

No copyright materials are used in this text
The summary and interpretation of the specific chapter and verses are from the Bible, they are religious text that is in the public domain.

Free to Copy and Distribute: Spread the Word!

(Peter Lok)駱沅祺

lokpeter@outlook.com

Daily Rice 2023 September 30

YouTube Prayer Link

God is my inheritance

In the Christian Bible, God is described as the source of creation of all things in the universe and is at the heart of faith. However, this Almighty God is not only the Lord of the universe, but also an extremely important part of every believer's life. God not only gives us life, but also becomes our inheritance, and this relationship is deeply rooted in the Bible.

God's promises:

In the Old Testament, God often made promises to the people of Israel and other believers. These promises include protection, provision, guidance, and His love. Psalm 23 begins with a clear expression of this faith: "The Lord is my Shepherd, and I will not be lacking." This simple yet powerful declaration emphasizes that God is an inheritance in our lives and that we will not lack any necessities.

Fundamentals of Faith:

The Christian faith emphasizes a person's relationship with God, which is particularly prominent in the New Testament. Jesus Christ is described as the Son of God, and His life taught us how to love God and love others. In John 3:16 it is said, "God so loved the world that he gave them his only begotten Son, that whoever believes in him may not perish but have eternal life." This passage shows that God gave us His Son, an invaluable inheritance that brings us eternal life.

Responsibilities of the industry:

However, having God as our inheritance also comes with responsibility. The Bible teaches us to love God, keep His commandments, and share His love and truth with others. This love and obedience is central to the Christian life and a response to God's inheritance.

The Power of Faith:

Having God as our inheritance gives us strength and comfort. In times of difficulties and trials in life, we can trust God's promises to know that He will always be with us. The power of this faith enables Christians to persevere in their faith and stay steadfast no matter what challenges they face.

The revelation in the Christian Bible is that God is our inheritance. This relationship not only brings spiritual abundance and peace, but also gives us the responsibility to love God and others. The power of this faith enables us to persevere in our lives, knowing that God is always with us and can count on His promises no matter what challenges we face. Thus, Christians' experience of God's estate is a deep and rich spiritual reality that shapes their faith and life.

With God as an inheritance, we are no longer worried

In the chaotic modern life, people often face various stresses and worries, whether from work, family, health or other aspects. However, there is a profound comfort for those who believe in God that God is their inheritance, and this idea of faith can help us overcome our worries and find inner peace and strength.

God is our dependency:

Faith tells us that God is omnipotent and that He is our refuge and refuge. In the Bible, Psalm 23:1 says, "The Lord is my Shepherd, and I will not be lacking." This quote emphasizes that God is the most important inheritance of our lives and that He will provide for our needs, both material and spiritual.

With a timeless vision:

Having God as our inheritance also gives us an eternal vision. The difficulties and troubles of the world may be temporary, but faith tells us that God's love and promises are eternal. This perspective helps us see bigger purpose in life, move beyond immediate difficulties, and face challenges with a more positive attitude.

Responses to worry:

The Bible encourages us not to worry because God knows our needs and will take care of us. Matthew 6:26 says, "Behold the bird of heaven, neither sow nor reap, nor store in a barn, but your heavenly Father will feed it." Aren't you much more valuable than birds?" This reminds us that worry does not solve the problem, but that trusting God is the better option.

Finding peace in faith:

Most importantly, having God as our inheritance brings us peace of mind. When we commit our lives to God, we can let go of our worries and know that He will protect and guide us in our time of need. This peace of faith helps us cope with the stresses and challenges of life and keep our minds clear.

Having God as our inheritance is a powerful concept of faith that reminds us not to lose faith in the midst of difficulties and worries. By trusting God, we can find peace in our lives, have eternal hope, and meet future challenges with a stronger mindset. The belief that God is our inheritance has brought about real change and blessing in our lives.

Passages in the Bible emphasize that Jehovah's presence makes us need not worry:

Psalms 23:1 "The Lord is my Shepherd, and I will not lack." ┘

Matthew 6:25-26, "Therefore I tell you, do not worry about what you eat or drink for your life, or what you wear for your body. Is life better than food, is the body better than clothing, and behold the bird of heaven, neither planting, nor reaping, nor storing it in a barn, but your heavenly Father still feeds it. What about you?"

Philippians 4:6-7, "Be anxious for nothing, but in all things, through prayer, supplication, and thanksgiving, tell God what you want." God's unforeseen peace will guard your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus. ┘

These verses emphasize trust in God and God's promises that will provide for our needs so that we do not have to worry. They remind us that in times of difficulty and stress, we can trust God as our Shepherd and Provider.

We pray together

Dear Heavenly Father,

We come to you at this moment and thank you for freely bestowing us with this precious inheritance, yourself. Thank you that because we are your Creator and Shepherd, you care about our needs and show your love and grace in our lives.

Heavenly Father, we are humbled because you selflessly give us your love, your promises, and your peace. We know that even in the storms of life, we can rely on your protection and guidance. May your Holy Spirit dwell in our hearts, teaching us how to know you more deeply and live out your will in our lives every day.

Give us the wisdom and courage to love our neighbor as our own and spread your love to everyone we meet. May our lives be your glorious testimony of your love and truth.

We pray for the needs of the world and for our loved ones and friends, especially those who are going through hardship. Extend your hand to comfort them, heal them, and guide them on the path of justice and truth.

We pray in the name of Jesus Christ, Amen.

Numbers chapter 18

Nu. 18:1 The LORD said to Aaron, "You, your sons and your father's family are to bear the responsibility for offences against the sanctuary, and you and your sons alone are to bear the responsibility for offences against the priesthood.

Nu. 18:2 Bring your fellow Levites from your ancestral tribe to join you and assist you when you and your sons minister before the Tent of the Testimony.

Nu. 18:3 They are to be responsible to you and are to perform all the duties of the Tent, but they must not go near the furnishings of the sanctuary or the altar, or both they and you will die.

Nu. 18:4 They are to join you and be responsible for the care of the Tent of Meeting — all the work at the Tent — and no-one else may come near where you are.

Nu. 18:5 “You are to be responsible for the care of the sanctuary and the altar, so that wrath will not fall on the Israelites again.

Nu. 18:6 I myself have selected your fellow Levites from among the Israelites as a gift to you, dedicated to the LORD to do the work at the Tent of Meeting.

Nu. 18:7 But only you and your sons may serve as priests in connection with everything at the altar and inside the curtain.

I am giving you the service of the priesthood as a gift.

Anyone else who comes near the sanctuary must be put to death.”

Nu. 18:8 Then the LORD said to Aaron, “I myself have put you in charge of the offerings presented to me; all the holy offerings the Israelites give me I give to you and your sons as your portion and regular share.

Nu. 18:9 You are to have the part of the most holy offerings that is kept from the fire. From all the gifts they bring me as most holy offerings, whether grain or sin or guilt offerings, that part belongs to you and your sons.

Nu. 18:10 Eat it as something most holy; every male shall eat it. You must regard it as holy.

Nu. 18:11 “This also is yours: whatever is set aside from the gifts of all the wave offerings of the Israelites. I give this to you and your sons and daughters as your regular share. Everyone in your household who is ceremonially clean may eat it.

Nu. 18:12 “I give you all the finest olive oil and all the finest new wine and grain they give to the LORD as the firstfruits of their harvest.

Nu. 18:13 All the land’s firstfruits that they bring to the LORD will be yours. Everyone in your household who is ceremonially clean may eat it.

Nu. 18:14 “Everything in Israel that is devoted [The Hebrew term refers to the irrevocable giving over of things or persons to the LORD.] to the LORD is yours.

Nu. 18:15 The first offspring of every womb, both man and animal, that is offered to the LORD is yours. But you must redeem every firstborn son and every firstborn male of unclean animals.

Nu. 18:16 When they are a month old, you must redeem them at the redemption price set at five shekels [That is, about 2 ounces (about 55 grams)] of silver, according to the sanctuary shekel, which weighs twenty gerahs.

Nu. 18:17 “But you must not redeem the firstborn of an ox, a sheep or a goat; they are holy. Sprinkle their blood on the altar and burn their fat as an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Nu. 18:18 Their meat is to be yours, just as the breast of the wave offering and the right thigh are yours.

Nu. 18:19 Whatever is set aside from the holy offerings the Israelites present to the LORD I give to you and your sons and daughters as your regular share. It is an everlasting covenant of salt before the LORD for both you and your offspring.”

Nu. 18:20 The LORD said to Aaron, “You will have no inheritance in their land, nor will you have any share among them; I am your share and your inheritance among the Israelites.

Nu. 18:21 “I give to the Levites all the tithes in Israel as their inheritance in return for the work they do while serving at the Tent of Meeting.

Nu. 18:22 From now on the Israelites must not go near the Tent of Meeting, or they will bear the consequences of their sin and will die.

Nu. 18:23 It is the Levites who are to do the work at the Tent of Meeting and bear the responsibility for offences against it.

This is a lasting ordinance for the generations to come. They will receive no inheritance among the Israelites.

Nu. 18:24 Instead, I give to the Levites as their inheritance the tithes that the Israelites present as an offering to the LORD. That is why I said concerning them: ‘They will have no inheritance among the Israelites.’”

Nu. 18:25 The LORD said to Moses,

Nu. 18:26 “Speak to the Levites and say to them: ‘When you receive from the Israelites the tithe I give you as your inheritance, you must present a tenth of that tithe as the LORD’s offering.

Nu. 18:27 Your offering will be reckoned to you as grain from the threshing-floor or juice from the winepress.

Nu. 18:28 In this way you also will present an offering to the LORD from all the tithes you receive from the Israelites. From these tithes you must give the LORD's portion to Aaron the priest.

Nu. 18:29 You must present as the LORD's portion the best and holiest part of everything given to you.'

Nu. 18:30 "Say to the Levites: 'When you present the best part, it will be reckoned to you as the product of the threshing-floor or the winepress.

Nu. 18:31 You and your households may eat the rest of it anywhere, for it is your wages for your work at the Tent of Meeting.

Nu. 18:32 By presenting the best part of it you will not be guilty in this matter; then you will not defile the holy offerings of the Israelites, and you will not die.'"

Chapter 18 of the Book of Numbers in the Christian Bible discusses the duties and privileges of the tribe of Levi, who are set apart as priests and responsible for the service of the tabernacle. God commands Moses to assign specific duties to Aaron and his sons, who are to be supported by the Levites in their service. The Levites are given specific portions of the sacrifices as their share, including the tithes given by the Israelites. This chapter emphasizes the importance of the Levites and their role in maintaining the holiness of the tabernacle and the Israelite community. The chapter also highlights the importance of obedience and the consequences of disobedience, as seen in the previous rebellion of Korah and his followers. Overall, the chapter emphasizes the need for order and structure in the worship of God, and the importance of supporting those who are called to serve in that capacity.

Here are some of the key verses from chapter 18 of the Book of Numbers in the Christian Bible:

- "The Lord said to Aaron, 'You, your sons and your family are to bear the responsibility for offenses connected with the sanctuary, and you and your sons alone are to bear the responsibility for offenses connected with the priesthood.'" - Numbers 18:1
- "I give you all the finest olive oil and all the finest new wine and grain they give the Lord as the firstfruits of their harvest. All the land's firstfruits that they bring to the Lord will be yours. Everyone in your household who is ceremonially clean may eat it." - Numbers 18:12-13

- "The Lord said to Aaron, 'You will have no inheritance in their land, nor will you have any share among them; I am your share and your inheritance among the Israelites.'" - Numbers 18:20
- "I give to the Levites all the tithes in Israel as their inheritance in return for the work they do while serving at the tent of meeting." - Numbers 18:21

Chapter 18 establishes the duties and privileges of the Levites, particularly the priestly responsibilities of Aaron and his sons. The chapter also outlines the offerings and tithes that are to be given to the priests and Levites in order to support them in their work, and emphasizes that they have no inheritance in the land, as God is their inheritance.

Chapter 18 of the Book of Numbers focuses on the responsibilities and privileges of the Levites and the priesthood. Here's a reflection on some key themes and lessons from Numbers 18:

The Importance of Sacred Roles: In this chapter, God establishes the role of the Levites as the designated tribe responsible for the service of the tabernacle. The Levites are to assist Aaron and his sons, the priests, in their duties and are not allowed to approach the most holy things directly.

Reflection: This chapter highlights the significance of sacred roles within the community. It teaches us the importance of honoring and respecting those who are called to serve in specific capacities, whether in religious, leadership, or other roles. By recognizing and valuing these roles, we contribute to the orderly functioning and well-being of the community.

God as the Ultimate Provider: God assigns certain offerings and tithes to the Levites and the priests, establishing them as His portion. In return for their service, God promises to provide for their needs, ensuring they have sustenance and provision.

Reflection: This chapter reminds us of God's faithfulness as our ultimate provider. It teaches us that when we faithfully serve God and others, He promises to meet our needs. By trusting in His provision and practicing generosity towards those who serve in His name, we participate in the cycle of blessings and create a culture of support and care within the community.

The Privilege and Responsibility of the Priesthood: The chapter emphasizes the exclusive role of Aaron and his sons as priests. They are set apart for service in the tabernacle, handling the most holy things, and performing the rituals and sacrifices on behalf of the people.

Reflection: This chapter highlights the privilege and responsibility of those called to serve as spiritual leaders. It reminds us of the sacred trust placed upon those in positions of spiritual authority. By embracing our own roles and responsibilities, we can faithfully fulfill our duties and lead others in worship, instruction, and spiritual growth.

The Sacredness of Offerings: The chapter outlines the various offerings that are to be presented to God, including the firstfruits and the best portions. These offerings are considered sacred and are to be treated with reverence and obedience.

Reflection: This chapter underscores the importance of approaching God with reverence and offering Him our best. It teaches us the significance of giving our firstfruits and the finest aspects of our lives to God. By honoring God with our offerings and dedicating our resources, talents, and time to Him, we demonstrate our love and commitment to Him.

Overall, Numbers 18 addresses themes of sacred roles, God's provision, the privilege and responsibility of the priesthood, and the sacredness of offerings. By reflecting on these themes, we can strive to honor and respect those in sacred roles, trust in God's provision, embrace our own roles and responsibilities, and approach God with reverence, offering our best to Him.