Do not delete or misinterpret God's Word:

In the universe of the world, there is a faith, a power, called the unbridgeable Word of God. It is a deep and mysterious existence that transcends time and space, and its existence has always led the way in the progress of mankind.

The unalterable Word of God is the secret code of the universe, the essence of existence. It is not limited by time, it is not subject to human intervention, it is eternal and unchanging. These words convey wisdom, power, and infinite possibilities. They are our guide to our quest for truth and meaning in a small universe.

These words are like stars twinkling in the night sky, guiding people forward. They are a spiritual bond that connects people to the core of the universe. Through these words, we feel the mystery of the universe and our own insignificance.

The insurmountable Word of God is an inspiration, a force, an encouragement. They remind us that we are not alone, that we are part of the universe and that we have a responsibility to explore and understand the world.

Whether we choose to believe or not, the inexplicable Word of God exists. They are not the product of a particular religion, but universal truths. They transcend culture, race and religion and belong to all.

In everyday life, we can perceive the irrevocable Word of God through inner meditation and reflection. They are like mirrors that reflect our true nature within us. By listening to these words, we can understand ourselves and the world more deeply.

The unalterable words of God may not come in the form of words or words, but they exist in everything in nature. In the silence, we can hear the sound of the wind blowing through the leaves, the gurgling of water flowing through the stream, which are all part of God's Word.

In the infallible Word of God, we find wisdom, peace, and hope. They are the gift of the universe and the light of our hearts. Do not be afraid to explore and perceive, for the inalienable Word of God will live on and provide us with direction for eternity.

The Bible is one of the most important texts in the Christian faith, and it contains many religious doctrines and moral principles. However, like the irrevocable Word of God, the Bible should be properly understood and respected to avoid misinterpretation and misunderstanding.

First, to understand the Bible, we need to understand that it was written in different historical, cultural, and social contexts in ancient times. These texts include a variety of literary genres such as history, poetry, allegory, prophecy, and moral teaching. Therefore, it is crucial to understand the context and original meaning of the text.

Second, the Bible should be understood in a comprehensive manner, not just a single verse or paragraph. The Bible contains a variety of books, some of which may be closely related to other books. By considering the Bible as a whole, it is easier for us to understand its core message and teachings.

The insurmountable Word of God reminds us that we should respect the moral principles and values of the Bible, such as love, mercy, justice, and humility. These principles are the core message of the Bible and the foundation of the Christian faith. We should not use Scripture to support or justify evil or discrimination.

In addition, the Bible should be interpreted and interpreted as a living text that is integrated with modern society and culture. Although the Bible is an ancient text, its moral principles and teachings can still guide our lives and provide us with wisdom and guidance.

Most importantly, the infallible Word of God reminds us to treat the beliefs and interpretations of others with love and respect. It is normal that different people may understand the Bible differently. We should share our faith with others and discuss the meaning of the Bible with others on the basis of mutual understanding and respect to promote mutual learning and growth.

Guided by the unalterable Word of God, we can better understand and honor the Bible, ensuring that it is not misinterpreted, while applying it to our lives in pursuit of a more meaningful and beneficial moral and spiritual life.

Here are some biblical passages related to the topic of an unabsolved God in the Bible:

2 Timothy 3:16 - This is the revelatory verse of the Bible, which says, "Everything that is inspired in Scripture is inspired by God, and is used to teach, to condemn, to righteousness, to teach righteousness, to prepare God's man for every good deed." "

John 1:1-4 - This is the verse about the Word of Jesus Christ as God, which says, "In the beginning there was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God." This way was with God in the beginning. All things were made through Him; There is nothing that is created that is not made through Him. Life is in him, and this life is the light of man. "

Isaiah 40:8 - This passage emphasizes the eternal nature of God's Word, saying, "The grass will dry and the flower will wither; But our God's Word will be established forever. "

Hebrews 4:12 - This chapter mentions the power of God's Word when it says, "The Word of God is alive and effective, faster than all two-edged swords, and even soul and spirit, bone and marrow, can pierce and judge the thoughts and thoughts of the heart." "

Psalms 119:105 - This is the verse about how God's Word illuminates our lives, it says, "Your Word is the lamp before my feet and the light in my way." "

These verses emphasize how God's Word contained in the Bible reveals God's will, teaches, provides wisdom and moral principles, and illuminates the way in our lives. The irrevocable Word of God reminds us to respect and understand the Bible in order to better draw closer to God's will and follow its guidance.

Together we pray:

Dear God, we are gathered here before you to pray to you. Come upon each of us Christians and give us the strength, wisdom, and courage to do your will.

Please guide us in our steps and let us reflect your love and grace in every area of our lives. In our faith, family, work, and community, let your light shine on us and let us be a witness of your love.

Strengthen those Christians in distress and make them feel comforted and comforted by you. Pray for those persecuted for their faith, protect and give them strong faith and courage.

God, please bless our churches and church leaders with your wisdom and grace in teaching and guiding us. Let the church be a channel of your love, and let our unity and care show your great love.

Finally, please lead us to peace and reconciliation and let us build genuine friendship and mutual understanding among ourselves. May your hand of peace cover the whole world and let your love be a bond of human solidarity.

God, hear our prayers and may your will be fulfilled in our lives. In the name of Jesus Christ, Amen.

Deuteronomy chapter 4

De. 4:1 Hear now, O Israel, the decrees and laws I am about to teach you. Follow them so that you may live and may go in and take possession of the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, is giving you.

De. 4:2 Do not add to what I command you and do not subtract from it, but keep the commands of the LORD your God that I give you.

De. 4:3 You saw with your own eyes what the LORD did at Baal Peor. The LORD your God destroyed from among you everyone who followed the Baal of Peor,

De. 4:4 but all of you who held fast to the LORD your God are still alive today.

De. 4:5 See, I have taught you decrees and laws as the LORD my God commanded me, so that you may follow them in the land you are entering to take possession of it.

De. 4:6 Observe them carefully, for this will show your wisdom and understanding to the nations, who will hear about all these decrees and say, “Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.”

De. 4:7 What other nation is so great as to have their gods near them the way the LORD our God is near us whenever we pray to him?

De. 4:8 And what other nation is so great as to have such righteous decrees and laws as this body of laws I am setting before you today?

De. 4:9 Only be careful, and watch yourselves closely so that you do not forget the things your eyes have seen or let them slip from your heart as long as you live. Teach them to your children and to their children after them.

De. 4:10 Remember the day you stood before the LORD your God at

Horeb, when he said to me, “Assemble the people before me

429 to hear my words so that they may learn to revere me as long as they live in the land and may teach them to their children.” De. 4:11 You came near and stood at the foot of the mountain while it blazed with fire to the very heavens, with black clouds and deep darkness.

De. 4:12 Then the LORD spoke to you out of the fire. You heard the sound of words but saw no form; there was only a voice. De. 4:13 He declared to you his covenant, the Ten Commandments, which he commanded you to follow and then wrote them on two stone tablets.

De. 4:14 And the LORD directed me at that time to teach you the decrees and laws you are to follow in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess.

De. 4:15 You saw no form of any kind the day the LORD spoke to you at Horeb out of the fire. Therefore watch yourselves very carefully,

De. 4:16 so that you do not become corrupt and make for yourselves an idol, an image of any shape, whether formed like a man or a woman,

De. 4:17 or like any animal on earth or any bird that flies in the air, De. 4:18 or like any creature that moves along the ground or any fish in the waters below.

De. 4:19 And when you look up to the sky and see the sun, the moon and the stars — all the heavenly array — do not be enticed into bowing down to them and worshipping things the LORD your God has apportioned to all the nations under heaven. De. 4:20 But as for you, the LORD took you and brought you out of the iron-smelting furnace, out of Egypt, to be the people of his inheritance, as you now are.

De. 4:21 The LORD was angry with me because of you, and he solemnly swore that I would not cross the Jordan and enter the good land the LORD your God is giving you as your inheritance.

De. 4:22 I will die in this land; I will not cross the Jordan; but you are about to cross over and take possession of that good land. De. 4:23 Be careful not to forget the covenant of the LORD your God that he made with you; do not make for yourselves an idol in the form of anything the LORD your God has forbidden. De. 4:24 For the LORD your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God. De. 4:25 After you have had children and grandchildren and have lived in the land a long time — if you then become corrupt and make any kind of idol, doing evil in the eyes of the LORD your God and provoking him to anger,

De. 4:26 I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you this day that you will quickly perish from the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess. You will not live there long but will certainly be destroyed.

De. 4:27 The LORD will scatter you among the peoples, and only a few of you will survive among the nations to which the LORD will drive you.

De. 4:28 There you will worship man-made gods of wood and stone, which cannot see or hear or eat or smell.

De. 4:29 But if from there you seek the LORD your God, you will find him if you look for him with all your heart and with all your soul.

De. 4:30 When you are in distress and all these things have happened to you, then in later days you will return to the LORD your God and obey him.

De. 4:31 For the LORD your God is a merciful God; he will not abandon or destroy you or forget the covenant with your forefathers, which he confirmed to them by oath.

De. 4:32 Ask now about the former days, long before your time, from the day God created man on the earth; ask from one end of the heavens to the other. Has anything so great as this ever happened, or has anything like it ever been heard of?

De. 4:33 Has any other people heard the voice of God speaking out of fire, as you have, and lived?

De. 4:34 Has any god ever tried to take for himself one nation out of another nation, by testings, by miraculous signs and wonders, by war, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, or by great and awesome deeds, like all the things the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your very eyes?

De. 4:35 You were shown these things so that you might know that the LORD is God; besides him there is no other.

De. 4:36 From heaven he made you hear his voice to discipline you. On earth he showed you his great fire, and you heard his words from out of the fire.

De. 4:37 Because he loved your forefathers and chose their descendants after them, he brought you out of Egypt by his

Presence and his great strength,

De. 4:38 to drive out before you nations greater and stronger than you and to bring you into their land to give it to you for your inheritance, as it is today.

De. 4:39 Acknowledge and take to heart this day that the LORD is God in heaven above and on the earth below. There is no other.

De. 4:40 Keep his decrees and commands, which I am giving you today, so that it may go well with you and your children after you and that you may live long in the land the LORD your God gives you for all time.

De. 4:41 Then Moses set aside three cities east of the Jordan, De. 4:42 to which anyone who had killed a person could flee if he had unintentionally killed his neighbour without malice aforethought. He could flee into one of these cities and save his life.

De. 4:43 The cities were these: Bezer in the desert plateau, for the Reubenites; Ramoth in Gilead, for the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, for the Manassites.

De. 4:44 This is the law Moses set before the Israelites.

De. 4:45 These are the stipulations, decrees and laws Moses gave them when they came out of Egypt

De. 4:46 and were in the valley near Beth Peor east of the Jordan, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon and was defeated by Moses and the Israelites as they came out of Egypt.

De. 4:47 They took possession of his land and the land of Og king of Bashan, the two Amorite kings east of the Jordan.

De. 4:48 This land extended from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Gorge to Mount Siyon (that is, Hermon),

De. 4:49 and included all the Arabah east of the Jordan, as far as the Sea of the Arabah, below the slopes of Pisgah.

Chapter 4 begins with Moses urging the Israelites to obey God's commands, reminding them of the covenant that God had made with their ancestors at Mount Sinai. He warns them not to forget the lessons they had learned during their journey through the wilderness, and not to worship other gods or idols.

Moses reminds the Israelites that God had shown them signs and wonders, such as the plagues in Egypt, the parting of the Red Sea, and the provision of manna in the wilderness, to demonstrate his power and faithfulness. He emphasizes that the Israelites had been chosen by God and had a special relationship with him.

Moses also warns the Israelites of the consequences of disobedience, such as being scattered among the nations, losing their land, and being subjected to oppression and hardship. He encourages them to keep God's laws and statutes, which he has taught them, so that they may live long and prosper in the land of Canaan.

Furthermore, Moses explains the importance of passing down the knowledge of God's commands and statutes to future generations, so that they too may obey and prosper. He instructs the Israelites to teach their children and grandchildren about God's faithfulness and to tell them of the covenant at Mount Sinai.

Overall, Chapter 4 emphasizes the importance of obedience to God's commands and the need for the Israelites to remember their covenant with God. Moses urges the Israelites to pass down their knowledge of God's laws and statutes to future generations, so that they may continue to live in obedience to God and enjoy his blessings.

Here are some key verses from Chapter 4 of the Book of Deuteronomy in the Christian Bible:

1. "Now, Israel, hear the decrees and laws I am about to teach you. Follow them so that you may live and may go in and take possession of the land the Lord, the God of your ancestors, is giving you." (Deuteronomy 4:1)
2. "But be very careful to keep the commandment and the law that Moses the servant of the Lord gave you: to love the Lord your God, to walk in obedience to him, to keep his commands, to hold fast to him and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul." (Deuteronomy 4:6)
3. "See, I have taught you decrees and laws as the Lord my God commanded me, so that you may follow them in the land you are entering to take possession of it." (Deuteronomy 4:5)
4. "For the Lord your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God." (Deuteronomy 4:24) These verses emphasize the importance of obedience to God's commands and the role of Moses in teaching the Israelites God's laws. The verses also highlight the need to love and serve God with all their hearts and souls. Finally, the last verse emphasizes God's jealousy and the need for the Israelites to honor Him alone.
