

No copyright materials are used in this text
The summary and interpretation of the specific chapter and verses are from the Bible, they are religious text that is in the public domain.

Free to Copy and Distribute: Spread the Word!

(Peter Lok) 駱沅祺
lokpeter@outlook.com

Daily Rice 2023 July 26

God carries us on his wings like eagles

Isaiah 40:31:

"But those who wait on the Lord shall renew their strength. They shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not grow weary, they shall walk and not faint."

In Deuteronomy 32:11 it is described:

"As the eagle stirs up its nest, spreads its wings over the young, catches them, and carries them on its wings."

The parable here is comparing the Israelites to the young birds of an eagle, whom God carried on his wings like an eagle, protecting and caring for them.

Likewise, there is a similar description in Psalm 91:4:

"He will cover you with his feathers, and you will take refuge under his wings. His honesty is a shield big and small."

The meaning here is that God will cover us with his feathers (or wings), so that we can take refuge under his wings and get his protection and shelter.

a These descriptions are used to express God's love and protection for his people, and his willingness to support and help them when they need it.

The meaning here is that those who wait and trust in the Lord, like eagles, receive strength and help. It is a metaphor that symbolizes God's protection and blessing, giving us strength and courage in our journey through life. This parable expresses God's care and care for his people, allowing them to persevere and overcome difficulties in difficult times.

Let us pray together

Dear God,

Thank you for carrying us on your wings like eagles and leading us back to you. In this prayer, we come to thank you for your divine calling and mission for each of us.

May we always remember that you have a specific purpose and plan in each of our lives. You have the eagle's eye to see into each of us and understand our needs and desires. Please grant us the wisdom and courage to realize your guidance in our lives, and may we obey your will.

Lord, let us remember your protection and guidance as we face challenges and difficulties in our journey of life. May you comfort us like eagles and let us be sheltered under your wings and feel your love and mercy.

God, let us always remember your love and calling. May you help us not to stray from your path, but to walk firmly on the path you have intended for us.

Thank you for creating us and giving us unique value and purpose in your image. We acknowledge that in this busy world we may sometimes lose sight of your special plans for our lives, but in this prayer we come to hear your voice anew.

Please help us understand that each of us is unique and that you have a specific purpose and plan in our lives.

When we feel lost or lost, please remind us that your hand is always leading us. Your love is our eternal support, your plan is the guide of our life. May your Holy Spirit guide our hearts to understand the divine mission you have given us.

Inspire us not to hesitate or fear, because you are with us. Let your strength show in our weakness,

May our lives be witnesses of your glory, and let our actions reflect your love and mercy. May we live for your name, to be instruments to change this world, to manifest your glory.

Thank you for hearing our prayers, may your name be honored and glorified forever.

In the name of Jesus Christ, amen.

Exodus CHAPTER 19

others. Ex. 19:1 In the third month after the Israelites left Egypt — on the very day — they came to the Desert of Sinai.

Ex. 19:2 After they set out from Rephidim, they entered the Desert of Sinai, and Israel camped there in the desert in front of the mountain.

Ex. 19:3 Then Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him from the mountain and said, “This is what you are to say to the house of Jacob and what you are to tell the people of Israel:

Ex. 19:4 ‘You yourselves have seen what I did to Egypt, and how I carried you on eagles’ wings and brought you to myself.

Ex. 19:5 Now if you obey me fully and keep my covenant, then out of all nations you will be my treasured possession. Although the whole earth is mine,

Ex. 19:6 you will be for me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.’ These are the words you are to speak to the Israelites.”

Ex. 19:7 So Moses went back and summoned the elders of the people and set before them all the words the LORD had commanded him to speak.

Ex. 19:8 The people all responded together, “We will do everything the LORD has said.” So Moses brought their answer back to the LORD.

Ex. 19:9 The LORD said to Moses, “I am going to come to you in a dense cloud, so that the people will hear me speaking with you and will always put their trust in you.” Then Moses told the LORD what the people had said.

Ex. 19:10 And the LORD said to Moses, “Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow. Make them wash their clothes

Ex. 19:11 and be ready by the third day, because on that day the LORD will come down on Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.

Ex. 19:12 Put limits for the people around the mountain and tell them, ‘Be careful that you do not go up the mountain or touch the foot of it. Whoever touches the mountain shall surely be put to death.

Ex. 19:13 He shall surely be stoned or shot with arrows; not a hand is to be laid on him. Whether man or animal, he shall not be permitted to live.' Only when the ram's horn sounds a long blast may they go up to the mountain."

Ex. 19:14 After Moses had gone down the mountain to the people, he consecrated them, and they washed their clothes.

Ex. 19:15 Then he said to the people, "Prepare yourselves for the third day. Abstain from sexual relations."

Ex. 19:16 On the morning of the third day there was thunder and lightning, with a thick cloud over the mountain, and a very loud trumpet blast. Everyone in the camp trembled.

Ex. 19:17 Then Moses led the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.

Ex. 19:18 Mount Sinai was covered with smoke, because the LORD descended on it in fire. The smoke billowed up from it like smoke from a furnace, the whole mountain trembled violently, Ex. 19:19 and the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder. Then Moses spoke and the voice of God answered him.

Ex. 19:20 The LORD descended to the top of Mount Sinai and called Moses to the top of the mountain. So Moses went up

Ex. 19:21 and the LORD said to him, "Go down and warn the people so they do not force their way through to see the LORD and many of them perish.

Ex. 19:22 Even the priests, who approach the LORD, must consecrate themselves, or the LORD will break out against them."

Ex. 19:23 Moses said to the LORD, "The people cannot come up

Mount Sinai, because you yourself warned us, ‘Put limits around the mountain and set it apart as holy.’”

Ex. 19:24 The LORD replied, “Go down and bring Aaron up with you.

But the priests and the people must not force their way through to come up to the LORD, or he will break out against them.”

Ex. 19:25 So Moses went down to the people and told them.

Chapter 19 of Exodus in the Bible describes the Israelites' arrival at Mount Sinai and God's instructions to Moses about how to prepare the people to receive His covenant.

God instructs Moses to remind the Israelites of His deliverance from Egypt and His protection and guidance in the wilderness. He then tells Moses to consecrate the people and have them prepare themselves for three days before He comes down on Mount Sinai in a thick cloud.

On the third day, there is thunder, lightning, and a thick cloud over the mountain, and God speaks to Moses in the hearing of all the people. God gives the Ten Commandments to the Israelites and tells them that if they obey His covenant, they will be His treasured possession and a kingdom of priests.

Moses goes up the mountain to speak with God, and God gives him additional instructions about how to consecrate the people and the priests. The chapter concludes with God warning the Israelites not to come near the mountain, and Moses going down to speak with the people.

the key verses Chapter 19 of Exodus in the Bible

Exodus chapter 19 describes the Israelites' arrival at Mount Sinai and their preparation to receive the law from God.

Here are some key verses from Exodus chapter 19:

1. "In the third month after the Israelites left Egypt—on the very day—they came to the Desert of Sinai" (Exodus 19:1): This verse sets the stage for the events that will follow, and emphasizes the timing and location of the Israelites' arrival at Mount Sinai.
2. "You yourselves have seen what I did to Egypt, and how I carried you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself" (Exodus 19:4): This verse reminds the Israelites of God's faithfulness and power, and establishes the basis for the covenant relationship that will be established between God and his people.
3. "Now if you obey me fully and keep my covenant, then out of all nations you will be my treasured possession" (Exodus 19:5): This verse outlines the conditions for the covenant relationship, emphasizing the importance of obedience and faithfulness.

4. "All the people answered together, 'We will do everything the Lord has said'" (Exodus 19:8): This verse captures the Israelites' initial response to God's call, and their willingness to commit themselves to the covenant.

5. "Then the Lord said to Moses, 'Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow. Have them wash their clothes and be ready by the third day'" (Exodus 19:10-11): This verse describes the preparations that the Israelites must undertake in order to receive the law from God, emphasizing the importance of purification and readiness.

Overall, Exodus chapter 19 establishes the foundation for the covenant relationship between God and his people, emphasizing the importance of obedience, faithfulness, and preparation. It also highlights the significance of Mount Sinai as the location where God will reveal his law to the Israelites, and underscores the awe-inspiring power and majesty of the God of Israel.

Here's a reflection on Exodus chapter 19:

Exodus chapter 19 marks a significant moment in the Israelites' journey as they arrive at Mount Sinai. In this chapter, God instructs Moses to consecrate the people and prepares them for a divine encounter. The events at Mount Sinai lay the foundation for the establishment of the Mosaic covenant between God and the Israelites.

One of the central themes in this chapter is the holiness and awe-inspiring presence of God. As the Israelites camp at the foot of Mount Sinai, God reveals Himself in a powerful way. He descends upon the mountain in a thick cloud, accompanied by thunder, lightning, and the blast of a trumpet. The entire mountain trembles, and the people witness the majestic and holy presence of God.

This encounter emphasizes the holiness of God and the need for reverence and awe in His presence. The Israelites are instructed to consecrate themselves, purifying themselves both physically and spiritually, in preparation for the Lord's visitation. This serves as a reminder that approaching God requires a heart that is set apart and a reverence for His holiness.

Another important theme in this chapter is the establishment of the Mosaic covenant. God speaks to Moses, revealing His plan to make the Israelites a "kingdom of priests and a holy nation." He outlines His expectations for the people and the commandments they are to follow. The covenant establishes a special relationship between God and the Israelites, with their obedience and faithfulness being integral to their role as a chosen people.

Reflecting on Exodus chapter 19, we can draw several lessons for our own lives. Firstly, it reminds us of the holiness and greatness of God. The awe-inspiring presence of God at Mount Sinai reminds us of the majesty and splendor of our Creator. It calls us to approach God with reverence, humility, and a deep sense of awe.

Secondly, this chapter underscores the importance of consecration and setting ourselves apart for God's purposes. The Israelites were instructed to consecrate themselves, symbolizing their commitment to holiness and their separation from the ways of the world. As followers of God today, we are also called to live lives that are set apart, pursuing righteousness and holiness in all aspects of our lives.

Furthermore, Exodus chapter 19 highlights the significance of the covenant relationship between God and His people. It reminds us that our relationship with God is not merely transactional but founded on His grace and faithfulness. We are called to honor our covenant with God, seeking to obey His commandments and live in a way that reflects His character.

In conclusion, Exodus chapter 19 presents a powerful depiction of the holiness of God and the establishment of the Mosaic covenant. It calls us to approach God with reverence, to consecrate ourselves for His purposes, and to honor the covenant relationship we have with Him. By reflecting on these lessons, we can deepen our awe of God, pursue holiness in our lives, and faithfully live out our commitment to follow Him.