New year, new sight

The ringing of the New Year's bell brings new hopes and opportunities, let us join hands to welcome the new year and create a new scene:

In this dawn of the new year, let us be grateful and cherish every beautiful moment. Like a picture scroll unfolding, a new scene unfolds in front of us. Let us use courage and wisdom to write our own stories, and paint a harmonious picture with love and kindness.

Let the new year be a time for us to embrace change and meet challenges. Let us face the unknown future with courage, trust in our own strength, and trust in God's grace. Whether it is the ups and downs of life, or the ups and downs of challenges, we can draw strength from it, grow and move forward.

Let the new year be full of hopes and dreams, and let us pursue lofty goals with faith in our hearts. In this new year full of infinite possibilities, let's bravely explore the unknown, challenge our limits, and realize our dreams.

In the new year, let us unite as one to create a better tomorrow together. Whether it is in the family, work or community, let us support each other with love and care, work together with wisdom and courage, let us work together, grow together, and share the beautiful scenery brought by the New Year.

There are a few verses in the Bible that can provide encouragement and guidance in the new year:

Proverbs 16:9: "A man counts his own paths, but the Lord directs his steps." This verse reminds us to trust in God's guidance in the new year and let Him guide our steps.

Psalms 90:12: "Teach us how to number our days, that we may gain a heart of wisdom." This is a psalm that makes us reflect on the transience and preciousness of life, and in the new year, we should cherish the time and ask God to give wisdom to guide our lives.

Isaiah 43:19: "Behold, I am going to do a new thing, and now I will find out, do you not know that I will make roads in the wilderness and rivers in the desert." This is the scripture that God has promised to do new things for His people, reminding us to trust in God's promises in the new year and expect new blessings and grace from Him.

As we approach the New Year, we can express our blessings and prayers through the passages of the Psalms:

The spring breeze welcomes the new year, and the blessing door is really happy.

Every household puts up a lantern knot, and the reunion is happy.

The years change affection is long, and the heart is grateful for the early sun.

Pray for blessings and wishes for a year of joy.

May auspiciousness accompany you like a shadow, and happiness accompanies your heart.

The Spring Festival is warm, and I wish you and me a long time.

I wish you all the best in the new year, health, happiness and well-being. Happy New Year to you!

Let's pray together:

Heavenly Father, thank You for giving us a new year, new opportunities, and new beginnings. We humbly pray before You that in this new year, You will give us wisdom and courage to pursue truth, goodness, and righteousness. Ask You to guide us in our steps, guide us on the path of righteousness, and let our lives glorify Your name.

Grant us healthy bodies, clear minds, and steadfast faith so that we can face new challenges and difficulties. In all difficult times, please give us the strength to learn to wait in faith for Your deliverance and grace.

Preserve our relationships with family, friends, and communities and build harmony, understanding, and love with one another. Let us treat others with love, tolerance and understanding, support each other, and grow together.

Bless this new year and let Your grace and peace fill our lives so that we may be witnesses of Your glory, and may Your will be done in us. In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, Amen.
