

No copyright materials are used in this text
The summary and interpretation of the specific chapter and verses are from the Bible, they are religious text that is in the public domain.

Free to Copy and Distribute: Spread the Word!

(Peter Lok) 駱沅祺

lokpeter@outlook.com

Daily Rice 2023 October 6

YouTube Prayer Link

God's plan is beyond man's plan

Throughout human history, we have constantly made plans, set goals, and pursued success and happiness. We weave a blueprint for the future and work hard, but sometimes, our plans don't work out as we want. It is in these moments that we have to admit that God's plan is far more miraculous, more complex, and more than we can imagine.

Human plans are often based on our limited knowledge and abilities, and God's plans are derived from the wisdom and power of the universe. We often overlook the complexity and depth of the natural world, forgetting that we are only a tiny part of this vast universe. However, when our plans fail or we face setbacks, we begin to reflect and rethink our roles.

We may feel hopeless in the face of setbacks and difficulties, but it is also a time of encounter with God's plan. These difficulties can be seen as an opportunity to re-examine our goals and values. We may find that while our plan has failed, God's plan may be pushing us toward a larger purpose, toward a more meaningful life.

God's plan is also often expressed through relationships. We may meet unexpected people in our lives who can have a profound impact on our lives. These encounters and fellowships may not be accidental, but part of God's plan to bring us growth and inspiration.

In addition, God's plan transcends our timeline. We may expect to achieve certain goals in a short period of time, but God's plan may take longer to unfold. This patience and persistence can make us cherish our moments of success more and better understand the true meaning of life.

In short, God's plan transcends man's plan because it derives from the wisdom and power of the universe, taking into account a broader perspective, a longer-term timeline, and a deeper purpose. When our plans fail, don't lose faith, but believe that God's plan may be leading us to a better future. We should accept life's challenges with humility, because they may be God's way of shaping us to be better people.

God's plan is beyond man's plan: this topic is not expressed in this language in a specific verse in the Bible. However, the Bible contains many verses that emphasize God's wisdom, God's plan, and His ways above man's thoughts and ways. Here are some relevant verses:

Isaiah 55:8-9:

The Lord said, 'My thoughts are not your thoughts, and my ways are not your ways.' As the heavens are higher than the earth, so my way is higher than your way, and my mind is higher than your thoughts. 』 "

Proverbs 3:5-6:

"Rely on the Lord with all your heart, not in your own wisdom, but identify him in all that you do, and he will show you the way. "

Ephesians 1:11:

"According to the plan and decision of the One who does all according to his will, his predetermined will,"

These verses emphasize that God's plan and wisdom are above the plan of mankind. Although the Bible does not explicitly mention the phrase "God's plan is beyond man's plan," the teachings in the Bible often emphasize trusting God, seeking His wisdom, and believing that His ways are superior to our own. These verses can help us understand the spiritual connotations of the subject.

For Christians, the theme of "God's plan is beyond man's plan" in the faith has profound implications that can lead them to have specific reactions and attitudes in their actions and decisions in life:

Trust in God's Wisdom and Plan: Christians are encouraged to trust God's wisdom and plan and to know the best way and timing. They should seek God's guidance in decision-making and facing challenges, rather than relying solely on their own wisdom.

Humility and Obedience: Christians should remain humble, acknowledge their limitations and limitations, and be willing to submit to God's will. This means that in planning and decision-making, they are willing to put aside their selfishness and arrogance and accept God's guidance.

Perseverance and Faith: When setbacks and difficulties arise in life, Christians should remain stoic and confident that God's plan is underway, even if they cannot see immediate results. They are to trust that God always works for ultimate good.

Prayer and Devotional: Christians should develop a deeper connection with God through prayer and devotional, seeking His wisdom and revelation. This helps them better understand God's plan and accept His guidance.

Caring for others: Christian doctrine encourages Christians to care for and help others, so they should consider the needs and well-being of others when pursuing their plans. God's plan usually includes love and service to society.

Thanksgiving and Praise: Christians should be thankful and praise God no matter what happens in life. This attitude of gratitude helps them maintain their confidence to see God's blessings and grace even in difficult times.

In short, the Christian response should be trust, humility, perseverance, concern for others, thanksgiving, and praise. They believe that God's plan is beyond man's plan, so they seek to live in God's will, work for God's glory, and believe that God always works for ultimate goodwill.

We pray together:

Dear Heavenly Father, we thank You for your wisdom and Your infinite love. Today, we pray to You because we know Your plan goes beyond ours. At many moments in our lives, we can feel confused, helpless, and even disoriented. But we believe Your way is right and Your plan is perfect.

Lord, we ask for Your wisdom to help us understand Your will and guide us in our lives. Please give us perseverance and confidence so that we can count on Your strength in the face of setbacks and difficulties.

Help us to keep a grateful heart and see Your blessings and grace no matter what situation we face. Help us to understand that Your plans may be beyond our comprehension, but You always work for our ultimate good.

Lord, we surrender everything to You and may You demonstrate Your will in our lives. May we obey Your guidance at all times and live for Your glory.

We thank You for hearing our prayers, in the name of Jesus Christ, Amen.

CHAPTER 24

Nu. 24:1 Now when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he did not resort to sorcery as at other times, but turned his face towards the desert.

Nu. 24:2 When Balaam looked out and saw Israel encamped tribe by tribe, the Spirit of God came upon him

Nu. 24:3 and he uttered his oracle: "The oracle of Balaam son of Beor, the oracle of one whose eye sees clearly,

Nu. 24:4 the oracle of one who hears the words of God, who sees a vision from the Almighty, [Hebrew Shaddai; also in verse 16] who falls prostrate, and whose eyes are opened:

Nu. 24:5 “How beautiful are your tents, O Jacob, your dwellingplaces, O Israel!

Nu. 24:6 “Like valleys they spread out, like gardens beside a river, like aloes planted by the LORD, like cedars beside the waters.

Nu. 24:7 Water will flow from their buckets; their seed will have abundant water. “Their king will be greater than Agag; their kingdom will be exalted.

Nu. 24:8 “God brought them out of Egypt; they have the strength of a wild ox. They devour hostile nations and break their bones in pieces; with their arrows they pierce them.

Nu. 24:9 Like a lion they crouch and lie down, like a lioness — who dares to rouse them? “May those who bless you be blessed and those who curse you be cursed!”

Nu. 24:10 Then Balak’s anger burned against Balaam. He struck his hands together and said to him, “I summoned you to curse my enemies, but you have blessed them these three times.

Nu. 24:11 Now leave at once and go home! I said I would reward you handsomely, but the LORD has kept you from being rewarded.”

Nu. 24:12 Balaam answered Balak, “Did I not tell the messengers you sent me,

Nu. 24:13 ‘Even if Balak gave me his palace filled with silver and gold, I could not do anything of my own accord, good or bad, to go beyond the command of the LORD — and I must say only what the LORD says’?

Nu. 24:14 Now I am going back to my people, but come, let me warn you of what this people will do to your people in days to come.”

Nu. 24:15 Then he uttered his oracle: “The oracle of Balaam son of Beor, the oracle of one whose eye sees clearly,

Nu. 24:16 the oracle of one who hears the words of God, who has knowledge from the Most High, who sees a vision from the Almighty, who falls prostrate, and whose eyes are opened:

Nu. 24:17 “I see him, but not now; I behold him, but not near. A star will come out of Jacob; a sceptre will rise out of Israel. He will crush the foreheads of Moab, the skulls [Samaritan Pentateuch (see also Jer. 48:45); the meaning of the word in the Masoretic Text is uncertain.] of [Or possibly Moab, batter] all the sons of Sheth. [Or all the noisy boasters]

Nu. 24:18 Edom will be conquered; Seir, his enemy, will be conquered, but Israel will grow strong.

Nu. 24:19 A ruler will come out of Jacob and destroy the survivors of the city.”

Nu. 24:20 Then Balaam saw Amalek and uttered his oracle: “Amalek was first among the nations, but he will come to ruin at last.”

Nu. 24:21 Then he saw the Kenites and uttered his oracle: “Your dwelling-place is secure, your nest is set in a rock;

Nu. 24:22 yet you Kenites will be destroyed when Asshur takes you captive.”

Nu. 24:23 Then he uttered his oracle: “Ah, who can live when God does this? [Masoretic Text; with a different word division of the Hebrew A people will gather from the north.]

Nu. 24:24 Ships will come from the shores of Kittim; they will subdue Asshur and Eber, but they too will come to ruin.”

Nu. 24:25 Then Balaam got up and returned home and Balak went his own way.

Chapter 24 of the book of Numbers continues the story of Balaam, a diviner hired by Balak, the king of Moab, to curse the Israelites. In this chapter, Balaam blesses the Israelites three times instead of cursing them as Balak requested. Balaam also prophesies about a future ruler who will come from the Israelites and conquer Moab. Balak is angry with Balaam's blessings and sends him away without payment.

Here are some of the key verses from chapter 24 of the Book of Numbers in the Christian Bible:

- "When Balaam saw that it pleased the Lord to bless Israel, he did not resort to divination as at other times, but turned his face toward the wilderness." - Numbers 24:1
- "How beautiful are your tents, Jacob, your dwelling places, Israel!" - Numbers 24:5
- "May those who bless you be blessed and those who curse you be cursed!" - Numbers 24:9

Chapter 24 is the final chapter in the story of Balaam and Balak. In this chapter, Balaam blesses the Israelites for a third time, speaking a prophecy that foreshadows the coming of a great king from Israel. The chapter ends with Balaam returning home and Balak returning to his own land.

Chapter 24 of the Book of Numbers continues the story of Balak and Balaam as Balaam delivers a series of blessings upon Israel. Here's a reflection on some key themes and lessons from Numbers 24:

God's Sovereign Control: Throughout the chapter, Balaam recognizes and declares that he can only speak what God puts in his mouth. He acknowledges God's sovereignty and control over his words and actions.

Reflection: This chapter reminds us of God's ultimate sovereignty and control over all things. It prompts us to surrender our own desires and plans to God, acknowledging that He has the final say in our lives. By trusting in His wisdom and submitting to His guidance, we can experience His perfect will and purpose.

Blessings and Prophetic Words: Balaam's blessings upon Israel are filled with prophetic significance. He speaks of Israel's strength, prosperity, and victory over their enemies.

Reflection: This chapter highlights the power and impact of blessings and prophetic words. It emphasizes the importance of speaking blessings over others and prophesying in accordance with God's will. By speaking words of encouragement, hope, and God's truth, we can uplift and inspire others, aligning them with God's purposes for their lives.

Israel's Unique Relationship with God: Balaam acknowledges Israel's unique relationship with God, describing them as a people blessed by the Lord and set apart from other nations.

Reflection: This chapter reminds us of the unique relationship we have with God as His chosen people. It encourages us to embrace our identity as God's children and live in a manner that reflects His character. By recognizing our distinct calling and living in obedience to God, we can be a light to the world and experience His blessings.

The Fulfillment of God's Promises: Balaam's blessings allude to the fulfillment of God's promises to Israel. He speaks of a future King who will arise from Israel and bring ultimate victory.

Reflection: This chapter points to the fulfillment of God's promises through the coming of Jesus Christ, the King who would bring salvation and victory for all. It reassures us that God is faithful to His promises and reminds us of the hope we have in Christ. By trusting in His promises, we can find assurance and confidence in His plan for our lives.

Overall, Numbers 24 addresses themes of God's sovereignty, the power of blessings and prophetic words, Israel's unique relationship with God, and the fulfillment of God's promises. By reflecting on these themes, we can surrender to God's sovereignty, speak life-giving words to others, embrace our identity as His chosen people, and find hope in the fulfillment of His promises through Jesus Christ..