Promises for Book Colossians

In chapter 1 of Colossians, there are several promises that God makes to believers. Some of these promises include:

Redemption and Forgiveness: In verse 14, God promises to redeem and forgive us through the blood of Jesus Christ.

Spiritual Wisdom and Understanding: In verse 9, God promises to give us spiritual wisdom and understanding, so that we may know His will and live a life that is pleasing to Him.

Inheritance: In verse 12, God promises that we will share in the inheritance of the saints in light, meaning we will inherit eternal life and all the blessings that come with it.

Authority and Power: In verse 13, God promises to deliver us from the power of darkness and transfer us into the kingdom of His beloved Son, giving us authority and power to overcome the enemy.

Reconciliation: In verse 21, God promises to reconcile us to Himself through Christ, making us holy and blameless in His sight.

These are just a few of the promises that God makes to believers in Colossians chapter 1.

In chapter 2 of Colossians, God makes several promises to believers. Here are some of them:

Fullness in Christ: In verse 9-10, God promises that in Christ, we have the fullness of God and that we are complete in Him.

Spiritual Circumcision: In verse 11, God promises to spiritually circumcise our hearts, cutting away the sinful nature and giving us a new heart and spirit.

New Life in Christ: In verse 12, God promises that we have been buried with Christ in baptism and raised to new life with Him.

Forgiveness and Cancellation of Debt: In verse 13-14, God promises to forgive us of our sins and cancel the debt that we owe because of them, nailing them to the cross of Christ.

Victory over Principalities and Powers: In verse 15, God promises that Christ has triumphed over all principalities and powers, making a public spectacle of them, and we share in this victory.

Freedom from Legalism: In verse 16-17, God promises that we are no longer under the legalistic requirements of the law but that Christ has fulfilled them all, and we are free to live in Him.

These are just a few of the promises that God makes to believers in Colossians chapter 2.

In chapter 3 of Colossians, there are several promises that God makes to believers. Here are some of them:

Raised with Christ: In verse 1, God promises that if we have been raised with Christ, we will seek the things that are above, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God.

Life with Christ: In verse 4, God promises that when Christ, who is our life, appears, we will also appear with Him in glory.

Renewal of the Mind: In verse 10, God promises that we are being renewed in knowledge after the image of our Creator.

Unity in Christ: In verse 11-14, God promises that in Christ, there is no division between people based on ethnicity, gender, or social status, but we are all one in Him.

Peace of Christ: In verse 15, God promises that the peace of Christ will rule in our hearts, and we should be thankful.

Graciousness and Forgiveness: In verse 13, God promises that we should forgive one another as the Lord has forgiven us and that we should put on love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony.

These are just a few of the promises that God makes to believers in Colossians chapter 3.

In chapter 4 of Colossians, there are several promises that God makes to believers. Here are some of them:

Opportunities to share the Gospel: In verse 3, God promises to open a door for the Word, giving us opportunities to share the gospel with others.

Wisdom in speech: In verse 5-6, God promises to give us wisdom in our speech, so that we may make the most of every opportunity and speak graciously and effectively.

Encouragement and mutual edification: In verse 8-9, God promises that Tychicus will encourage and inform the Colossians about Paul's circumstances and that Onesimus will also be a source of encouragement and mutual edification.

God's grace: In verse 18, God promises that His grace will be with the Colossians.

These are just a few of the promises that God makes to believers in Colossians chapter 4.
