

No copyright materials are used in this text
The summary and interpretation of the specific chapter and verses are from the Bible, they are religious text that is in the public domain.

Free to Copy and Distribute: Spread the Word!

(Peter Lok) 駱沅祺
lokpeter@outlook.com

Promises for Book 2 Timothy

2 Timothy chapter 1 contains several promises made by God. Here are some of them:

Salvation through Christ: In verse 9, it says "He has saved us and called us to a holy life—not because of anything we have done but because of his own purpose and grace. This grace was given us in Christ Jesus before the beginning of time."

Power, love, and self-discipline: In verse 7, it says "For the Spirit God gave us does not make us timid, but gives us power, love and self-discipline."

Eternal life: In verse 10, it says "But it has now been revealed through the appearing of our Savior, Christ Jesus, who has destroyed death and has brought life and immortality to light through the gospel."

Faithfulness: In verse 12, it says "That is why I am suffering as I am. Yet this is no cause for shame, because I know whom I have believed, and am convinced that he is able to guard what I have entrusted to him until that day."

These promises are given to those who believe in Jesus Christ and follow Him. They are a source of encouragement and hope for Christians, especially when facing difficulties or trials in life.

2 Timothy chapter 2 also contains several promises made by God. Here are some of them:

Grace: In verse 1, it says "You then, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus."

Training in righteousness: In verse 2, it says "And the things you have heard me say in the presence of many witnesses entrust to reliable people who will also be qualified to teach others."

Reigning with Christ: In verse 12, it says "if we endure, we will also reign with him. If we disown him, he will also disown us."

Faithfulness: In verse 13, it says "if we are faithless, he remains faithful, for he cannot disown himself."

Cleansing from sin: In verse 21, it says "Those who cleanse themselves from the latter will be instruments for special purposes, made holy, useful to the Master and prepared to do any good work."

These promises remind us of God's faithfulness and encourage us to stay strong in our faith, to teach others, and to live a holy life. They also offer the hope of eternal life and the assurance of forgiveness and cleansing from sin.

2 Timothy chapter 3 contains several promises made by God. Here are some of them:

Scripture is inspired by God: In verse 16, it says "All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness."

Equipping for good works: In verse 17, it says "so that the servant of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work."

Persecution: In verse 12, it says "In fact, everyone who wants to live a godly life in Christ Jesus will be persecuted."

God's protection: In verse 15, it says "and how from infancy you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus."

Salvation through faith in Christ: In verse 15, it also says "which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith in Christ Jesus."

These promises remind us of the importance of Scripture and how it equips us for every good work. They also prepare us for the reality of persecution and remind us of God's protection and the importance of salvation through faith in Christ.

2 Timothy chapter 4 also contains several promises made by God. Here are some of them:

Jesus Christ will judge the living and the dead: In verse 1, it says "In the presence of God and of Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead, and in view of his appearing and his kingdom, I give you this charge."

Crown of righteousness: In verse 8, it says "Now there is in store for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will award to me on that day—and not only to me, but also to all who have longed for his appearing."

Deliverance from evil: In verse 18, it says "The Lord will rescue me from every evil attack and will bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory for ever and ever. Amen."

God's presence: In verse 22, it says "The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you."

These promises remind us of the importance of living a life that is pleasing to God, as we will be judged by Jesus Christ. They also offer the hope of a crown of righteousness for those who long for His appearing, the assurance of deliverance from evil, and the comfort of God's presence.