

No copyright materials are used in this text
The summary and interpretation of the specific chapter and verses are from the Bible, they are religious text that is in the public domain.

Free to Copy and Distribute: Spread the Word!

(Peter Lok) 駱沅祺
lokpeter@outlook.com

Promises for Book 2 John

The letter of 2 John is a brief epistle addressed to "the chosen lady and her children." It encourages believers to love one another and to abide in the truth of God's word. Here are some key promises and themes from 2 John:

Walking in truth and love: The author emphasizes the importance of walking in the truth of God's word and in love for one another. He promises that those who abide in the truth and in love have a fellowship with the Father and with His Son Jesus Christ (2 John 1:1-4).

Antichrist: The author warns believers to be on guard against deceivers who deny that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh, and who do not abide in the teaching of Christ. He promises that those who do abide in the teaching of Christ have both the Father and the Son (2 John 1:7-11).

Abiding in Christ: The author encourages believers to abide in Christ, and promises that those who do will have eternal life. He assures them that they will receive a full reward for their work in the truth (2 John 1:9-11).

Overall, the promises in 2 John focus on the importance of abiding in the truth of God's word and in love for one another, as well as the promise of eternal life for those who abide in Christ. The author warns against false teaching and encourages believers to remain steadfast in their faith, trusting in the promises of God.