

No copyright materials are used in this text
The summary and interpretation of the specific chapter and verses are from the Bible, they are religious text that is in the public domain.

Free to Copy and Distribute: Spread the Word!

(Peter Lok)駱沅祺
lokpeter@outlook.com

Daily Rice 2023 August 11

YouTube Prayer Link

Willing to offer

The willingness to give in the Bible is a state of mind or behavior mentioned in the Bible, which means that people are willing to give, sacrifice or give voluntarily and willingly, rather than out of compulsion or unwillingness.

There are several examples in the Bible that emphasize freewill giving, perhaps the most famous of which concerns the teachings of Jesus Christ. For example, there is a sentence in Matthew 5:41: "If anyone forces you to go one mile, go with him two miles." This teaching encourages people not only to overcome their own limitations when facing difficulties or challenges, And willing to go beyond one's comfort zone and help others with a willing attitude.

Another example is the teaching on voluntary giving and generosity, as stated in 2 Corinthians 9:7: "Let each one do what is in his heart, and do not make it difficult or force it, for he who gives willingly God loves it." This attitude emphasizes the importance of willingness to give, and emphasizes that this kind of dedication should come from the heart voluntarily, not forced or forced.

The willingness to give in the Bible refers to the mentality and behavior that emphasizes voluntary, willing, and unconditional dedication in the Bible, showing love, generosity, and concern for others.

There are several important themes in the Bible that teach us the behavior and attitude of being willing to give ourselves in a given situation. Here are some of the main ones:

Acts of Love: The Bible emphasizes love as one of the most important laws. Matthew 22:37-39 records Jesus' teaching: "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your self." This teaches us that we should be willing and willing when we show love to God and man.

Giving and Generosity: The Bible encourages us to be generous in our material and time giving. 2 Corinthians 9:6-7 says: "He who sows little reaps little, and he who multiplies reaps more; let each one do as he pleases, and do not make things difficult or force him, for he who gives willingly is whom God loves." This teaches us not only to give, but to do so willingly from the heart.

Service and Charity: The Bible teaches us to serve others, showing love and caring. Galatians 5:13 reminds us, "Brethren, you were called to be free, but not to use your freedom as an opportunity to indulge your lusts, but to serve one another in love." This service comes from Willingly, not out of pressure or obligation.

Forgiveness and Reconciliation: The Bible teaches us to forgive others and pursue reconciliation. In Matthew 6:14-15 Jesus said, "Unless you forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive your trespasses." This reminds us that forgiving others is a willing act and helps to build harmony relationship.

The Bible teaches us to willingly give our love, time, resources, and actions in a variety of situations that not only benefit others but also help us form deeper spiritual relationships.

Let us pray together

Dear Heavenly Father, we gather before you to thank you for life and all your blessings. At this time, we offer you our prayers, asking for your grace and guidance so that we can give ourselves willingly and willingly in every way.

Heavenly Father, please give us a loving heart so that we can love and care for others with a willing attitude. Help us see how Your love manifests in our lives and be willing to share it selflessly.

Please give us a generous heart, so that we can give willingly in material and time. Help us see those in need and reach out with joy so they feel your love and provision.

Grant us a willing heart to give, to give, and to serve you and others with acts of love. Help us realize that this giving is not just a duty but an expression of our love for you and our neighbors.

Father, make us instruments of service, may we be willing to give to others, to serve in your name. Help us to understand that service is a blessing, and make us glad to show your love and mercy in various occasions.

Lord, please plant the seeds of generosity in our hearts. Let us be willing to give not only materially, but also time, energy and love. Help us understand that when we give willingly, we can make a positive difference in the world and be witnesses of your love

We also ask for forgiveness, so that we can willingly forgive those who have hurt us. Help us understand that forgiveness is about releasing our chains and maintaining peaceful and harmonious relationships.

Father, we ask you to give us the wisdom and strength to give ourselves willingly and willingly at every opportunity. May all our actions honor your name and reflect your goodness and grace.

We pray in the name of the Lord Jesus, amen

Exodus CHAPTER 34

CHAPTER 34

Ex. 34:1 The LORD said to Moses, “Chisel out two stone tablets like the first ones, and I will write on them the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke.

Ex. 34:2 Be ready in the morning, and then come up on Mount Sinai. Present yourself to me there on top of the mountain.

Ex. 34:3 No-one is to come with you or be seen anywhere on the mountain; not even the flocks and herds may graze in front of the mountain.”

Ex. 34:4 So Moses chiselled out two stone tablets like the first ones and went up Mount Sinai early in the morning, as the LORD had commanded him; and he carried the two stone tablets in his hands.

Ex. 34:5 Then the LORD came down in the cloud and stood there with him and proclaimed his name, the LORD.

Ex. 34:6 And he passed in front of Moses, proclaiming, “The LORD, the LORD, the compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness,

Ex. 34:7 maintaining love to thousands, and forgiving wickedness, rebellion and sin. Yet he does not leave the guilty unpunished; he punishes the children and their children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation.”

Ex. 34:8 Moses bowed to the ground at once and worshipped.

Ex. 34:9 “O Lord, if I have found favour in your eyes,” he said, “then let the Lord go with us. Although this is a stiff-necked people, forgive our wickedness and our sin, and take us as your inheritance.”

Ex. 34:10 Then the LORD said: “I am making a covenant with you. Before all your people I will do wonders never before done in any nation in all the world. The people you live among will see how awesome is the work that I, the LORD, will do for you.

Ex. 34:11 Obey what I command you today. I will drive out before you the Amorites, Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites.

Ex. 34:12 Be careful not to make a treaty with those who live in the land where you are going, or they will be a snare among you.

Ex. 34:13 Break down their altars, smash their sacred stones and cut down their Asherah poles.

Ex. 34:14 Do not worship any other god, for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God.

Ex. 34:15 “Be careful not to make a treaty with those who live in the land; for when they prostitute themselves to their gods and sacrifice to them, they will invite you and you will eat their sacrifices.

Ex. 34:16 And when you choose some of their daughters as wives for your sons and those daughters prostitute themselves to their gods, they will lead your sons to do the same.

Ex. 34:17 “Do not make cast idols.

Ex. 34:18 “Celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread. For seven days eat bread made without yeast, as I commanded you. Do this at the appointed time in the month of Abib, for in that month you came out of Egypt.

Ex. 34:19 “The first offspring of every womb belongs to me, including all the firstborn males of your livestock, whether from herd or flock.

Ex. 34:20 Redeem the firstborn donkey with a lamb, but if you do not redeem it, break its neck. Redeem all your firstborn sons.

“No-one is to appear before me empty-handed.

Ex. 34:21 “Six days you shall labour, but on the seventh day you shall rest; even during the ploughing season and harvest you must rest.

Ex. 34:22 “Celebrate the Feast of Weeks with the firstfruits of the wheat harvest, and the Feast of Ingathering at the turn of the year.

Ex. 34:23 Three times a year all your men are to appear before the Sovereign LORD, the God of Israel.

Ex. 34:24 I will drive out nations before you and enlarge your territory, and no-one will covet your land when you go up three times each year to appear before the LORD your God.

Ex. 34:25 “Do not offer the blood of a sacrifice to me along with anything containing yeast, and do not let any of the sacrifice from the Passover Feast remain until morning.

Ex. 34:26 “Bring the best of the firstfruits of your soil to the house of the LORD your God. “Do not cook a young goat in its mother’s milk.”

Ex. 34:27 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write down these words, for in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel.”

Ex. 34:28 Moses was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights without eating bread or drinking water. And he wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant — the Ten Commandments.

Ex. 34:29 When Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hands, he was not aware that his face was radiant because he had spoken with the LORD.

Ex. 34:30 When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, his face was radiant, and they were afraid to come near him.

Ex. 34:31 But Moses called to them; so Aaron and all the leaders of the community came back to him, and he spoke to them.

Ex. 34:32 Afterwards all the Israelites came near him, and he gave them all the commands the LORD had given him on Mount Sinai.

Ex. 34:33 When Moses finished speaking to them, he put a veil over his face.

Ex. 34:34 But whenever he entered the LORD’s presence to speak with him, he removed the veil until he came out. And when he came out and told the Israelites what he had been commanded,

Ex. 34:35 they saw that his face was radiant. Then Moses would put the veil back over his face until he went in to speak with the LORD.

Exodus chapter 34 begins with God telling Moses to cut two new tablets of stone and come up to Mount Sinai again. God writes the Ten Commandments on the new tablets.

As Moses descends from the mountain, his face is shining with the glory of God, so he puts a veil over his face when he speaks to the people. Moses tells the people all the words of the Lord and they renew their covenant with God.

God reiterates His commandments to the people, including the instruction to keep the Sabbath day holy. He also promises to drive out the inhabitants of the land of Canaan before the Israelites.

Moses then builds an altar and offers sacrifices to God. He also commands the people to observe the three annual feasts: the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks, and the Feast of Booths.

The chapter ends with Moses returning to the Lord on Mount Sinai for another 40 days and 40 nights, during which time he writes down the words of the covenant on the new tablets. When Moses returns to the people, his face is still shining with the glory of God, and he only removes the veil when he goes in to speak with the Lord.

the key verses Chapter 34 of Exodus in the Bible

Exodus chapter 34 is an important chapter in the Bible, as it contains the second account of the Ten Commandments being given to Moses on Mount Sinai.

The key verses in this chapter are:

1. "The Lord said to Moses, 'Chisel out two stone tablets like the first ones, and I will write on them the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke.'" - Exodus 34:1
2. "And he passed in front of Moses, proclaiming, 'The Lord, the Lord, the compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness.'" - Exodus 34:6
3. "Then the Lord said: 'I am making a covenant with you. Before all your people I will do wonders never before done in any nation in all the world. The people you live among will see how awesome is the work that I, the Lord, will do for you.'" - Exodus 34:10
4. "When Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the covenant law in his hands, he was not aware that his face was radiant because he had spoken with the Lord." - Exodus 34:29
5. "Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, and his face was radiant, and they were afraid to come near him." - Exodus 34:30

These verses highlight the importance of God's covenant with the Israelites, and the mercy and compassion that he shows towards them. They also emphasize the radiance of Moses' face after he has been in God's presence, demonstrating the awe-inspiring power of the Lord.

Here's a reflection on Exodus chapter 34:

Exodus chapter 34 recounts a significant event in the life of Moses and the Israelites. After the incident with the golden calf, God commands Moses to carve two new stone tablets and ascend Mount Sinai once again. There, God reveals His character and renews His covenant with the Israelites.

One of the central themes in this chapter is the mercy and forgiveness of God. Despite the Israelites' rebellion and idolatry, God chooses to extend His grace and give them another chance. He passes before Moses, proclaiming His name and revealing His attributes of compassion, graciousness, slow to anger, abounding in steadfast love, and faithfulness. This declaration highlights God's willingness to forgive and restore a repentant people.

The chapter also emphasizes the importance of obedience to God's commands. As part of the renewed covenant, God reiterates the necessity of exclusive worship and the prohibition of making covenants with the inhabitants of the land. He instructs the Israelites to destroy the altars, idols, and Asherah poles of the Canaanites to maintain their faithfulness to Him.

Reflecting on Exodus chapter 34, we can draw several lessons for our own lives. Firstly, it reminds us of the boundless mercy and forgiveness of God. No matter how we have strayed or sinned, God is always willing to extend His grace and offer us a fresh start. We are called to approach Him with repentant hearts, seeking His forgiveness and restoration.

Secondly, this chapter highlights the significance of knowing and understanding the character of God. God reveals Himself to Moses, showcasing His compassionate and loving nature. As we deepen our knowledge of who God is, we grow in our trust and faith in Him. We can rely on His faithfulness, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love, even when we fall short.

Furthermore, the chapter underscores the importance of obedience to God's commands. Just as God gave the Israelites specific instructions for worship and warned against making alliances with the inhabitants of the land, we too are called to live in obedience to God's Word. Obedience is an expression of our love for God and our desire to honor Him in all areas of our lives.

In conclusion, Exodus chapter 34 reveals the mercy and forgiveness of God, the importance of knowing His character, and the call to obedience. It reminds us of God's willingness to forgive and restore us when we repent, encourages us to deepen our knowledge of who God is, and challenges us to live obediently according to His commands. By reflecting on these lessons, we can experience the fullness of God's grace, grow in our relationship with Him, and live lives that honor and glorify Him.