

No copyright materials are used in this text
The summary and interpretation of the specific chapter and verses are from the Bible, they are religious text that is in the public domain.

Free to Copy and Distribute: Spread the Word!

(Peter Lok) 駱沅祺
lokpeter@outlook.com

Daily Rice 2023 August 9

YouTube Prayer Link

The Way to Communicate with God and Gain Wisdom

There are many verses in the Bible about communicating with God and gaining wisdom, here are some passages related to the topics:

James 1:5-6: "If any of you lacks wisdom, ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given to you. But ask in faith, without doubting at all."

Proverbs 2:6: "For the LORD gives wisdom, and out of his mouth came knowledge and understanding."

Proverbs 3:5-6: "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight."

Proverbs 9:10: "The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom, and the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding."

Psalms 25:4-5: "Lead me in your truth and teach me, for you are the God of my salvation, and I wait for you all day long. Remember your mercy and love, for this has always been of".

Isaiah 55:8-9: "My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, says the LORD. As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and I His thoughts are higher than your thoughts."

Ephesians 1:17-18: "When I pray, God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, will put in you the Spirit of Christ, so that wisdom may be revealed in you, so that you may know What is the hope of his calling, what are the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints."

In the Bible, communicating with God and gaining wisdom is the process of establishing a deep relationship with God and obtaining spiritual wisdom and guidance through prayer, meditation on the Bible, and listening to God's words.

Prayer: One of the main ways to communicate with God is through prayer. Through prayer, people can express their needs, feelings and desires to God, and it is also an opportunity to listen to God's voice and guidance.

Meditate on the Bible: Meditating on Bible verses is a meditative way to help people think deeply about God's word and revelation. Through meditation, one can gain deeper understanding and wisdom.

Listen to the inner voice: In silence, people sometimes feel inner guidance and revelation, which may be the voice of God. By developing a keen mind, people can hear God's word more easily.

Communicating with God and gaining wisdom is a process involving the heart, soul and life. By developing a relationship with God, developing a keen mind, and acting on the basis of faith, one can gain spiritual guidance and wisdom to make sound decisions in life. "

Let us pray together

Dear Father God,

We thank you for giving us life and wisdom. We are deeply aware that you are the creator and guide of all things, and that your wisdom is infinite and beyond our comprehension. Today, we humbly ask for your guidance as we find ways to communicate with you and gain wisdom.

Grant us the desire to know your heart deeply and open our hearts to your revelation. May your Holy Spirit guide us so that we can hear your voice in prayer and meditation. In tranquility, may we be able to put aside the distracting thoughts of the world, focus on your existence, and feel the connection between you and our souls.

Father , please grant us the vision of wisdom so that we can see the essence and truth of things in our life. When we face choices, may your wisdom guide us so that our decisions can be in line with your wishes. Please help us to understand your will and to incorporate your teachings into our daily lives so that we can act with justice, love and humility.

Please help us to open our hearts and listen to your voice with a sensitive heart. Allow us to calm down, away from the hustle and bustle of the world, and seek your guidance. May your wisdom fill our minds and guide us to make the right decisions and walk on the path of justice and truth.

May your peace broadly cover our lives. In communicating with you, may we find peace and tranquility, knowing that you are our source of support and strength. We believe that by being close to you, we will be able to access invaluable wisdom that will make our lives richer and more meaningful.

May your grace cover us and make our lives a testimony of glory and dignity. In communicating with you, may we experience your peace and joy. We thank you for your love and trust that you will continue to guide us until we meet you in eternal kingdom.

We pray with gratitude in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Amen.

Exodus CHAPTER 33

Ex. 33:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Leave this place, you and the people you brought up out of Egypt, and go up to the land I promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, saying, ‘I will give it to your descendants.’”

Ex. 33:2 I will send an angel before you and drive out the Canaanites, Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites.

Ex. 33:3 Go up to the land flowing with milk and honey. But I will not go with you, because you are a stiff-necked people and I might destroy you on the way.”

Ex. 33:4 When the people heard these distressing words, they began to mourn and no-one put on any ornaments.

Ex. 33:5 For the LORD had said to Moses, “Tell the Israelites, ‘You are a stiff-necked people. If I were to go with you even for a moment, I might destroy you. Now take off your ornaments and I will decide what to do with you.’”

Ex. 33:6 So the Israelites stripped off their ornaments at Mount Horeb.

Ex. 33:7 Now Moses used to take a tent and pitch it outside the camp some distance away, calling it the “tent of meeting”. Anyone enquiring of the LORD would go to the tent of meeting outside the camp.

Ex. 33:8 And whenever Moses went out to the tent, all the people rose and stood at the entrances to their tents, watching Moses until he entered the tent.

Ex. 33:9 As Moses went into the tent, the pillar of cloud would come down and stay at the entrance, while the LORD spoke with Moses.

Ex. 33:10 Whenever the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance to the tent, they all stood and worshipped, each at the entrance to his tent.

Ex. 33:11 The LORD would speak to Moses face to face, as a man speaks with his friend. Then Moses would return to the camp, but his young assistant Joshua son of Nun did not leave the tent.

Ex. 33:12 Moses said to the LORD, “You have been telling me, ‘Lead these people,’ but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. You have said, ‘I know you by name and you have found favour with me.’

Ex. 33:13 If you are pleased with me, teach me your ways so I may know you and continue to find favour with you. Remember that this nation is your people.”

Ex. 33:14 The LORD replied, “My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.”

Ex. 33:15 Then Moses said to him, “If your Presence does not go with us, do not send us up from here.

Ex. 33:16 How will anyone know that you are pleased with me and with your people unless you go with us? What else will distinguish me and your people from all the other people on the face of the earth?”

Ex. 33:17 And the LORD said to Moses, “I will do the very thing you have asked, because I am pleased with you and I know you by name.”

Ex. 33:18 Then Moses said, “Now show me your glory.”

Ex. 33:19 And the LORD said, “I will cause all my goodness to pass in front of you, and I will proclaim my name, the LORD, in your presence. I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

Ex. 33:20 But,” he said, “you cannot see my face, for no-one may see me and live.”

Ex. 33:21 Then the LORD said, “There is a place near me where you may stand on a rock.

Ex. 33:22 When my glory passes by, I will put you in a cleft in the rock and cover you with my hand until I have passed by.

Ex. 33:23 Then I will remove my hand and you will see my back; but my face must not be seen.”

Exodus chapter 33 describes the aftermath of the Israelites' sin of worshiping the golden calf. God tells Moses to lead the people to the Promised Land, but that He will not go with them because of their disobedience. The people mourn when they hear this news.

Moses sets up a tent outside the camp and calls it the "tent of meeting," where he goes to speak with God. God speaks to Moses there and reaffirms His covenant with the Israelites.

Moses asks God to show him His glory, and God agrees to do so. He tells Moses to stand on a rock and covers him with His hand as He passes by. Moses is only allowed to see God's back, as no one can see His face and live.

God then instructs Moses to make two new tablets of stone to replace the ones that he had broken in anger over the golden calf. Moses does so and brings them up to the mountain, where God writes the Ten Commandments on them.

The chapter ends with Moses coming down from the mountain with the new tablets and his face shining brightly because he had been in the presence of God. The people are afraid to come near him, so Moses wears a veil over his face when he speaks to them.

The key verses Chapter 33 of Exodus in the Bible

Exodus chapter 33 contains important events in the Israelites' journey out of Egypt and their encounter with God at Mount Sinai. Here are some key verses from this chapter:

1. "Then the Lord said to Moses, "Leave this place, you and the people you brought up out of Egypt, and go up to the land I promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, saying, 'I will give it to your descendants.'" (Exodus 33:1) - In this verse, God commands Moses and the Israelites to leave the place where they were camped and go up to the land that God had promised to their ancestors.
2. "The Lord replied, 'My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.'" (Exodus 33:14) - Moses expresses his concern about how he will lead the Israelites without God's presence, and in response, God promises to be with them and give them rest.
3. "Then Moses said, 'Now show me your glory.'" (Exodus 33:18) - Moses asks God to reveal His glory to him.
4. "And the Lord said, 'I will cause all my goodness to pass in front of you, and I will proclaim my name, the Lord, in your presence. I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.'" (Exodus 33:19) - God promises to reveal His goodness and proclaim His name to Moses.
5. "But," he said, "you cannot see my face, for no one may see me and live." (Exodus 33:20) - God tells Moses that he cannot see His face and live.
6. "Then the Lord said, 'There is a place near me where you may stand on a rock. When my glory passes by, I will put you in a cleft in the rock and cover you with my hand until I have passed by. Then I will remove my hand and you will see my back; but my face must not be seen.'" (Exodus 33:21-23) - God tells Moses where he can stand to see His glory, and how He will reveal Himself to him.

Here's a reflection on Exodus chapter 33:

Exodus chapter 33 presents a significant encounter between Moses and God after the incident of the golden calf. In this chapter, Moses pleads with God to continue leading the Israelites on their journey to the Promised Land. Moses expresses his desire for God's presence to accompany the people, acknowledging the importance of God's guidance and favor.

One of the central themes in this chapter is the longing for the presence of God. Moses understood that the Israelites needed more than physical provisions and guidance; they needed the abiding presence of God to go with them. His plea for God's presence reveals the deep relationship Moses had developed with the Lord and his reliance on God's guidance and favor.

The chapter also highlights God's faithfulness and gracious response to Moses' plea. God assures Moses that His presence will go with him and the people, granting them rest and peace. Although God declares that He will not personally go up among the people due to their disobedience, He promises to send His angel to lead them on their journey.

Reflecting on Exodus chapter 33, we can draw several lessons for our own lives. Firstly, it reminds us of the importance of seeking and desiring the presence of God. Just as Moses longed for God's presence, we too should yearn for a close relationship with Him. Our desire for God's presence should surpass our desire for earthly possessions, success, or comfort. It is in His presence that we find true rest, peace, and fulfillment.

Secondly, this chapter highlights the faithfulness of God even in the midst of our failures. Despite the Israelites' disobedience, God remained committed to leading and guiding them. He responded to Moses' plea and reassured him of His presence and care. God's faithfulness is a testament to His unfailing love and grace towards His people.

Furthermore, the chapter encourages us to trust in God's promises and provisions. Even though God did not promise to personally go up among the people, He assured them of His angelic presence. We can trust that God will always provide what is needed for our journey, even if it may not be exactly as we expect. His presence and provision are reliable and sufficient for our every need.

In conclusion, Exodus chapter 33 reminds us of the longing for God's presence, the faithfulness of God in the midst of our failures, and the assurance of His guidance and provision. It calls us to seek His presence above all else, trust in His faithfulness, and rely on His guidance for our journey through life. By reflecting on these lessons, we can cultivate a deep relationship with God, experience His presence in our lives, and confidently walk in His direction and provision.