

No copyright materials are used in this text
The summary and interpretation of the specific chapter and verses are from the Bible, they are religious text that is in the public domain.

Free to Copy and Distribute: Spread the Word!

(Peter Lok) 駱沅祺
lokpeter@outlook.com

Daily Rice 2023 September 24

YouTube Prayer Link

Jealousy and arrogance

Jealousy and arrogance are two negative qualities in Christianity that are considered sin, and they are mentioned many times in the Bible and are considered actions contrary to God's will. From a Christian perspective, jealousy and arrogance are departures from love, humility, and faith, two qualities often seen as morally depraved.

Jealousy is envy and jealousy of others' success, wealth, happiness, or other merits. Christian doctrine teaches that people should learn to be content with their circumstances and understand that God has a unique plan in each person's life. Jealousy indicates that a person is dissatisfied with God's plan and thinks he should have more than others. This attitude is disrespectful to God's trust and grace because it shows that people do not trust God to provide everything they need in their lives. The tenth commandment in the Bible explicitly forbids jealousy and emphasizes love and respect for one's neighbor. When people are jealous of someone else's success or possession, they are actually questioning God's justice and God's distribution. Christian doctrine teaches us to believe that God has wisdom and a plan, and that He gives each person different gifts and opportunities. When we are jealous of others, we imply that we think God's plan is unfair, which is a doubt about God's justice. The Bible warns us against jealousy because jealousy can lead to sinful behavior and division.

Arrogant:

Arrogance is the emotion of overconfidence and overestimation of oneself, often accompanied by contempt or contempt for others. Christianity emphasizes humility and humility, believing that arrogance is a self-centered attitude that distances oneself from God's ways. Jesus Christ taught humility in the Gospel of Matthew when He said, "Whoever exalts himself will be humble, and whoever is humble will be exalted." (Matthew 23:12). This means that arrogance leads to depravity, while humility leads people to God's grace and redemption.

Arrogance is a contempt for God's authority and wisdom, a narcissistic and self-centered attitude. Christian doctrine teaches us to humbly accept God's sovereignty and acknowledge God's supremacy. When we are arrogant, we are actually challenging God's authority and going against God's will. This arrogance can lead people away from God and away from His ways.

Vigilance against jealousy and arrogance is essential for Christians because they can prevent individuals from entering into intimate relationships with God and disrupt relationships. By honestly examining one's own heart, recognizing the presence of these negative qualities, and seeking God's help to overcome them, Christians can better follow Christ's teachings and pursue holiness and spiritual growth.

Ultimately, Christian doctrine teaches us to live in love, humility, and faithfulness, free from jealousy and arrogance. By being vigilant against these qualities, Christians can better embody the image of Christ and participate actively in society, family, and church, promoting peace, kindness, and communion. It is a moral life based on faith, hope, and love, in line with Christian teachings Jealousy and arrogance violate God's moral standards and lead to God's judgment. It is mentioned many times in the Bible that God will judge all actions and inner motives. For example, Paul writes (Romans 14:12), "For each of us will give God an account for his own affairs." This means that everyone is responsible for God's actions and attitudes and will be judged before God's judgment.

Therefore, Christians are taught to be wary of jealousy and arrogance, not only because they are morally wrong, but also because they can lead to God's judgment. By pursuing humility, love, and obedience in their daily lives, Christians can better align themselves with God's will, build a deeper relationship with God, and expect God's righteous judgment rather than God's wrath.

In the Bible, there are many examples of jealousy and arrogance leading to God's judgment. Here are some such examples:

Corah's Rebellion: In Numbers 16, Korah and his cohorts develop jealousy and arrogance over the leadership of Moses and Aaron. They claim to be holy people who oppose God's appointed leadership. As a result, God opened the earth and devoured them along with their families as a sign of His judgment.

Satan's Arrogance: Satan's Arrogance is a broad Christian doctrinal story. Satan rebelled against God out of arrogance and tried to compete with God for God's authority. This led to Satan's banishment from heaven and eternal judgment.

Saul's Arrogance: Saul was Israel's first king and has a story about him in the book of Samuel. His arrogance led to God's displeasure because He did not fully obey God's commands. This eventually led to his kingship being taken away and he and his son killed in battle.

Jealous Joseph's Brothers: In Genesis 37, Joseph's brothers were jealous of his father Jacob's favor for Joseph. They sold Joseph to merchants in Egypt, resulting in Joseph being sold into slavery. This act of jealousy led to later events, including Joseph's imprisonment and later becoming prime minister of Egypt.

Israel's Jealousy: In Exodus 32, the Israelites doubted and jealous Moses because he was with God on Mount Sinai. They made a golden calf to worship, which led to the wrath and judgment of the gods, as well as severe punishment for those who were unfaithful.

These examples highlight how jealousy and arrogance often lead to God's judgment and punishment. These stories also serve as lessons in Christian doctrine, reminding believers to guard against these two sins and encouraging them to pursue humility, obedience, and unity with God.

We pray together

Dear Heavenly Father, we thank you for giving us the opportunity to know your teachings, including that jealousy and arrogance are qualities that are not pleasing to you. We acknowledge that sometimes we can also be affected by these negative emotions that keep us out of your path. Give us the wisdom and strength to overcome jealousy and arrogance and help us build a deeper relationship with you.

Help us to learn humility, to let go of self-centered views of ourselves, and to seek oneness with you. May your love and grace fill our hearts so that we can view others with love and care, not jealous of their success or wealth.

Guide us so that our hearts are aligned with your will so that we can reflect your character in our daily lives. May your inspiration move us and guide us on your path, abandoning jealousy and arrogance and becoming a tool to spread your love and truth.

We thank you for hearing our prayers and trust that you will continue to work in our lives to help us become kinder, more loving, and more humble people.

We pray in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

Numbers chapter 12

CHAPTER 12

Nu. 12:1 Miriam and Aaron began to talk against Moses because of his Cushite wife, for he had married a Cushite.

Nu. 12:2 “Has the LORD spoken only through Moses?” they asked. “Hasn’t he also spoken through us?” And the LORD heard this.

Nu. 12:3 (Now Moses was a very humble man, more humble than anyone else on the face of the earth.)

Nu. 12:4 At once the LORD said to Moses, Aaron and Miriam, “Come out to the Tent of Meeting, all three of you.” So the three of them came out.

Nu. 12:5 Then the LORD came down in a pillar of cloud; he stood at the entrance to the Tent and summoned Aaron and Miriam.

When both of them stepped forward,

Nu. 12:6 he said, “Listen to my words: “When a prophet of the LORD is among you, I reveal myself to him in visions, I speak to him in dreams.

Nu. 12:7 But this is not true of my servant Moses; he is faithful in all my house.

Nu. 12:8 With him I speak face to face, clearly and not in riddles; he sees the form of the LORD. Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?”

Nu. 12:9 The anger of the LORD burned against them, and he left them.

Nu. 12:10 When the cloud lifted from above the Tent, there stood Miriam — leprous, [The Hebrew word was used for various diseases affecting the skin — not necessarily leprosy.] like snow. Aaron turned towards her and saw that she had leprosy;

Nu. 12:11 and he said to Moses, “Please, my lord, do not hold against us the sin we have so foolishly committed.

350

Nu. 12:12 Do not let her be like a stillborn infant coming from its mother’s womb with its flesh half eaten away.”

Nu. 12:13 So Moses cried out to the LORD, “O God, please heal her!”

Nu. 12:14 The LORD replied to Moses, “If her father had spat in her face, would she not have been in disgrace for seven days?

Confine her outside the camp for seven days; after that she can be brought back.”

Nu. 12:15 So Miriam was confined outside the camp for seven days, and the people did not move on till she was brought back.

Nu. 12:16 After that, the people left Hazeroth and encamped in the Desert of Paran.

Chapter 12 of the Book of Numbers in the Christian Bible describes a conflict within the Israelite leadership. The chapter begins by describing how Moses' sister Miriam and brother Aaron spoke against him, criticizing his marriage to a Cushite woman and challenging his authority as God's chosen leader. God hears their criticism and calls them out for their rebellion, affirming Moses' unique relationship with Him. The chapter then describes how God punished Miriam for her rebellion by afflicting her with leprosy, causing her to be temporarily cast out of the camp. Moses intercedes for his sister and pleads with God to heal her, and God ultimately does so after seven days of isolation. The chapter concludes with the Israelites continuing their journey through the wilderness.

The key verses in Chapter 12 of the Book "Numbers" in Christian Bible

Certainly! Here are some of the key verses from chapter 12 of the Book of Numbers in the Christian Bible:

- "Miriam and Aaron began to talk against Moses because of his Cushite wife, for he had married a Cushite." - Numbers 12:1
- "Has the Lord spoken only through Moses?" they asked. "Hasn't he also spoken through us?" And the Lord heard this." - Numbers 12:2
- "At once the Lord said to Moses, Aaron and Miriam, 'Come out to the tent of meeting, all three of you.' So the three of them went out." - Numbers 12:4
- "With him I speak face to face, clearly and not in riddles; he sees the form of the Lord. Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?" - Numbers 12:8
- "So Miriam was confined outside the camp for seven days, and the people did not move on till she was brought back." - Numbers 12:15

Chapter 12 tells the story of Miriam and Aaron speaking against Moses because of his Cushite wife and claiming that they, too, are prophets. God rebukes Miriam and Aaron and punishes Miriam with leprosy, which is later healed after Moses intercedes on her behalf.

Chapter 12 of the Book of Numbers addresses the issue of Miriam and Aaron speaking against Moses. Here's a reflection on some key themes and lessons from Numbers 12:

Jealousy and Pride: In this chapter, Miriam and Aaron express jealousy and question Moses' authority. They claim that God speaks through them as well and challenge Moses' unique role as the leader of the Israelites.

Reflection: This chapter serves as a reminder of the destructive nature of jealousy and pride. It highlights the importance of embracing humility and recognizing the unique calling and gifts of others. By celebrating and supporting one another's roles and contributions, we foster unity and cooperation within the community.

God's Defense of His Servant: When Miriam and Aaron speak against Moses, God intervenes and defends Moses' position. He affirms Moses as a faithful servant and speaks directly to Miriam and Aaron, rebuking them for their actions.

Reflection: This chapter reminds us that God is the ultimate authority and defender of His servants. It teaches us the importance of respecting and honoring those whom God has appointed to lead and serve. By avoiding gossip, criticism, and jealousy, we can create an environment of respect and unity, upholding the leaders God has chosen.

The Consequence of Miriam's Leprosy: As a consequence of her actions, Miriam is struck with leprosy. Moses intercedes on her behalf, pleading with God for her healing. God shows mercy and instructs that Miriam be quarantined outside the camp for seven days before being restored.

Reflection: This chapter demonstrates the consequences that can arise from our negative attitudes and actions. It also portrays the power of intercession and God's willingness to show mercy. By seeking forgiveness and interceding on behalf of others, we participate in the restoration and healing of relationships.

The Holiness of Moses: The chapter concludes by emphasizing Moses' unique relationship with God. It states that Moses is the most humble man on the face of the earth and that God speaks to him face to face.

Reflection: This chapter highlights the remarkable closeness and intimacy that Moses had with God. It challenges us to seek a deep and personal relationship with God, characterized by humility and a willingness to listen and obey. By nurturing our connection with God, we can experience His presence and guidance in our lives.

Overall, Numbers 12 addresses themes of jealousy, humility, God's defense, consequences, intercession, and the holiness of Moses. By reflecting on these themes, we can strive to cultivate humility, honor and support our leaders, avoid jealousy and pride, seek reconciliation and restoration, and pursue a deep and intimate relationship with God..