Promises for Book Titus

Titus chapter 1 contains several promises made by God. Here are some of them:

Knowledge of the truth: In verse 1, it says "Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ to further the faith of God's elect and their knowledge of the truth that leads to godliness."

Eternal life: In verse 2, it says "in the hope of eternal life, which God, who does not lie, promised before the beginning of time."

Appointed leaders: In verse 5, it says "The reason I left you in Crete was that you might put in order what was left unfinished and appoint elders in every town, as I directed you."

Unchanging nature of God: In verse 9, it says "He must hold firmly to the trustworthy message as it has been taught, so that he can encourage others by sound doctrine and refute those who oppose it."

These promises remind us of the importance of knowing the truth and living a life that leads to godliness, with the hope of eternal life. They also offer guidance for leadership within the church and a reminder of the unchanging nature of God's message.

Titus chapter 2 also contains several promises made by God. Here are some of them:

Salvation for all people: In verse 11, it says "For the grace of God has appeared that offers salvation to all people."

Teaching for godly living: In verse 12, it says "It teaches us to say "No" to ungodliness and worldly passions, and to live self-controlled, upright and godly lives in this present age."

Redemption from all wickedness: In verse 14, it says "who gave himself for us to redeem us from all wickedness and to purify for himself a people that are his very own, eager to do what is good."

The return of Jesus Christ: In verse 13, it says "while we wait for the blessed hope—the appearing of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ."

These promises remind us of the grace of God and the offer of salvation to all people. They also offer guidance for living a godly life and the hope of redemption from all wickedness, as well as the promise of the return of Jesus Christ.

Titus chapter 3 also contains several promises made by God. Here are some of them:

Renewal by the Holy Spirit: In verse 5, it says "he saved us, not because of righteous things we had done, but because of his mercy. He saved us through the washing of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit."

Justification by grace: In verse 7, it says "so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs having the hope of eternal life."

The promise of eternal life: In verse 7, it also says "so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs having the hope of eternal life."

Good works: In verse 8, it says "This is a trustworthy saying. And I want you to stress these things, so that those who have trusted in God may be careful to devote themselves to doing what is good. These things are excellent and profitable for everyone."

These promises remind us of the importance of the work of the Holy Spirit in renewing us and the justification we receive through God's grace. They also offer the hope of eternal life and a reminder of the importance of good works in our lives.
