

No copyright materials are used in this text
The summary and interpretation of the specific chapter and verses are from the Bible, they are religious text that is in the public domain.

Free to Copy and Distribute: Spread the Word!

(Peter Lok) 駱沅祺
lokpeter@outlook.com

Daily Rice 2023 July 21

"No way forward, pursued from behind, Jehovah will act."

When the Israelites were facing difficulties, God miraculously split the Red Sea and created a way for the Israelites to pass through. God's power to save is beyond man's ability to solve seemingly insoluble problems. This story reminds us that God is our Rescuer and Deliverer, who is able to deliver in our most desperate moments. In the Bible, there is a passage that matches the situation you describe. This passage is located in Exodus chapter 14. In this chapter, after breaking away from Egypt, the Israelites find themselves trapped by the Red Sea, with the sea in front and the Egyptian pursuers behind. Let's look at this passage:

Exodus 14:10-14

10 When Pharaoh approached, the Israelites lifted up their eyes and saw the Egyptians approaching. They were terrified and cried out to the LORD. 11 They said to Moses, "Have you brought us to die in the wilderness, where there is no burial in Egypt? Why did you do this to us and bring us out of Egypt? 12 Did we not say to you in Egypt, 'Don't bother us, and let us serve the Egyptians'? For it is better to serve the Egyptians than to die in the wilderness." 13 Moses said to the people, "Do not be afraid; stand still and see the salvation which the LORD will bring you today; for the Egyptians you see today will surely Never again. 14 The LORD will fight for you; keep silent and keep silent."

In this passage, the Israelites felt that they had nowhere to go, and that the Egyptians were chasing them in the rear, and they were in an extremely dangerous situation. But Moses declared to them the promise of the LORD, that the LORD would fight for them, and urged them to be silent and watch the LORD deliver them.

This passage reminds us that when we face difficulties and dangers, we can trust God's power and promises. Jehovah is our help. He will fight for us. No matter how big the difficulties ahead are or how entangled the problems behind us are, he can lead us out of the difficulties and show his wonderful deeds.

Let us pray together for the miracle of God's splitting of the Red Sea:

Dear heavenly father,

We come before you to thank you for your love and power. We praise your name, you are the creator of all, you are the omnipotent God.

O God, in past history you have wonderfully opened the Red Sea to bring deliverance and freedom to your people. Today, with grateful hearts, we implore your same mercy and strength to come to us.

Please, when we face difficulties and challenges, help us to break through the shackles of the predicament and overcome the barriers just like when we split the Red Sea. Let your mighty arm guide us out of our troubles, and let the light of your love illuminate our path.

Heavenly Father, we admit that we may feel weak in our faith and courage, but we trust Your Word when You said, "Do not be afraid, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God." (Isaiah 41:10)

Give us the firm confidence to trust in your promises, knowing that you will never forsake us and that your love and mercy will be with us wherever we are.

Make a way before us, O God, so that we can cross the Red Sea and find our way to hope, peace and success. Let us feel your strength in times of trouble, knowing that you are our help and protector.

Thank you, Father, for you are a wonderful creator whose love endures forever. May your name be honored forever.

We pray in the name of the Lord Jesus, Amen

Exodus Chapter 14

CHAPTER 14

Ex. 14:1 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Ex. 14:2 "Tell the Israelites to turn back and camp near Pi Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea. They are to camp by the sea, directly opposite Baal Zephon.

Ex. 14:3 Pharaoh will think, 'The Israelites are wandering around the land in confusion, hemmed in by the desert.'

Ex. 14:4 And I will harden Pharaoh's heart, and he will pursue them.

But I will gain glory for myself through Pharaoh and all his army, and the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD." So the Israelites did this.

Ex. 14:5 When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, Pharaoh and his officials changed their minds about them and said, "What have we done? We have let the Israelites go and have lost their services!"

Ex. 14:6 So he had his chariot made ready and took his army with him.

Ex. 14:7 He took six hundred of the best chariots, along with all the other chariots of Egypt, with officers over all of them.

165

Ex. 14:8 The LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, so that he pursued the Israelites, who were marching out boldly.

Ex. 14:9 The Egyptians — all Pharaoh's horses and chariots, horsemen and troops — pursued the Israelites and overtook them as they camped by the sea near Pi Hahiroth, opposite Baal Zephon.

Ex. 14:10 As Pharaoh approached, the Israelites looked up, and there were the Egyptians, marching after them. They were terrified and cried out to the LORD.

Ex. 14:11 They said to Moses, "Was it because there were no graves in Egypt that you brought us to the desert to die? What have you done to us by bringing us out of Egypt?"

Ex. 14:12 Didn't we say to you in Egypt, 'Leave us alone; let us serve the Egyptians'? It would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the desert!"

Ex. 14:13 Moses answered the people, "Do not be afraid. Stand firm and you will see the deliverance the LORD will bring you today. The Egyptians you see today you will never see again.

Ex. 14:14 The LORD will fight for you; you need only to be still.”

Ex. 14:15 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Why are you crying out to me? Tell the Israelites to move on.

Ex. 14:16 Raise your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea to divide the water so that the Israelites can go through the sea on dry ground.

Ex. 14:17 I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they will go in after them. And I will gain glory through Pharaoh and all his army, through his chariots and his horsemen.

Ex. 14:18 The Egyptians will know that I am the LORD when I gain glory through Pharaoh, his chariots and his horsemen.”

Ex. 14:19 Then the angel of God, who had been travelling in front of Israel’s army, withdrew and went behind them. The pillar of cloud also moved from in front and stood behind them,

166

Ex. 14:20 coming between the armies of Egypt and Israel. Throughout the night the cloud brought darkness to the one side and light to the other; so neither went near the other all night long.

Ex. 14:21 Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and all that night the LORD drove the sea back with a strong east wind and turned it into dry land. The waters were divided,

Ex. 14:22 and the Israelites went through the sea on dry ground, with a wall of water on their right and on their left.

Ex. 14:23 The Egyptians pursued them, and all Pharaoh’s horses and chariots and horsemen followed them into the sea.

Ex. 14:24 During the last watch of the night the LORD looked down from the pillar of fire and cloud at the Egyptian army and threw it into confusion.

Ex. 14:25 He made the wheels of their chariots come off so that they had difficulty driving. And the Egyptians said, “Let’s get away from the Israelites! The LORD is fighting for them against Egypt.”

Ex. 14:26 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the sea so that the waters may flow back over the Egyptians and their chariots and horsemen.”

Ex. 14:27 Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at daybreak the sea went back to its place. The Egyptians were fleeing towards it, and the LORD swept them into the sea.

Ex. 14:28 The water flowed back and covered the chariots and horsemen — the entire army of Pharaoh that had followed the Israelites into the sea. Not one of them survived.

Ex. 14:29 But the Israelites went through the sea on dry ground, with a wall of water on their right and on their left.

Ex. 14:30 That day the LORD saved Israel from the hands of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians lying dead on the shore.

167

Ex. 14:31 And when the Israelites saw the great power the LORD displayed against the Egyptians, the people feared the LORD and put their trust in him and in Moses his servant.

Chapter 14 of Exodus in the Bible describes the crossing of the Red Sea by the Israelites and the destruction of the pursuing Egyptian army.

As the Israelites approach the Red Sea, they see Pharaoh's army closing in on them. They become afraid and complain to Moses that they would rather have stayed in Egypt than die in the wilderness. Moses tells the Israelites to trust in God and that He will fight for them.

God commands Moses to stretch out his hand over the sea, and the waters part, allowing the Israelites to cross on dry ground. The pillar of cloud that had been guiding the Israelites moves behind them, blocking the Egyptians from pursuing them. The Israelites cross safely to the other side, but when the Egyptians try to follow, the waters close in on them, drowning them all.

The Israelites witness the power of God and praise Him for His deliverance. They continue their journey through the wilderness towards the land of Canaan.

the key verses Chapter 14 of Exodus in the Bible

Exodus chapter 14 describes the miraculous crossing of the Red Sea by the Israelites as they flee from Egypt.

Here are some key verses from Exodus chapter 14:

1. "The Lord will fight for you; you need only to be still" (Exodus 14:14): This verse is a reminder from Moses to the Israelites that they don't need to fear, because God will fight for them and protect them.
2. "Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and all that night the Lord drove the sea back with a strong east wind and turned it into dry land. The waters were divided, and the Israelites went through the sea on dry ground, with a wall of water on their right and on their left" (Exodus 14:21-22): This passage describes the miraculous crossing of the Red Sea by the Israelites, with the waters parting to create a dry pathway through the sea.
3. "The Egyptians pursued them, and all Pharaoh's horses and chariots and horsemen followed them into the sea. During the last watch of the night the Lord looked down from the pillar of fire and cloud at the Egyptian army and threw it into confusion. He jammed the wheels of their chariots so that they had difficulty driving. And the Egyptians said, 'Let's get away from the Israelites! The Lord is fighting for them against Egypt'" (Exodus 14:23-25): This passage describes how the Egyptians pursued the Israelites into the sea, but God intervened to protect the Israelites and cause confusion among the Egyptian army.
4. "The Israelites went through the sea on dry ground, with a wall of water on their right and on their left. That day the Lord saved Israel from the hands of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians lying dead on the shore. And when the Israelites saw the mighty hand of the Lord displayed against the Egyptians, the people feared the Lord and put their trust in him and in Moses his servant" (Exodus 14:29-31): This passage describes how the Israelites safely crossed the Red Sea, while the Egyptian army was destroyed, and the Israelites responded by fearing and trusting in the Lord.

Overall, Exodus chapter 14 emphasizes the miraculous nature of God's protection and provision for the Israelites, as they flee from Egypt and cross the Red Sea.

Here's a reflection on Exodus chapter 14:

Exodus chapter 14 recounts one of the most significant events in the Israelites' journey from Egypt to the Promised Land—the crossing of the Red Sea. This chapter showcases God's mighty deliverance and His faithfulness to His people in the face of seemingly insurmountable obstacles.

One of the central themes in this chapter is the demonstration of God's power and sovereignty over nature. As the Israelites find themselves trapped between the Red Sea and the pursuing Egyptian army, they become fearful and lose hope. But God, in His faithfulness, intervenes and performs a miraculous deliverance. He instructs Moses to stretch out his hand over the sea, and the waters are parted, creating a dry path for the Israelites to cross on dry ground. God then brings the waters crashing down upon the pursuing Egyptians, effectively saving His people and overthrowing their oppressors.

Another important theme in this chapter is the call to trust in God's guidance and deliverance. Despite the seemingly impossible situation, Moses encourages the Israelites to trust in God and stand firm in their faith. He assures them that God will fight for them, and they need only to be still. Through this event, the Israelites learn firsthand the power of God to rescue and protect them.

Reflecting on Exodus chapter 14, we can draw several lessons for our own lives. Firstly, it reminds us of the power and sovereignty of God. Just as God parted the Red Sea to make a way for the Israelites, He is capable of overcoming any obstacle or challenge we may face. It encourages us to trust in His power and believe that nothing is impossible for Him.

Secondly, this chapter underscores the importance of faith and trust in God's guidance. When faced with difficult circumstances, it is easy to give in to fear and doubt. However, the example of the Israelites teaches us that even in the most desperate situations, we can put our trust in God. We can rely on His wisdom, guidance, and provision, knowing that He is always working for our good.

Furthermore, Exodus chapter 14 highlights the faithfulness of God to His promises and His people. God had promised to deliver the Israelites from slavery in Egypt, and He fulfills that promise in a remarkable and dramatic way. This serves as a reminder that God is faithful to His Word and His promises to us as well. We can find hope and assurance in His faithfulness, knowing that He will never leave us nor forsake us.

In conclusion, Exodus chapter 14 showcases God's power, sovereignty, and faithfulness in delivering the Israelites through the parting of the Red Sea. It calls us to trust in God's power, to have faith in His guidance, and to rely on His faithfulness in our own lives. By reflecting on these lessons, we can find courage and hope in the face of challenges, knowing that God is with us and will provide a way for us to overcome.