

No copyright materials are used in this text
The summary and interpretation of the specific chapter and verses are from the Bible, they are religious text that is in the public domain.

Free to Copy and Distribute: Spread the Word!

(Peter Lok)駱沅祺

lokpeter@outlook.com

Bibleao.com

Daily Rice 2024 April 5

YouTube Prayer Link

Rely on God's Word

2 Kings Chapter 7

It describes the story of how Yahweh delivered the Israelites in the city of Samaria.

It is narrated that Ben-Hadad king of Syria led a large army to besiege the city of Samaria, and the Israelites were trapped in the city, causing famine in the city. At this critical moment, God announced to the king of Israel through the mouth of the prophet Elisha that He would defeat the Syrian army and save the Israelites overnight.

The captain of the gate guard did not believe God's Word, and Elisha prophesied that he would die at the same time the next day. At that time, four hungry men who had grown up in the city were looking for food, and they found the Aramaic camp empty, leaving behind a large amount of belongings and food. The news was passed on to the Israelites, who began to eat, and the news was passed to the city gate guard. Then the people rushed to the gate and squeezed the chief guard to death at the gate, just as Elisha had prophesied.

The battle allowed the Israelites to free themselves from their oppression in Syria and regain their prosperity.

In God's Word, we find the origin and meaning of life. In the depths of the universe, God's Word created everything, transforming disorder into order and darkness into light. From the beginning of Genesis, God's Word was the source of life and the guide for our souls.

When we are lost in a chaotic world, God's Word is our beacon and illuminates our path. It gives us direction, it gives us wisdom, it gives us strength. In God's Word, we find comfort and guidance that enables us to weather life's storms and challenges.

God's Word is the bread of life and the nourishment of our souls. It nourishes our hearts and minds and makes us thrive. When we immerse ourselves in God's Word, our hearts are at peace, and our irritability and distractions gradually dissipate.

Therefore, let us immerse ourselves in God's Word at all times and let it be the foundation and guide of our lives. In God's Word, we find the meaning and value of life, and find inner peace and tranquility. Let us listen to God's Word and let it shape our lives for eternity.

Jehovah's Word is our starting point and guide in our lives. At the beginning of each day, when we listen to His Word, our hearts are at peace and our path is clear.

Jehovah's Word is the bread of our souls and nourishes our souls. It is the cornerstone of our lives and the foundation of our faith. When we use Jehovah's Word as the starting point for our lives, our hearts are strengthened and our actions are upright.

Let's start each day with Jehovah's Word and make it the center of our lives. As we walk with Him, we will be led to the path of life and to experience His abundant grace and love. Therefore, let us always remember and practice Jehovah's Word forever.

There are many passages in the Bible that emphasize relying on God's Word. Here are some examples:

Psalms 119:105: "Your word is a lamp unto my feet, and a light unto my path." This verse expresses God's Word as a guide and guide in our lives.

Proverbs 3:5-6: "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and not in your own understanding, but acknowledge him in all your ways, and he will direct your paths." This passage teaches us to trust God completely, not on our own wisdom.

Isaiah 40:31: "But they that wait on the LORD will regain strength, and they shall rise up like eagles with wings, and they will run and not be weary, and walk without fainting. This verse encourages us to rely on God because He will give us strength and power.

Philippians 4:13, "I can do all things through him who strengthens me. This passage emphasizes the strength we receive in God to enable us to face all the challenges in life.

These verses remind us that when we rely on God's Word, we will find strength, guidance, and comfort because God's Word is an integral part of our lives.

We pray

Dear Heavenly Father,

We come to you and thank you for giving us every day. Today, we ask you to give us a daily basis to rely on you and rely on your Word. Lord, let our faith be strong in you and our hearts be secure in your love.

Help us not to rely on our own wisdom and strength, but to rely entirely on you. Lord, as we face challenges and difficulties, please give us courage and steadfast faith to know that all is possible in you.

Teach us how to rely on your Word and walk your path day after day. Lord, let your Word be a guide and a beacon for our lives, guiding us on the path of truth and life.

Lord, when we feel helpless and lonely, please come and comfort us Yourself and let us feel your presence and love deeply. May your grace and lovingkindness be with us every day and forever.

In the name of Jesus Christ we ask, amen.

2 Kings 7

7:1 And Elishah said, Hear ye unto the words of Jehovah, thus saith Jehovah, Tomorrow about this time a seath-seam of fine flour shall sell for a shekel of silver at the gate of the city of Samaria, and for a shekel of silver for the barley of two seahs.

7:2 And one of the captains of the army who supported the king said to the man of God, Even if Benje and Hohua had opened the windows of heaven, this could not have happened. And Elisha said, Thou shalt see with thy eyes, but thou shalt not eat.

7:3 And there were four very lepers at the gates, and they said to them, Why do we sit here and die?

7:4 If we say, Go into the city. There is a famine in the city, and you will die there. If you sit still here, you will die. Come, let us go and surrender the armies of the Aramans, and if they leave us alive, they will live. if you kill us, you will die.

7:5 And at dusk they arose and went to the camp of the Syrians. When they came to the camp, they saw not a single person there.

7:6 for the armies of the Lord of the Syrians heard the sound of chariots and horses, the voice of the great army. And they said unto him, It must be the kings of Israel who bribed the kings of the Hittites and the kings of the Egyptians against us.

7:7 Therefore at dusk they got up and fled, leaving their tents, horses, and donkeys, and the camp as before, fleeing for their lives.

7:8 And the lepers came to the camp, and went into the tents, and ate and drank, and took out of them silver and gold, and garments, and hid them. Then he went into another tent, and took out of it the goods, and went and hid them.

7:9 At that time, they said that what we had done was not good. Today is a day of good news, and we are silent. But if we wait until dawn, sin will come upon us. Come, let's report to the royal family .

7:10 So they went and called the gatekeepers, and told them, "When we came to the camp of the Syrians, we saw not a man there, nor was there any sound, but horses and asses on a leash, and the tents were as they were."

7:11 And the gatekeepers called all the gatekeepers, and they went in and told the king.

7:12 And the king arose in the night, and said unto his servants, I tell you what the Syrians have done unto us. And they knew that we were hungry, so they left the camp and lay in wait in the fields, saying, When the Israelites go out of the city, we will capture them alive and enter the city.

7:13 And one of his servants said unto the king, Let us not send a spy on us with five of the horses that are left in the city, which are the same as the Israelites left in the city, and are about to be destroyed.

7:14 So he took two chariots and horses, and the king sent after the Arams, saying, Go and spy out.

7:15 So they traced the Jordan River, and when they saw that the roads were full of clothes and utensils that the Syrians had discarded during their hurry, they returned to the king.

7:16 And they went out, and carried out the camp of the Syrians. So a thin asiatic flour sold for a shekel, and a second seam for a shekel of silver, just as Jehohua had said.

7:17 And the captain of the army whom the king had sent to support him was crushed at the gate of the city, and they trampled him down there, and he died, just as the man of God had said when he came to the king.

7:18 The man of God said to the king, "Tomorrow about this time will sell two seashes of barley for silver at the gate of Samaria, and a sear of fine flour for a shekel of silver."

7:19 And the captain said unto the man of God, Even if Benje and Hohwa had opened the windows of heaven, there could be no such thing. And the man of God said, Thou shalt see with thy eyes, but thou shalt not eat.

7:20 Sure enough, it came true to him. for they had trodden him under foot at the gates, and he died.

Chapter 7 describes the story of how Jehovah delivered the Israelites in the city of Samaria.

It is narrated that Ben-Hadad king of Syria led a large army to besiege the city of Samaria, and the Israelites were trapped in the city, causing famine in the city. At this critical moment, God announced to the king of Israel through the mouth of the prophet Elisha that He would defeat the Syrian army and save the Israelites overnight.

The captain of the gate guard did not believe God's Word, and Elisha prophesied that he would die at the same time the next day. At that time, four hungry men who had grown up in the city were looking for food, and they found the Aramaic camp empty, leaving behind a large amount of belongings and food. The news was passed on to the Israelites, who began to eat, and the news was passed to the city gate guard. Then the people rushed to the gate and squeezed the chief guard to death at the gate, just as Elisha had prophesied.

The battle allowed the Israelites to free themselves from their oppression in Syria and regain their prosperity. The story of 2 Kings 7 shows how God intervened in what seemed hopeless and provided for his people in miraculous ways. It also emphasizes the consequences of doubting God's Word and the importance of obeying His prophets.

2 Kings 7 describes how God miraculously delivered the city of Samaria from the siege of the Syrian army. Here are some key scriptures:

Verse 1: Elisha answered and said unto them, Hear the word of the LORD. This is what the LORD says: About this time tomorrow, at the gate of Samaria, the best flour of one sheel will be sold for one shekel, and two shekels of barley for a shekel.

Verse 2: "The king leaned on his officials and said to the man of God, 'Behold, even if the Lord open the floodgates of heaven, can this happen?' You will see with your own eyes," Elisha replied, "but you will not eat it!"

Verse 6: "For the LORD caused the Syrians to hear the sound of chariots, horses, and armies, and to say one to another, Behold, the king of Israel has hired the kings of Hittite and Egypt against us!"

Verse 16: "The people went out and robbed the camp of the Aramans." So, the best flour in one sea was sold for one shackler, and the wheat in both seas sold for one shackler, as Yahwa said.

These verses can be found in 2 Kings 7 of the Christian Bible.

In 2 Kings 7, we come across a remarkable story that highlights God's power, faithfulness, and provision. Here are some thoughts from this chapter:

The Power of God's Word: The terrible situation of Isaac Maria in this chapter begins, due to the long siege of the Aramaic army, which leads to a severe famine. Elisha prophesied that the next day there would be abundant food in the city. This account reminds us of the power of God's Word. Despite seemingly impossible circumstances, God's Word has the power to bring about miraculous changes and the fulfillment of promises.

God's Unexpected Method: In response to the prophecy, four lepers at the gates of the city decided to venture close to the camp of the Syrians. When they arrived, they found the camp empty, as the Lord had let the Aramaeans flee, leaving behind their supplies and provisions. This story highlights God's ability to work in unexpected ways and use unlikely people to accomplish His will. It reminds us that God's methods may be contrary to human understanding, but He is always in control and can bring deliverance and provision in surprising ways.

Consequences of doubt and unbelief: The reluctance of some people in the city to believe the reports of lepers in the Aramian refugee camp with plenty of food has led to dire consequences. This part of the chapter reflects the dangers of doubt and unbelief. When we don't trust God's promises and provisions, we may miss out on the blessings He intends to give us. It encourages us to have faith and trust in God's faithfulness, even when circumstances seem impossible.

Sharing the Good News: When the lepers discovered the abundance of food in the camp in Syria, they shared the good news with the Samaritans. This action highlights the importance of spreading God's message of provision and salvation to others. It reminds us that as we experience God's goodness and blessings, we have a responsibility to share that joy and hope with those around us.

God's Faithfulness and Provision: The chapter ends with the fulfillment of Elisha's prophecy and the Samaritans rushing to the camp in Syria and finding abundant food. This account shows that God's faithfulness and provision were true even in the midst of bad circumstances. It reminds us that even when all hope seems lost, God is able to meet our needs and provide for us.

Overall, 2 Kings 7 reflects on the power of God's Word, His unexpected methods, the consequences of doubt and unbelief, the importance of sharing the good news, and God's faithfulness and provision. These narratives encourage us to trust in God's promises, have faith in His provision, and bring hope and good news to those around us.

times.