in holiness before God through the work of Christ and will be united with Him at His second coming.

Overall, chapter 3 of 1 Thessalonians highlights God's provision, grace, and ultimate redemption for His people who put their faith in Him and follow His ways.

In chapter 4 of 1 Thessalonians, there are several promises of God that are highlighted:

"For this is the will of God, your sanctification: that you abstain from sexual immorality" (1 Thessalonians 4:3) - This is a promise of God's desire for holiness and purity, indicating that He wants believers to live holy lives by abstaining from sexual immorality.

"For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first" (1 Thessalonians 4:16) - This is a promise of Christ's second coming, indicating that He will return and resurrect the dead in Christ before those who are still alive will be caught up with Him.

"Therefore encourage one another with these words" (1 Thessalonians 4:18) - This is a promise of comfort and hope, indicating that believers should encourage one another with the truth of Christ's return and the hope of eternal life.

Overall, chapter 4 of 1 Thessalonians highlights God's desire for holiness, His promise of Christ's second coming, and the hope of eternal life that believers have in Him.

In chapter 5 of 1 Thessalonians, there are several promises of God that are highlighted:

"For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness" (1 Thessalonians 5:5) - This is a promise of God's guidance and protection, indicating that believers are children of light who walk in the truth and will not be overcome by darkness.

"Now may the God of peace himself sanctify you completely, and may your whole spirit and soul and body be kept blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ." (1 Thessalonians 5:23) - This is a promise of God's sanctifying work, indicating that believers will be made blameless in their spirit, soul, and body through the work of Christ and will be prepared for His second coming.

"He who calls you is faithful; he will surely do it." (1 Thessalonians 5:24) - This is a promise of God's faithfulness, indicating that He will keep His promises and complete the work that He has started in the lives of believers.

Overall, chapter 5 of 1 Thessalonians highlights God's guidance, sanctification, and faithfulness to His promises.