Where are You God?

When we don't feel how God's presence should be

In the Christian faith, there are times when people may experience periods when they do not feel God's presence. This experience is normal, and many believers experience similar emotions. Here are some suggestions for dealing with this situation:

Continuous Prayer and Spiritual Practice: Persist in prayer and spiritual practice even if you do not feel God's presence. This can include daily prayer, Bible reading, meditation, and meditation. Through these practices, you may re-establish your connection with God over time.

Connect with faith communities: Participate in church or faith community activities, share faith experiences with other Christians, and worship and pray together. Faith communities can provide support and encouragement to help you feel God's presence.

Reflection and Introspection: Sometimes not feeling God's presence may be due to stress, exhaustion, or guilt in your life. Reflect on your own life and look for anything that needs to be changed or cleared to restore connection with God.

Waiting and Faith: Sometimes, God's presence may not be felt right away, but faith requires perseverance and belief that God is always with you, even if you can't feel it. While waiting for God, continue to believe firmly in His presence and love.

Seek spiritual guidance: If you are confused or confused, seek guidance and advice from a pastor, evangelist, or faith teacher. They may be able to provide guidance on how to reconnect with God.

Remember God's Promises: Review the promises of God in the Bible and think about His faithfulness and love. These memories can help you rekindle your faith and dependence on God.

The most important thing to remember is that the experience of faith is changeable and everyone has its peaks and valleys. Not feeling God's presence doesn't mean God is gone from you, but rather a faith challenge that can help you gain a deeper understanding of faith and relationship with God. Strengthen your faith during this time and continue to seek God, sometimes God's presence may manifest in unexpected ways.

There are many verses in the Bible that can help you find comfort and guidance when you don't feel God's presence. Here are some relevant verses:

Isaiah 41:10, "Do not be afraid, for I am with you, and do not be alarmed, for I am your God." I will strengthen you, I will help you, and I will keep you with my righteousness. ”

Psalms 46:1 "God is our refuge, our strength, our help in times of trouble." ”

Psalms 34:18: "The Lord draws near to the grieving and saves the spiritually repentant." ”

Matthew 28:20, "I command you all things." I will always be with you until the end of the world. ”

John 14:18, "I will not leave you orphans, but I will come to you." ”

John 14:27, "I leave peace to you, and I give you my peace." What I have given is not what the world has given. Do not be sorrowful or timid in your hearts. ”

2 Corinthians 1:3-4: "May praise be to God the Father of Jesus Christ the Lord of our Lord, the merciful Father, the God who gives every comfort, and that he comforts us in all our afflictions, that we may use the comfort that God gives us to comfort those who suffer every affliction." ”

These verses emphasize God's presence with believers and provide comfort, strength, and help in difficult and challenging times. When you feel lonely or helpless, reading these verses can remind you of God's love and care and His commitment to be with you forever. At the same time, seeking the advice of a spiritual teacher or pastor can also help you understand these verses more deeply and find guidance in your faith life. In Christianity, the way God talks to man can take place through different methods and channels. These include:

Prayer: Prayer is the most common way of talking to God in Christianity. Believers can express their feelings, needs, thanksgiving, and counseling through prayer. They believe that prayer is an important way to communicate with God and that God will listen and answer their prayers.

Bible Reading: Christians believe that the Bible is the Word of God and that by reading the Bible, they can learn about God's will, teachings, and promises. Through biblical revelation, believers can have a dialogue with God in their hearts and receive guidance and encouragement from it.

Meditation and Meditation: Believers can develop a deeper connection with God through meditation and meditation. This involves meditation and focusing on God's presence, character, and Word in order to hear God's voice and guidance.

Community worship: Attending church or church worship activities can also allow believers to have a dialogue with God. Worship includes elements such as praise, prayer, communion, and listening to sermons, which help believers develop a closer relationship with God.

Inspiration and Revelation: Some Christians believe that God can talk to them through inspiration and revelation. This may include receiving God's message through dreams, visions, or intuition.

Through others: Sometimes believers also hear God's voice and guidance through the teachings and advice of others, such as pastors, mentors, or friends.

Either way, Christians believe that God desires dialogue with people, and they strive to maintain a godly lifestyle to hear God's voice more clearly and follow God's will. The purpose of this dialogue is to build deeper faith relationships and find guidance and comfort in life.

We pray together

Dear Father,

We feel that the sound of your voice awaits you in life. Sometimes, our hearts feel lonely and lost, but we trust that you will always be with us. Give us peace and firm faith in this time of waiting to know that your plan is good and your heart is best.

Lord, we ask for your wisdom so that we can discern your voice and hear your guidance. In our uncertain moments, please guide us in your path. Please work in our hearts of your Holy Spirit to guide us to do your will.

We also pray for our brothers and sisters who are waiting. May they find comfort and strength in their waiting. May you show your plans and good intentions in their lives and let them experience your heartwarming.

Thank you for listening to our prayers, we trust that you always care and answer our cries.

In the name of Jesus Christ, we pray. Amen.

Numbers chapter 9

Nu. 9:1 The LORD spoke to Moses in the Desert of Sinai in the first month of the second year after they came out of Egypt. He said, Nu. 9:2 "Make the Israelites celebrate the Passover at the appointed time.

Nu. 9:3 Celebrate it at the appointed time, at twilight on the fourteenth day of this month, in accordance with all its rules and regulations.”

Nu. 9:4 So Moses told the Israelites to celebrate the Passover,

Nu. 9:5 and they did so in the Desert of Sinai at twilight on the fourteenth day of the first month. The Israelites did everything just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Nu. 9:6 But some of them could not celebrate the Passover on that day because they were ceremonially unclean on account of a dead body. So they came to Moses and Aaron that same day

Nu. 9:7 and said to Moses, “We have become unclean because of a dead body, but why should we be kept from presenting the LORD’s offering with the other Israelites at the appointed time?”

Nu. 9:8 Moses answered them, “Wait until I find out what the LORD commands concerning you.”

Nu. 9:9 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Nu. 9:10 “Tell the Israelites: ‘When any of you or your descendants are unclean because of a dead body or are away on a journey, they may still celebrate the LORD’s Passover.

Nu. 9:11 They are to celebrate it on the fourteenth day of the second month at twilight. They are to eat the lamb, together with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

Nu. 9:12 They must not leave any of it till morning or break any of its bones. When they celebrate the Passover, they must follow all the regulations.

Nu. 9:13 But if a man who is ceremonially clean and not on a journey fails to celebrate the Passover, that person must be cut off from his people because he did not present the LORD’s offering at the appointed time. That man will bear the consequences of his sin.

Nu. 9:14 ““An alien living among you who wants to celebrate the LORD’s Passover must do so in accordance with its rules and regulations. You must have the same regulations for the alien and the native-born.””

Nu. 9:15 On the day the tabernacle, the Tent of the Testimony, was set up, the cloud covered it. From evening till morning the cloud above the tabernacle looked like fire.

Nu. 9:16 That is how it continued to be; the cloud covered it, and at night it looked like fire.

Nu. 9:17 Whenever the cloud lifted from above the Tent, the Israelites set out; wherever the cloud settled, the Israelites encamped.

Nu. 9:18 At the LORD’s command the Israelites set out, and at his command they encamped. As long as the cloud stayed over the tabernacle, they remained in camp.

Nu. 9:19 When the cloud remained over the tabernacle a long time, the Israelites obeyed the LORD’s order and did not set out.

Nu. 9:20 Sometimes the cloud was over the tabernacle only a few days; at the LORD’s command they would encamp, and then at his command they would set out.

Nu. 9:21 Sometimes the cloud stayed only from evening till morning, and when it lifted in the morning, they set out. Whether by day or by night, whenever the cloud lifted, they set out.

Nu. 9:22 Whether the cloud stayed over the tabernacle for two days or a month or a year, the Israelites would remain in camp and not set out; but when it lifted, they would set out.

Nu. 9:23 At the LORD’s command they encamped, and at the LORD’s command they set out. They obeyed the LORD's order, in accordance with his command through Moses.

Chapter 9 of the Book of Numbers in the Christian Bible describes the celebration of the Passover in the second year after the Israelites' departure from Egypt. The chapter begins by describing how God instructed Moses to tell the Israelites to celebrate the Passover on the fourteenth day of the first month of the year, using a lamb or goat as a sacrifice. However, those who were ceremonially unclean or away on a journey could celebrate the Passover on the fourteenth day of the second month instead. The chapter also describes how the Israelites were to observe the Feast of Unleavened Bread for seven days, during which time they were to eat only unleavened bread and avoid any leavened products. The chapter emphasizes the importance of obedience to God's commands and the celebration of these festivals as reminders of the Israelites' deliverance from Egypt.

Here are some of the key verses from chapter 9 of the Book of Numbers in the Christian Bible:

- "And the Lord spoke to Moses in the wilderness of Sinai, in the first month of the second year after they had come out of the land of Egypt, saying," - Numbers 9:1
- "Let the people of Israel keep the Passover at its appointed time." - Numbers 9:2
- "And those men said to him, 'We are unclean through touching a dead body. Why are we kept from bringing the Lord's offering at its appointed time among the people of Israel?'" - Numbers 9:7
- "But if anyone who is clean and is not on a journey fails to keep the Passover, that person shall be cut off from his people because he did not bring the Lord's offering at its appointed time; that man shall bear his sin." - Numbers 9:13
- "Whether it was two days or a month or a longer time, that the cloud continued over the tabernacle, abiding there, the people of Israel remained in camp and did not set out, but when it lifted they set out." - Numbers 9:22

Chapter 9 deals with the observance of the Passover and the regulation of the camp of Israel according to the movement of the cloud above the tabernacle. It also includes the story of some men who were unable to keep the Passover because they were unclean, and God's provision for them to keep it at a later time.

Chapter 9 of the Book of Numbers focuses on the celebration of the Passover and the establishment of the Cloud and Fire as a guiding presence for the Israelites in their journey. Here's a reflection on some key themes and lessons from Numbers 9:

The Importance of Celebrating Passover: The chapter emphasizes the significance of the Passover celebration and its observance. The Israelites are instructed to keep the Passover at the appointed time and in the prescribed manner, commemorating their liberation from slavery in Egypt.

Reflection: This chapter reminds us of the importance of commemorating significant events in our spiritual journey. It encourages us to remember and celebrate the redemptive acts of God in our lives. By participating in meaningful traditions and rituals, we deepen our understanding of God's faithfulness and the significance of His saving work.

Inclusivity and Provision: The chapter addresses the situation of individuals who were ceremonially unclean or unable to observe the Passover due to extenuating circumstances. Provision is made for them to observe the Passover at a later time, ensuring that everyone has the opportunity to participate.

Reflection: This chapter highlights the inclusivity and grace of God. It teaches us to be mindful of the needs and circumstances of others, allowing flexibility and compassion in our spiritual practices. By embracing inclusivity and making provisions for those who may face challenges, we foster a sense of community and unity within the body of believers.

Guided by the Cloud and Fire: The chapter describes the manifestation of the Cloud and Fire as a visible sign of God's guidance and presence among the Israelites. The Cloud would rest over the tabernacle during the day, and the Fire would appear at night, signaling when the Israelites were to camp or set out on their journey.

Reflection: This chapter reminds us that God desires to guide and lead us in our journey of faith. It encourages us to be attentive to His presence and to follow His guidance. By seeking and following God's leading, we can navigate through life's challenges and uncertainties with confidence, knowing that He is with us every step of the way.

Obedience and Trust: The chapter emphasizes the Israelites' obedience to God's commands regarding the Passover and their reliance on His guidance through the Cloud and Fire. They waited for the movement of the Cloud or Fire before setting out on their journey.

Reflection: This chapter underscores the importance of obedience and trust in our relationship with God. It teaches us to trust in His timing and direction, even when it may not align with our own plans or expectations. By cultivating obedience and trust, we demonstrate our faith in God's wisdom and sovereignty.

Overall, Numbers 9 highlights themes of celebration, inclusivity, guidance, obedience, and trust. By reflecting on these themes, we can strive to celebrate and remember God's redemptive work.

in our lives, embrace inclusivity and grace, seek and follow God's guidance, and cultivate obedience and trust in our relationship with Him.
