

No copyright materials are used in this text
The summary and interpretation of the specific chapter and verses are from the Bible, they are religious text that is in the public domain.

Free to Copy and Distribute: Spread the Word!

(Peter Lok) 駱沅祺
lokpeter@outlook.com

Daily Rice 2023 July 22

Give thanks and praise the LORD

Gratitude is one of the common themes found in David's psalms. Here are some of the Bible psalms in which David expresses gratitude:

Psalm 9:1

"I will give thanks to the Lord with all my heart, and I will tell of all your wonderful deeds."

Psalm 30:12

"O Lord my God, I will give thanks to you and praise you forever."

Psalm 35:18

"I will praise you in the assembly and praise you among all the people."

Psalm 69:30

"I will praise the name of God with song, and call it great with thanksgiving."

Psalm 100:4

"Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise. Give thanks to him and bless his name."

Psalm 118:28

"You are my God, I will praise you; my God, I will honor you."

Psalm 138:1-2

"I will praise you with all my heart and sing praises to your gods; I will bow down to your holy house and praise your name for your love and truth."

These verses show David's feelings of gratitude at different times for God's grace, deliverance, and love. Gratitude is a deeply rooted belief in David's Psalms, and it is a beautiful state of mind that we can learn and express every day.

Let's pray together and praise God

Dear God,

On this beautiful day, We open our heart to you,

Thank you for the gift of life that you have given us.

Thank you, God, for giving us good health,

Let us feel the beauty of this world,

Feel the warmth of the sun and the moisture of the rain.

Thank you, God, for giving us a bright mind,

Let us feel the existence of goodness and beauty,

Let us know the power of love and tolerance.

Thank you, God, for our loving family and friends,

Let us learn and grow with them,

The fragrance of life blooms in mutual love.

Thank you, God, for giving us challenges and difficulties,

Let us learn to be strong and brave,

Push our limits with your guidance.

Thank you, God, for giving us hope and faith,

Let us believe that the power of love can conquer all,

Let us believe that tomorrow will be better.

O God, you are the source of love and compassion,

Your grace is like an endless ocean,

May our gratitude be like a bouquet of fresh flowers,

Dedicated to you forever, and exalted to you.

May your love and compassion always be with us

every day, every moment,

We thank and praise you forever.

Pray in the name of the Lord Jesus

Amen.

Exodus Chapter 15

Ex. 15:1 Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the LORD: “I will sing to the LORD, for he is highly exalted. The horse and its rider he has hurled into the sea.

Ex. 15:2 The LORD is my strength and my song; he has become my salvation. He is my God, and I will praise him, my father’s God, and I will exalt him.

Ex. 15:3 The LORD is a warrior; the LORD is his name.

Ex. 15:4 Pharaoh’s chariots and his army he has hurled into the sea.

The best of Pharaoh’s officers are drowned in the Red Sea.

Ex. 15:5 The deep waters have covered them; they sank to the depths like a stone.

Ex. 15:6 “Your right hand, O LORD, was majestic in power. Your right hand, O LORD, shattered the enemy.

Ex. 15:7 In the greatness of your majesty you threw down those who opposed you. You unleashed your burning anger; it consumed them like stubble.

Ex. 15:8 By the blast of your nostrils the waters piled up. The surging waters stood firm like a wall; the deep waters congealed in the heart of the sea.

Ex. 15:9 “The enemy boasted, ‘I will pursue, I will overtake them. I will divide the spoils; I will gorge myself on them. I will draw my sword and my hand will destroy them.’

Ex. 15:10 But you blew with your breath, and the sea covered them.

They sank like lead in the mighty waters.

Ex. 15:11 “Who among the gods is like you, O LORD? Who is like you — majestic in holiness, awesome in glory, working wonders?”

Ex. 15:12 You stretched out your right hand and the earth swallowed them.

Ex. 15:13 “In your unfailing love you will lead the people you have redeemed. In your strength you will guide them to your holy dwelling.

Ex. 15:14 The nations will hear and tremble; anguish will grip the people of Philistia.

Ex. 15:15 The chiefs of Edom will be terrified, the leaders of Moab will be seized with trembling, the people of Canaan will melt away;

Ex. 15:16 terror and dread will fall upon them. By the power of your arm they will be as still as a stone — until your people pass by, O LORD, until the people you bought pass by.

Ex. 15:17 You will bring them in and plant them on the mountain of your inheritance — the place, O LORD, you made for your dwelling, the sanctuary, O Lord, your hands established.

Ex. 15:18 The LORD will reign for ever and ever.”

Ex. 15:19 When Pharaoh’s horses, chariots and horsemen went into the sea, the LORD brought the waters of the sea back over them, but the Israelites walked through the sea on dry ground.

Ex. 15:20 Then Miriam the prophetess, Aaron’s sister, took a tambourine in her hand, and all the women followed her, with tambourines and dancing.

Ex. 15:21 Miriam sang to them: “Sing to the LORD, for he is highly exalted. The horse and its rider he has hurled into the sea.”

Ex. 15:22 Then Moses led Israel from the Red Sea and they went into the Desert of Shur. For three days they travelled in the desert without finding water.

Ex. 15:23 When they came to Marah, they could not drink its water because it was bitter. (That is why the place is called Marah.)

Ex. 15:24 So the people grumbled against Moses, saying, “What are we to drink?”

Ex. 15:25 Then Moses cried out to the LORD, and the LORD showed him a piece of wood. He threw it into the water, and the water became sweet. There the LORD made a decree and a law for them, and there he tested them.

Ex. 15:26 He said, “If you listen carefully to the voice of the LORD your God and do what is right in his eyes, if you pay attention to his commands and keep all his decrees, I will not bring on you any of the diseases I brought on the Egyptians, for I am the LORD, who heals you.”

Ex. 15:27 Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve springs and seventy palm trees, and they camped there near the water.

Chapter 15 of Exodus in the Bible is a song of triumph and praise to God for His deliverance of the Israelites from Egypt and the destruction of their enemies at the Red Sea.

Moses and the Israelites sing a song to God, thanking Him for His power and faithfulness. They acknowledge His greatness and give Him all the glory for their victory. They also praise God for His mercy and love, and for His promise to lead them to the promised land.

The song tells the story of how God saved the Israelites from the Egyptians, describing how He parted the sea and destroyed Pharaoh's army. It also celebrates the greatness of God and His eternal reign as King.

After the song, Moses leads the people to a place called Marah, but the water there is bitter and undrinkable. God shows Moses a tree that can be used to sweeten the water, and the people are able to drink.

The chapter ends with God promising to protect the Israelites and provide for them as they journey through the wilderness. The Israelites continue on their journey, guided by God's pillar of cloud and fire.

the key verses Chapter 15 of Exodus in the Bible

Exodus chapter 15 contains the Song of Moses, which is a poetic hymn of praise and thanksgiving to God for the deliverance of the Israelites from Egypt.

Here are some key verses from Exodus chapter 15:

1. "I will sing to the Lord, for he is highly exalted. Both horse and driver he has hurled into the sea" (Exodus 15:1): This is the opening line of the Song of Moses, expressing praise to God for his power and victory over the Egyptians.
2. "The Lord is my strength and my defense; he has become my salvation. He is my God, and I will praise him, my father's God, and I will exalt him" (Exodus 15:2): This verse expresses the personal relationship between the Israelites and God, and their recognition of his role as their savior and protector.
3. "You stretch out your right hand, and the earth swallows your enemies" (Exodus 15:12): This verse refers to the miraculous intervention of God during the crossing of the Red Sea, when the waters were parted to create a path for the Israelites and then returned to their normal state, drowning the Egyptian army.
4. "In your unfailing love you will lead the people you have redeemed. In your strength you will guide them to your holy dwelling" (Exodus 15:13): This verse expresses the Israelites' confidence in God's continued protection and guidance, as they journey towards the promised land.

Overall, Exodus chapter 15 is a celebration of God's power, faithfulness, and deliverance, as the Israelites respond to their miraculous escape from Egypt with joyful praise and worship.

Here's a reflection on Exodus chapter 15:

Exodus chapter 15 is a song of triumph and praise known as the Song of Moses or the Song of the Sea. It is a response to the miraculous deliverance of the Israelites through the parting of the Red Sea and the destruction of the pursuing Egyptian army. This chapter showcases the Israelites' exultant joy and gratitude towards God for His mighty acts of salvation.

One of the central themes in this chapter is the celebration of God's victory and His faithfulness. The Israelites, led by Moses and Miriam, burst forth in joyful praise, acknowledging God as their strength and deliverer. They celebrate His power in defeating their enemies and express their trust in Him as their God.

The Song of Moses highlights the attributes and actions of God, including His strength, holiness, and sovereignty. It recounts the greatness of God's triumph over Pharaoh and the gods of Egypt, affirming His superiority over all other powers. It emphasizes His loving-kindness and mercy towards His people, as well as His faithfulness in fulfilling His promises.

Another important theme in this chapter is the call to remember and testify to God's acts of deliverance. The Israelites were not only to celebrate their own salvation, but they were also to pass on the story of God's faithfulness to future generations. The song serves as a means of remembering and recounting God's mighty deeds and encourages others to put their trust in Him.

Reflecting on Exodus chapter 15, we can draw several lessons for our own lives. Firstly, it reminds us of the importance of praise and worship in response to God's deliverance and faithfulness. Just as the Israelites expressed their joy and gratitude through song, we too can lift our voices in praise and thanksgiving for all that God has done for us. Praise not only honors God, but it also strengthens our faith and reminds us of His power and faithfulness in our lives.

Secondly, this chapter underscores the significance of remembering and testifying to God's acts of deliverance. It is important for us to regularly reflect on God's faithfulness in our own lives and share our testimonies with others. By doing so, we encourage and inspire others in their own faith journeys, and we reinforce our own trust in God's continued provision and care.

Furthermore, Exodus chapter 15 encourages us to put our trust in God as our deliverer and stronghold. Just as the Israelites recognized God as their strength and protector, we can find comfort and confidence in knowing that God is our refuge and source of strength. We can trust in His faithfulness, even in the midst of challenges and trials.

In conclusion, Exodus chapter 15 presents a powerful song of triumph and praise in response to God's deliverance. It calls us to celebrate and testify to God's faithfulness, to offer Him our heartfelt worship and praise, and to put our trust in Him as our deliverer. By reflecting on these lessons, we can cultivate a heart of gratitude, deepen our faith, and confidently proclaim the greatness of our God.