1 Chronicles 16:23-36

Sing to Yahweh and the earth will sing! Praise His salvation every day! Speak of his glory among the nations!

Tell his wonders among all the peoples!

For the LORD is great, and deserves great praise; He is above all gods and deserves to be feared.

for the gods of all nations are nothing; But the LORD created the heavens.

There is honor and majesty before him, power and joy in his own place.

O all the nations of the people, give glory and power to Yahweh, and to Yahweh!

And thou shalt give him the glory of the name of the LORD, and offer it before him;

Worship the holy and glorious Jehovah. And the whole earth will tremble before him!

The world is firm and unshakable. May the heavens rejoice, and the earth rejoice!

Let it be said among the nations, "The Lord is king." May the sea and all that is in it!

May the field and all that in it rejoice! Then all the trees of the forest shall shout for joy before the LORD, for he has come to judge the whole earth. Give thanks to the LORD, for he is good.

His mercy endures forever! Say, "O God of our salvation, save us,

Gather us together and deliver us from the nations, that we may glorify your holy name,

To praise you as a boast. Yahweh, the God of Israel, is to be praised,

From eternity to everlasting." And all the people said, "Amen." and praise the LORD.

David's psalms show us that we worship and serve the only true God. We need to know how to give thanks, to cry, to proclaim, to sing, to talk about, to boast in God's name. We need to have faith in God's name and affirm His power to others. We are to seek the face of the Lord with joy, and we are to remember God's marvelous works, to speak of His glory, to praise Him, and to give Him the power of glory.

God chose the Israelites solely on the basis of His sovereignty: the Lord loved you and chose you not because you were more numerous than the other peoples, but because you were the least of all the peoples. because the LORD loved you, and because he kept the oath which he swore unto your fathers" (Deuteronomy 7~8). Thus, God's plan of salvation does not depend on the power, conduct, or piety of the elect, but rather on His "own word, and his own hands" (2 Chronicles 6:15).

God cares for His people immensely. In His care for the Israelites, he showed his infinite love and unfailing concern. If a person turns away from God, he leaves God's protective arm. The woes that would have been avoided will befall him. But not all of humanity's woes are caused by this. Because Satan has permission to persecute the righteous in the great struggle between good and evil, suffering does not necessarily prove forsaken by God.

16:43 "Then all the people returned to their houses, and David returned to bless his family."

We can learn lessons about true family worship from people who return to their families from the pilgrimage. Modern Christians tend to focus too much on the worship life in the church and sometimes neglect the role in the family and society. However, there is no more important and effective way to pass on the true faith to future generations than faith education in the family.

No one has ever been able to completely humble himself before God, completely let go of self-esteem and face, and David's God-centered worship attitude is very worthy of our learning. When we worship God, we magnify the Lord, delight in Him, and center Him throughout our worship.

Although the Bible does not have a very strict form of worship, which gives us a lot of freedom to express our worship to Him according to our own feelings, the most important thing is to remember that the center of worship is God, and worship is to glorify God, and if our worship is not to glorify God, but to glorify ourselves, it will bring a breach to the church. We recognize that many young people today are influenced by the world's trends, and we should pay attention to what can attract people, not necessarily all of them are valuable. Pray that the Lord will help us to worship not to attract crowds, not to catch up with fashion, not to satisfy our own religious emotional needs, but simply to glorify God, and to be an expression of love and gratitude.

We pray together:

Dear Heavenly Father,

May our hearts always be filled with God's positive energy and joy so that we can experience Your love and grace in our lives. Ask You to give us the strength to seek You, to seek Your face, and to walk in Your power at all times. May we be able to walk with You every day and have spiritual peace and joy. Walk us on the path of righteousness and let our lives be a testimony to Your glory. In Jesus' name I pray
amen

1 Chronicles 16

16:1 And they brought in the ark of God, and laid it in the tabernacle that David had erected, and offered burnt offerings and peace offerings in the presence of God.

16:6 The priests Benaiah and Jahath sounded their trumpets before the ark of God's covenant.

16:7 That day David first called Yahweh in a song by Azar and his brethren, saying,

16:8 You shall call Yahweh Hovah, call on his name, and proclaim his deeds among all the people.

16:9 Sing to him and sing praises and speak of all his wonderful deeds.

16:10 to boast with his holy name . Let the hearts of those who seek Yahweh rejoice.

16:11 seek Yahweh and his power . always seek his face.

16:12 Remember his wonderful works, and his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth, O descendants of Jacob, whom he has chosen.

16:13 See section above

16:14 He is the God of Yahweh and China . There is his judgment all over the world.

16:15 Remember his covenant unto eternity, and the word which he commanded unto a thousand generations.

16:16 the covenant with Abraham, the oath to Isaac.

16:17 He also made this covenant a statute to Jacob. to Israel as an eternal covenant,

16:18 And he said, I will give thee the land of Canaan as a portion of thy inheritance.

16:19 At that time you were limited, few in number, and sojourning there.

16:20 They travel from one state to another, from one country to another.

16:21 yes and wah will not allow anyone to deceive them . Prepare kings for their causes,

16:22 Say, "Let not be me who have been anointed for me, nor be evil to my prophets."

16:23 And the whole earth shall sing unto Yahweh, and shall proclaim his salvation daily.

16:24 and he shall tell his glory among the nations, and his wonders among the peoples.

16:25 because ye hehua is great , it deserves great praise . He deserves to be feared among all gods.

16:26 Gentile gods are nothing. But the LORD made the heavens.

16:27 there is honor and majesty in front of him . There is power and joy in his holy place.

16:28 O all the families of the people, give Yahweh and all thy might.

16:29 give him the glory that the name of Jehohua deserves. bring an offering to him . Worship Yahweh with holy ornaments.

16:30 the whole earth will tremble before him . The world is also firm and unshaken.

16:31 may the heavens rejoice and the earth rejoice . Let it be said among the nations, "Yahweh reigns."

16:32 may the sea and all that is in it . May the field, and all that is in it, rejoice.

16:33 Then all the trees in the forest will cheer before Yahweh. for he has come to judge the whole earth.

16:34 should be called sieh yes and hua . for he is good . His mercy endures forever.

16:35 Say, O God who saves us, save us, gather us together, and free us from the Gentiles, that we may praise your holy name, and praise you for pride.

16:36 Blessed be the God of Yahweh, Israel, from everlasting unto everlasting. And all the people said, Amen. and praise Jereas and China .

16:37 David Aszar and his brethren served Jehovah regularly before the Covenant and served Yahweh day by day.

16:38 And he sent Edom of Russia and his brethren, sixty-eight men, and Edon of Obe, the son of Jedudon, and Hosa to guard the door.

16:39 And he sent Zadok the priest and all the priests of his brethren before the tabernacle of Jehohua in the high places of Gibeon, on the altar of burnt offerings, morning and evening, according to what was commanded to Israel in the book of the law of Jehohua. often offering burnt offerings to Yahweh .

16:40 See section above

16:41 They were sent along with Himman, Jeddudon, and the rest of the names of those who were chosen to be named in the books, called Yahweh and Hoa, because of his mercy that endures forever.

16:42 Hemant and Jedudon sounded trumpets and cymbals and loud noises with them, and sang praises to God with other musical instruments. The sons of Jedudon were gatekeepers.

16:43 so the people returned to their own homes . David also went back to wish his family well.

A detailed summary of 1 Chronicles chapter 16:

This chapter focuses on King David's worship and praise at the ark of God's covenant and his gratitude for God's grace and love.

After the ark of the covenant was placed, King David commanded the priests to offer some burnt offerings and peace offerings to God, and to give each of the Israelites a piece of bread, a piece of meat, and a piece of raisin cake as a sacrifice.

Next, King David set up a group of Levites to worship and serve before God's tabernacle. They sang hymns and hymns, and David joined in the singing, playing musical instruments, beating cymbals, and blowing horns.

Subsequently, King David announced a blessing and he prayed for God's blessing and grace for all who were present. He also reviewed the history of the Israelites and mentioned the wonderful deeds that God had performed in their lives, including delivering them from slavery to the Egyptians and leading them into the land of Canaan.

Finally, King David distributed sacrifices and gifts to the Israelites to celebrate with them.

This is a detailed summary of 1 Chronicles chapter 16.

Some important passages from 1 Chronicles 16

1. "Give thanks to the Lord, and proclaim his name, and declare his works to all the nations." —1 Chronicles 16:8.
2. "Seek the Lord and his power, and seek his face always." —1 Chronicles 16:11.
3. "Praise his name, that his works may be known." —1 Chronicles 16:8.
4. "Remember the wonders he did, and his wondrous works, and the judgments of his mouth." —1 Chronicles 16:12.
5. "The Lord is our God, and all the earth will worship him." —1 Chronicles 16:29.

First Chronicles 16 tells the story of King David's singing and offering of sacrifices to Jehovah after he had successfully delivered the ark of God's covenant back to Jerusalem. In this chapter, David published a psalm praising God's greatness and deeds and calling the nation of Israel to worship God. This chapter records the Levites that David appointed as leaders of worship to praise and give thanks to God continually. Although this chapter still contains a large number of accounts of events, some important ideas and meanings can still be found from a theological point of view.

Here are some of the ideas and implications of 1 Chronicles 16 from a theological perspective:

Praise the power and glory of God: In this chapter, David published a psalm praising the greatness and glory of God. He praised God's power, marvelous works, and righteousness. This reminds us that we should always praise God, bless His greatness and glory, for God is worthy of our praise.

Thanksgiving and joyful attitude: David was filled with gratitude and joy as he offered sacrifices to God. He thanked God for His love and faithfulness and called the nation of Israel to rejoice. This reminds us that a thankful mindset is very important for worshipping and serving God.

God's Salvation and Love: In this chapter, David speaks of God's salvation and love and reminds people not to forget God's works. This reminds us of God's deliverance and leadership for the nation of Israel, and it also reminds us not to forget God's grace in our lives.

The Importance of Worship and Service: In this chapter, David appointed the Levites as worship leaders and kept them praising and thanking God. This reminds us of the importance of worshipping and serving God, and that we should worship God with reverence and thanksgiving, so that our lives can be a testimony of glory to God.

Overall, 1 Chronicles 16, while describing King David's praise and sacrifice to God, still contains some important theological ideas and implications. This chapter reminds us of the importance of praising God's power and glory, thanksgiving and joy, God's salvation and love, and worship and service. These thoughts can help us gain a deeper understanding of God's requirements for worship and service, and they also inspire us to imitate David's praise and thanksgiving in making our lives becoming.
