Source of hope

Jeremiah 29:11: "I know the plans I have for you, says the LORD, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you a hope of the end."

Proverbs 3:5-6: "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight."

Psalms 37:4: "Delight yourself in the LORD, and he will give you the desires of your heart."

Matthew 28:20: "Behold, I am with you every day, even to the end of the age."

This is just a small part of God's promises in the Bible, which is full of many cares and promises for human beings.

Oh, God

You are eternal light.

In the dark you are our guide,

In times of pain, you are our strength.

Regardless of the difficulties and tribulations encountered,

We will stand firm in our faith and not give up hope.

Your promises shine like a beacon,
Light up the road ahead and dispel the haze of the night.
You are the Creator of mercy, great beyond compare,
Your mercy will never end.

You are our comfort in loss,
In confusion, you are our guide.
Believe in your strength, stand firm,
You are the other side that leads us to victory.

Though darkness once hung over our hearts,
But God your light shines in our hearts.
You are the source of hope, the support of faith,
We will always fear and praise your name.

In the dark we no longer lose our way,
In pain, we are no longer tired.
Because we believe that God is the Redeemer,
Your love and promises will never change.
We pray in the name of Jesus Christ, Amen.

Exodus CHAPTER 6

Ex. 6:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh: Because of my mighty hand he will let them go; because of my mighty hand he will drive them out of his country.”

Ex. 6:2 God also said to Moses, “I am the LORD.

Ex. 6:3 I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob as God Almighty, but by my name the LORD I did not make myself known to them.

Ex. 6:4 I also established my covenant with them to give them the land of Canaan, where they lived as aliens.

Ex. 6:5 Moreover, I have heard the groaning of the Israelites, whom the Egyptians are enslaving, and I have remembered my covenant.

Ex. 6:6 “Therefore, say to the Israelites: ‘I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians. I will free you from being slaves to them, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with mighty acts of judgment.

Ex. 6:7 I will take you as my own people, and I will be your God.

Then you will know that I am the LORD your God, who brought you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians.

Ex. 6:8 And I will bring you to the land I swore with uplifted hand to give to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob. I will give it to you as a possession. I am the LORD.”

Ex. 6:9 Moses reported this to the Israelites, but they did not listen to him because of their discouragement and cruel bondage.

Ex. 6:10 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Ex. 6:11 “Go, tell Pharaoh king of Egypt to let the Israelites go out of his country.”

Ex. 6:12 But Moses said to the LORD, “If the Israelites will not listen to me, why would Pharaoh listen to me, since I speak with faltering lips?”

Ex. 6:13 Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron about the Israelites and Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he commanded them to bring the Israelites out of Egypt.

Ex. 6:14 These were the heads of their families: The sons of Reuben the firstborn son of Israel were Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi. These were the clans of Reuben.

145

Ex. 6:15 The sons of Simeon were Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jakin, Zohar and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman. These were the clans of Simeon.

Ex. 6:16 These were the names of the sons of Levi according to their records: Gershon, Kohath and Merari. Levi lived 137 years.

Ex. 6:17 The sons of Gershon, by clans, were Libni and Shimei.

Ex. 6:18 The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel. Kohath lived 133 years.

Ex. 6:19 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. These were the clans of Levi according to their records.

Ex. 6:20 Amram married his father's sister Jochebed, who bore him Aaron and Moses. Amram lived 137 years.

Ex. 6:21 The sons of Izhar were Korah, Nepheg and Zicri.

Ex. 6:22 The sons of Uzziel were Mishael, Elzaphan and Sithri.

Ex. 6:23 Aaron married Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab and sister of Nahshon, and she bore him Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

Ex. 6:24 The sons of Korah were Assir, Elkanah and Abiasaph. These were the Korahite clans.

Ex. 6:25 Eleazar son of Aaron married one of the daughters of Putiel, and she bore him Phinehas. These were the heads of the Levite families, clan by clan.

Ex. 6:26 It was this same Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said, "Bring the Israelites out of Egypt by their divisions."

Ex. 6:27 They were the ones who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt about bringing the Israelites out of Egypt. It was the same Moses and Aaron.

Ex. 6:28 Now when the LORD spoke to Moses in Egypt,

Ex. 6:29 he said to him, "I am the LORD. Tell Pharaoh king of Egypt everything I tell you."

Ex. 6:30 But Moses said to the LORD, "Since I speak with faltering lips, why would Pharaoh listen to me?"

Chapter 6 of Exodus in the Bible begins with God reassuring Moses that He will indeed fulfill His covenant with the Israelites and deliver them from slavery in Egypt. God tells Moses that He will reveal Himself to the Israelites as Yahweh, the God of their fathers, and that He will bring them out of Egypt and into the land promised to their ancestors.

Moses is then instructed to go back to the Israelites and tell them about God's promises. However, the Israelites are too discouraged and overwhelmed by their harsh labor to believe Moses' words.

God then instructs Moses and Aaron to again go before Pharaoh and demand the release of the Israelites. Moses protests, saying that he is "uncircumcised in lips" and therefore not a persuasive speaker. But God assures Moses that He will speak through him and that Pharaoh will eventually let the Israelites go.

The chapter ends with a genealogy of the tribes of Israel, tracing their ancestry back to Jacob and his sons.

the key verses Chapter 6 of Exodus in the Bible

Exodus chapter 6 continues the story of Moses and the Israelites' struggle to be freed from slavery in Egypt.

Here are some key verses from Exodus chapter 6:

1. "Then the Lord said to Moses, 'Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh: Because of my mighty hand he will let them go; because of my mighty hand he will drive them out of his country'" (Exodus 6:1): This verse shows how God reassures Moses that he will deliver the Israelites from slavery and punish Pharaoh for his disobedience.
2. "God also said to Moses, 'I am the Lord. I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob as God Almighty, but by my name the Lord I did not make myself known to them'" (Exodus 6:2-3): This verse shows how God reveals his name to Moses and distinguishes himself from other gods worshipped in the region.
3. "Therefore, say to the Israelites: 'I am the Lord, and I will bring you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians. I will free you from being slaves to them, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with mighty acts of judgment'" (Exodus 6:6): This verse shows how God promises to deliver the Israelites from slavery and redeem them with his power.

4. "But they did not listen to him because of their discouragement and cruel bondage" (Exodus 6:9): This verse shows how the Israelites are so oppressed by their slavery that they cannot even imagine the possibility of being freed.

5. "These were the heads of their families: The sons of Reuben the firstborn son of Israel were Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi. These were the clans of Reuben" (Exodus 6:14): This verse lists the genealogy of the Israelites, tracing their ancestry back to Jacob's sons.

Here's a reflection on Exodus chapter 6:

Exodus chapter 6 continues the narrative of Moses and his mission to deliver the Israelites from their bondage in Egypt. In this chapter, God reassures Moses of His power, faithfulness, and determination to fulfill His covenant promises to the Israelites.

One of the central themes in this chapter is the unwavering faithfulness of God. Despite the Israelites' continued suffering and Moses' initial discouragement, God affirms His commitment to His people. He reveals His divine name, Yahweh, emphasizing His eternal and unchanging nature. God assures Moses that He will rescue the Israelites, lead them out of Egypt, and bring them to the land promised to their ancestors.

This chapter underscores the faithfulness of God to His covenant promises. He reiterates His intention to establish a covenant with the Israelites, to be their God and bring them into a land flowing with milk and honey. God's faithfulness remains steadfast even in the face of doubt and adversity, and He assures Moses that He will fulfill His promises in His own time and in His own way.

Another important theme in this chapter is the role of Moses as a spokesperson for God. Moses expresses his inadequacy in speech and his fear that the Israelites will not listen to him. However, God reassures Moses that He will empower him and provide him with the words to speak. He appoints Aaron as Moses' assistant, emphasizing their joint responsibility in leading the Israelites out of Egypt.

Reflecting on Exodus chapter 6, we can draw several lessons for our own lives. Firstly, it reminds us of the unchanging and faithful nature of God. In the midst of challenging circumstances, it is easy to question God's faithfulness or doubt His promises. However, this chapter encourages us to trust that God is steadfast and true to His word, even when we cannot see the fulfillment of His promises immediately.

Secondly, this chapter teaches us about our role as vessels and instruments of God's work. Like Moses, we may feel inadequate or lacking in certain areas, but God chooses to work through our weaknesses and empowers us by His Spirit. It reminds us that God equips and enables us to fulfill the tasks He assigns, and we can rely on His strength and guidance in carrying out His purposes.

Furthermore, Exodus chapter 6 prompts us to wait patiently for God's timing and trust in His sovereignty. Although the Israelites had been enslaved for generations, God's plans were unfolding according to His perfect timing. We are reminded to be patient and have faith that God is at work even in the waiting, and His purposes will come to pass.

In conclusion, Exodus chapter 6 reveals the unwavering faithfulness of God, His commitment to His promises, and His empowerment of Moses for the task at hand. It encourages us to trust in God's unchanging nature, rely on His strength, and patiently wait for His timing. By reflecting on these lessons, we can find assurance and hope in our own journey of faith, knowing that God is faithful to His promises and will empower us to fulfill His purposes. prevail.
