

No copyright materials are used in this text
The summary and interpretation of the specific chapter and verses are from the Bible, they are religious text that is in the public domain.

Free to Copy and Distribute: Spread the Word!

(Peter Lok) 駱沅祺

lokpeter@outlook.com

Daily Rice 2023 October 5

YouTube Prayer Link

"God's Blessing"

God plays a vital role in this world. God is considered the creator, guardian, and guide of the universe. God's Word and God's blessings are the things that believers hold most dear, and they represent spiritual power and divine wisdom.

God's Word refers to the way God communicates with humanity through scripture, doctrine, revelation, or prayer. Different religions have different scriptures and sacred texts that convey God's will, teachings, and stories. These words, which are seen as guidelines for guiding people's lives, encourage believers to pursue wisdom, love, and moral values in order to live better in this world.

God's blessing is an expression of God's mercy and concern for humanity. Believers believe that God's blessings can bring peace, happiness, and prosperity. These blessings may take the form of material things, such as health, wealth, and success, or in spiritual form, such as inner peace, love, and harmonious relationships. In either form, God's blessing is seen as a reward, a response to faithfulness and piety in believers.

However, God's Word and God's blessings are not always easy to understand or receive. Believers often need to seek God's guidance and blessings through prayer, meditation, and study. Sometimes, people may face difficulties, setbacks, or suffering, at which point they may question God's intentions or feel alienated from God. However, faith teaches people to firmly believe that God's Word and God's blessings exist no matter what is experienced, and only need to be sought in faith and piety.

In short, God's Word and God's blessings are vital elements of religious life, providing direction, meaning, and hope. Believers believe that God's Word and God's blessings will lead them to more meaningful and fulfilling lives. It is an ongoing process that requires faith, devotion, and spiritual growth, but it also provides people with a deep sense of spiritual satisfaction and intimacy with God.

Christianity is one of the most widely spread religions in the world, and believers believe that God's Word and blessings play a vital role in their lives. From a Christian perspective, God's Word is God's way of communicating with humanity through the revelation of the Bible and the Holy Spirit.

First, the Bible is considered the Word of God and contains both the Old and New Testaments. The Old Testament records the history of God and the Israelites, including the creation of the universe, legislation, and the words of the prophets. The New Testament records the life, teaching, and redemptive work of Jesus Christ, as well as the teachings and experiences of the early Christians. For Christians, the Bible is a moral, spiritual, and doctrinal guide that contains God's teachings, commandments, and promises to help people understand God's nature and His plans for humanity.

Christians believe in the revelation of the Holy Spirit, which is God's way of communicating with individual souls through inner perception, prayer, and inspiration. The Holy Spirit is considered the manifestation of God's presence within believers, leading them to the truth, understanding the deep meaning of the Bible, and guiding their decision-making in their daily lives. This revelation is seen as a continuation of God's Word, enabling Christians to have a closer relationship with God and find direction in their journey of faith.

In addition, God's blessings also play an important role in Christianity. Christianity teaches that God is a merciful and loving Father who is willing to grant grace, peace, and joy to believers. God's blessings can manifest themselves in a variety of forms, including physical, spiritual, and emotional. Believers believe that God will bless their lives as they live out their faith, obey God's Word, and rely on His grace. This blessing is not only about individuals, but also about communities and churches.

However, in the face of difficulties, pain, and trials, Christians also believe in God's blessings to help them endure and find a way out, because faith is built on hope. This hope stems from trusting God in recognizing that His plans are well-meaning and perfect, even if one cannot fully understand them.

From a Christian perspective, God's Word and God's blessings are an important part of faith. The Bible and the revelation of the Holy Spirit provide moral and spiritual guidance to help Christians know God's heart. God's blessing, on the other hand, is His response to loyalty, encouragement and comfort in the journey of faith, manifested in all aspects of life, allowing people to grow in faith and build a deeper connection with God. It is the pillar of faith for Christians that infuses meaning and purpose into their lives.

On God's Word:

2 Timothy 3:16-17 (New Testament): "The Bible is inspired by God and is useful for teaching, rebuke, conversion, and doctrine, so that the man of God may be perfected and prepared for every good deed." "

John 1:1 (New Testament): "In the beginning there was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God." "

These verses emphasize the importance of the Bible as the Word of God and state that the purpose of the Bible is to teach, correct, cultivate, and perfect believers.

On God's blessings:

Ephesians 1:3 (New Testament): "The Father of our Lord Jesus Christ went to heaven in Christ to bless us and give us every spiritual blessing. "

Psalms 23:1 (Old Testament): "The Lord is my Shepherd, and I will not be lacking." "

These verses emphasize the blessed nature of God, who is a source of mercy and willing to bless His people and provide spiritual and material blessings.

We pray together

Dear Heavenly Father, we humbly come to you to pray for Christians. Thank you for giving them your Bible, which is your Word and the cornerstone of their faith. Keep teaching them so that they can deeply understand and apply the teachings of the Bible in order to find direction, morality, and wisdom in their daily lives.

Lord, continue to bless them with spiritual and material blessings according to their needs and your will. May your mercy and grace fill their lives and let them experience your peace, joy and love.

In the face of life's challenges and trials, please give them perseverance and confidence so that they can hold fast to their faith, know that you are with them, and guide them through difficult times.

Lord, please also keep them and protect them from evil, so that their testimony can illuminate the world and make more people know your love and salvation.

Finally, we thank you for your love and care, and please continue to guide and bless every Christian as they grow stronger in their faith and closer to you. Pray in the name of the Lord Jesus, Amen.

CHAPTER 23

Nu. 23:1 Balaam said, "Build me seven altars here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me."

Nu. 23:2 Balak did as Balaam said, and the two of them offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Nu. 23:3 Then Balaam said to Balak, “Stay here beside your offering while I go aside. Perhaps the LORD will come to meet with me. Whatever he reveals to me I will tell you.” Then he went off to a barren height.

Nu. 23:4 God met with him, and Balaam said, “I have prepared seven altars, and on each altar I have offered a bull and a ram.”

Nu. 23:5 The LORD put a message in Balaam’s mouth and said, “Go back to Balak and give him this message.”

Nu. 23:6 So he went back to him and found him standing beside his offering, with all the princes of Moab.

Nu. 23:7 Then Balaam uttered his oracle: “Balak brought me from Aram, the king of Moab from the eastern mountains. ‘Come,’ he said, ‘curse Jacob for me; come, denounce Israel.’

Nu. 23:8 How can I curse those whom God has not cursed? How can I denounce those whom the LORD has not denounced?

Nu. 23:9 From the rocky peaks I see them, from the heights I view them. I see people who live apart and do not consider themselves one of the nations.

Nu. 23:10 Who can count the dust of Jacob or number the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and may my end be like theirs!”

Nu. 23:11 Balak said to Balaam, “What have you done to me? I brought you to curse my enemies, but you have done nothing but bless them!”

Nu. 23:12 He answered, “Must I not speak what the LORD puts in my mouth?”

Nu. 23:13 Then Balak said to him, “Come with me to another place where you can see them; you will see only a part but not all of them. And from there, curse them for me.”

Nu. 23:14 So he took him to the field of Zophim on the top of Pisgah, and there he built seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Nu. 23:15 Balaam said to Balak, “Stay here beside your offering while I meet with him over there.”

Nu. 23:16 The LORD met with Balaam and put a message in his mouth and said, “Go back to Balak and give him this message.”

Nu. 23:17 So he went to him and found him standing beside his offering, with the princes of Moab. Balak asked him, “What did the LORD say?”

Nu. 23:18 Then he uttered his oracle: “Arise, Balak, and listen; hear me, son of Zippor.

Nu. 23:19 God is not a man, that he should lie, nor a son of man, that he should change his mind. Does he speak and then not act?

Does he promise and not fulfil?

Nu. 23:20 I have received a command to bless; he has blessed, and I cannot change it.

Nu. 23:21 “No misfortune is seen in Jacob, no misery observed in Israel. [Or He has not looked on Jacob’s offences or on the wrongs found in Israel.] The LORD their God is with them; the shout of the King is among them.

Nu. 23:22 God brought them out of Egypt; they have the strength of a wild ox.

Nu. 23:23 There is no sorcery against Jacob, no divination against Israel. It will now be said of Jacob and of Israel, ‘See what God has done!’

Nu. 23:24 The people rise like a lioness; they rouse themselves like a lion that does not rest till he devours his prey and drinks the blood of his victims.”

Nu. 23:25 Then Balak said to Balaam, “Neither curse them at all nor bless them at all!”

Nu. 23:26 Balaam answered, “Did I not tell you I must do whatever the LORD says?”

Nu. 23:27 Then Balak said to Balaam, “Come, let me take you to another place. Perhaps it will please God to let you curse them for me from there.”

Nu. 23:28 And Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, overlooking the wasteland.

Nu. 23:29 Balaam said, “Build me seven altars here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me.”

Nu. 23:30 Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Chapter 23 of the Book of Numbers in the Christian Bible continues the story of Balaam and Balak. Balak takes Balaam to three different locations from which he can view the Israelites, and three times Balaam attempts to curse them, but each time he is unable to do so and ends up blessing them instead.

Balaam emphasizes that he can only speak what God puts in his mouth, and that God has not cursed Israel because they are a people whom God has chosen and blessed. He proclaims that Israel is like a lion, strong and unconquerable, and that those who bless them will be blessed, while those who curse them will be cursed.

Balak becomes frustrated with Balaam's inability to curse Israel, but Balaam insists that he cannot go against the word of the Lord. The chapter ends with Balak and Balaam parting ways, with Balaam returning home and Balak returning to his own kingdom.

The chapter emphasizes the power and sovereignty of God over all nations and peoples, and the importance of trusting in God's blessings and protection. It also highlights the folly of attempting to curse those whom God has chosen and blessed.

Here are some of the key verses from chapter 23 of the Book of Numbers in the Christian Bible:

- "Balaam said, 'Build me seven altars here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me.'" - Numbers 23:1
- "Then the Lord put a word in Balaam's mouth and said, 'Return to Balak and give him this word.'" - Numbers 23:5
- "God is not human, that he should lie, not a human being, that he should change his mind. Does he speak and then not act? Does he promise and not fulfill?" - Numbers 23:19

Chapter 23 continues the story of Balaam and Balak, with Balaam blessing the Israelites instead of cursing them as Balak had hoped. In this chapter, Balaam speaks several blessings that God has given him for the Israelites, including the well-known verse about God's faithfulness and truthfulness in keeping his promises.

I hope this helps! Let me know if you have any other questions.

Chapter 23 of the Book of Numbers continues the story of Balak and Balaam as they attempt to curse the Israelites. However, instead of curses, Balaam pronounces blessings upon Israel. Here's a reflection on some key themes and lessons from Numbers 23:

God's Unchanging Promises: Despite Balak's repeated attempts to convince Balaam to curse the Israelites, God remains faithful to His chosen people. Balaam, moved by the Spirit of God, blesses Israel instead of cursing them.

Reflection: This chapter highlights God's unchanging promises and His faithfulness to His people. It reminds us that God's plans and blessings cannot be thwarted by human schemes or opposition. We can trust in His faithfulness and rely on His promises, knowing that He will always be true to His word.

The Power of God's Blessing: Balaam's attempts to curse the Israelites are turned into blessings. His words carry divine authority and power, as he speaks what God has put in his mouth.

Reflection: This chapter demonstrates the power of God's blessing. It teaches us that when God blesses His people, no one can reverse or nullify His blessings. His blessings bring favor, protection, and prosperity. It reminds us of the importance of seeking God's blessings and living in alignment with His will.

The Inability to Curse God's Chosen: Balak, frustrated by Balaam's blessings upon Israel, realizes that it is impossible to curse a people whom God has blessed. He recognizes the strength and favor that the Israelites possess.

Reflection: This chapter underscores the truth that those whom God has chosen and blessed are protected from curses and harm. It teaches us that when we are aligned with God and walk in obedience to Him, no weapon formed against us will prevail. We can find confidence and security in God's favor and protection.

God's Purpose for His People: Balaam's blessings upon Israel reveal God's purpose and destiny for His chosen nation. The blessings emphasize their numbers, strength, and ultimate victory over their enemies.

Reflection: This chapter reminds us that God has a purpose and destiny for His people. It encourages us to embrace our identity as God's chosen ones and to live in accordance with His plans for our lives. By aligning ourselves with His purposes, we can experience His blessings and fulfill our calling.

Overall, Numbers 23 addresses themes of God's unchanging promises, the power of His blessing, the inability to curse those whom God has chosen, and God's purpose for His people. By reflecting on these themes, we can trust in God's faithfulness, seek His blessings, find security in His protection, and live in alignment with His purpose for our lives..