

No copyright materials are used in this text

The summary and interpretation of the specific chapter and verses are from the Bible, they are religious text that is in the public domain.

Free to Copy and Distribute: Spread the Word!

(Peter Lok)駱沅祺

lokpeter@outlook.com

Bibleao.com

Daily Bible devotional; Daily Rice 2024 July 18

YouTube Prayer Link

Devils are easy to invite but hard to expel

The belief in the one true God does not mean that we reject other spirits. We believe in Satan and evil spirits who control us through fear. Satan will infuse your love one to attack and discourage our work and respect to the true God.

Jeremiah 10 is about idolatry versus the true God. This chapter describes the absurdity and dangers of idolatry and emphasizes the authenticity of the true God and the necessity of worship. Here is an overview of chapter 10: In verses 1–5, Jeremiah warned Israel not to imitate the idolatry of Gentiles. He pointed out that idolatry is absurd and stupid because idols are not true gods, but only artifacts that cannot be acted or acted upon. The motive behind idol worship is actually out of fear, they worship idols because they are afraid of the heavens, but in fact they are afraid of the devil, so they are controlled by the devil. What kind of attitude should we have towards these idols today? The prophet tells us not to be afraid, but to be aware that idolatry becomes customary, that they make idols out of wood, and that idols themselves are completely incapacitated, as we must know. They are all creatures, powerless to bring on evil and powerless to bring blessings. Idols stimulate the worldly desires of human beings. Yet this choice is an abomination, and it harms not only our physical life, but also our spiritual blessings and lives. We don't need to fear idols, but we need to fear God. For God is a powerful God who can do things and acts. He is the King of nations, the true and living God, and when He is angry, He shakes the earth, but idols do not. Satan's power will control a place through idols. A breach was formed through fear, and then its altar was erected. But the most important thing is that they will eventually be destroyed.

In verses 11–16, Jeremiah criticizes those who believe in false gods who believe only in their idols and not in the existence and power of the true God. He said that false gods were just man-made false things that could not bring true salvation and salvation. Satan and idols end up being annihilated. Today's Enemy of Christ is the result of these craftsmen who built idols and temples. If we follow the organization of the enemy Christ, we will be destroyed.

【Jeremi10:21】 "The shepherds have become animals, and they have not inquired of the Lord."

This is a very serious reproach, and this is the case with how many shepherds who, instead of asking God, lead their flocks astray. So we need to look inwardly to see how much of God's work in the church is hindered by our lack of prayer. Seeking God leads to prosperity, success in work, and an increase in the flock. Prayer is hard work, and the best work in the world is done with simple prayers. When we go into the inner closet and pray behind closed doors, this work is more effective than running outside and doing the holy work, and the best outcome of the gospel is when Peter and John go to Jerusalem to pray for the new believers (Acts 8:14).

In verses 17–25, Jeremiah continues to emphasize the power and wisdom of the true God, who is the Lord of all things and over the natural and human worlds. He called on people not to believe in false gods, as they only bring destruction and death.

10:23 "Yahweh, I know that the ways of men are not up to me; Neither can he that walketh his own steps." We Christians have a Comforter to lead us in the right way, and the more we follow our own path, the more we go and the more we go astray. But the Comforter leads us in the right way, the land that God has prepared for us. Unreliable idols, unreliable money, unreliable skills, rely on the reliable comforter. He moves you to do it, regardless of other people's objections, and He will take full responsibility for you and lead you to your destination. The Holy Spirit comes to cleanse our hearts, and we should comfort Him. God gave us the Comforter to live in us, and when we were left and right, He warned us to walk in the middle.

Let's pray together:

Thank Heavenly Father, that we must first exalt Your name, for You alone are the only true God. You are the living Lord of Own, and You are the Lord of history. Pray that the Lord will remove the fear of darkness and all the hosts of heaven from our hearts, and give us the fear of the one true God, so that we can trust completely, ask questions in everything, and follow Him closely. Merciful Father, You are the only true God, the living God, the eternal King. Thy name is unmatched, Thou art the King of kings, and the Lord of lords. May your name be exalted, your power manifested, and the world come to honor you, and turn away from all forms of false god idolatry and return to your right path.

In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ I pray, amen.

10 chapters of Jeremiah

10:1 O Israel, listen to what Yahweh and Hua have to say to you.

10:2 Thus saith the Jews, Do not imitate the ways of the nations, nor be dismayed by the heavens. for the nations were troubled by this.

10:3 the customs of the people are empty . They cut down a tree with an axe in the woods, and craftsmen made idols by hand.

10:4 They adorned him with silver and gold, and stabilised him with nails and hammers, so that he could not move.

10:5 He is like a palm tree, made of forged steel, unable to speak, unable to walk, and must be carried by someone. you don't have to be afraid of him . He has no power to bring evil or blessing.

10:6 yes and hua , there is nothing like you . You are a great name with great power .

10:7 Who does not fear you, O King of the kingdoms? It is proper to fear you . for among the wise men of the nations there is no place like thee, though there be honour in power.

10:8 They are all beasts and ignorant . what is the teaching of an image ? The idol is nothing more than a wooden one.

10:9 Pieces of silver, which were brought from Tarshish, and gold from Ufa, were the workmen of craftsmen and silversmiths. and there were blue and purple garments, all of which were the work of craftsmen.

10:10 But Yahweh is the true God, the living God, the eternal King, and when he is angry, the earth is shaken, and when he is angry, the nations cannot bear it. 10:11 Say to them this, It is not the God who made heaven and earth that will be destroyed from the earth and from the earth.

10:12. Yahweh used his power to create the earth, his wisdom to build the world, and his wisdom to stretch the firmament.

10:13 And as soon as he spoke, there was a stirring of water in the air. he made the clouds mist from the pole to the top . He made electricity that turned on with the rain and brought wind from his treasury.

10:14 Every man has become a beast and has no knowledge. And all the silversmiths were ashamed of the images he had carved. The image he carved was false and there was no breath in it.

10:15 All are vain and deceitful. and in the time of retrieval it shall be destroyed.

10:16 And Jacob's points were not like these; for he is the Lord who made all things. Israel was also a branch of his industry . Yahweh of hosts is his name. 10:17 Take your possessions, you besieged ones, and take them out of the land.

10:18 For Yahweh has said, At this time I will throw out the inhabitants of the land as if they were a string, and I will do them harm to make them realize.

10:19 And the people said, Woe to me, I am wounded; my scars are extremely heavy . But I said, "This is my pain, and I must endure it."

10:20 My tent is ruined, and my ropes are broken. my sons and daughters are gone from me and are gone. No one will put up my tent or hang up my curtain.

10:21 For the shepherds were all animals, and they did not ask Jehovah. Therefore it did not go well, and their flocks were scattered.

10:22 And there was a rumor, and behold, the enemy is coming, and a great disturbance is coming out of the north, that the great cities of Judah may be desolate, and shall become a dwelling place for wild dogs.

10:23 Yahweh, I know that the way of winning men is not my own; Nor can he who travels determine his own steps.

10:24 O Yahweh, give me leniencies; Do not punish me in your anger, lest I be nothing.

10:25 Let your wrath be poured out on the nations that do not know you, and on the nations that do not call on your name. For they swallowed Jacob, and not only did they swallow it, but they also perished, and made his dwelling place desolate.

The central idea of Jeremiah 10 is about idolatry versus the true God. This chapter describes the absurdity and dangers of idolatry and emphasizes the authenticity of the true God and the necessity of worship. Here is an overview of chapter 10: In verses 1–5, Jeremiah warned Israel not to imitate the idolatry of Gentiles. He pointed out that idolatry is absurd and stupid because idols are not true gods, but only artifacts that cannot be acted or acted upon.

In verses 6–10, Jeremiah emphasizes the reality of the true God and the necessity of worship. He said that the true God is the Lord of all, that He is real, and that His power and wisdom are unlimited. Jeremiah called for the fear of God because He is the Creator, the Ruler, and the Redeemer.

In verses 11–16, Jeremiah criticizes those who believe in false gods who believe only in their idols and not in the existence and power of the true God. He said that false gods were just man-made false things that could not bring true salvation and salvation. In verses 17–25, Jeremiah continues to emphasize the power and wisdom of the true God, who is the Lord of all things and over the natural and human worlds. He called on people not to believe in false gods, as they only bring destruction and death.

Overall, Jeremiah 10 emphasizes the reality of the true God and the necessity of worship through the contrast between idolatry and the true God. The chapter exposes the absurdity and dangers of idolatry and criticizes those who believe in false gods Person. Jeremiah called for the fear of the true God, faith in His existence and power, and the pursuit of true salvation and salvation.

In Jeremiah 10, there are several verses that are considered to be more important. Here are these verses and their explanations:

1. Jeremiah 10:10: "But the Lord is the true God, the living God and the eternal King." When he was angry, the earth shook; When he is angry, the nations cannot afford it. This verse tells the truth that Yahweh is the only true God, the living God, the eternal King. The power of the LORD is so great that when he is angry, the whole earth is shaken, and when he is angry, the nations cannot bear it.
2. Jeremiah 10:23: "O Lord, I know that a man's way is not his own, and he who walks cannot set his own steps." This verse emphasizes the helplessness of human beings and the need to rely on God. People cannot decide their own path and destiny, but can only trust in God's guidance and guidance.
3. Jeremiah 10:25: "Wrath is poured out on the Gentiles who have not known you, and on the tribes that have not called on your name." This verse is a prayer for God to pour out His wrath on the Gentiles who did not know Him and on the nations who did not call on His name. This invocation expressed Jeremiah's faith in God's justice, since these Gentiles and tribes did not acknowledge God and did not seek His help, and therefore they were held accountable for their sins.

Jeremiah 10 deals with pagan worship and idolatry and emphasizes the uniqueness of the true God. Here are just a few of the theological central ideas and theological takeaways:

The Oneness of the True God: In Jeremiah 10, Jeremiah emphasizes the uniqueness of the true God by detailing pagan idolatry. He taught people not to imitate the pagans in making idols, because the true God, unlike other gods, is the creator of the universe and has unlimited power.

The Folly of Idolatry: In Jeremiah 10, Jeremiah reveals the falsehood and folly of idolatry. Idols are made with human hands, are lifeless and powerless, and do not bring true salvation and protection. Jeremiah pointed out that when people pursue idols, they are lost in vanity, not in the search for a true God.

Fear of God: In Jeremiah 10, Jeremiah emphasizes that God is worthy of fear and worship. The true God is great and all-powerful, and He is in control of all things in heaven and earth, and is worthy of respect and reverence. Jeremiah called on the people to abandon idolatry and turn to fear and submit to the true God.

God's Creation and Reign: In Jeremiah 10, Jeremiah emphasizes God as the creator and ruler of the universe. God created the heavens and the earth, and He is the source of wisdom and power. Therefore, people should believe and trust in God's divine power, not on powerless idols.

Overall, Jeremiah 10 provides a lesson about idolatry and the oneness of the true God. The central idea of theology is to emphasize the fear of the true God, to turn away from idolatry, to believe in God's creation and rule, and to seek a true relationship with God. These teachings remind us that God is the only Lord of the universe and that we should worship Him wholeheartedly and avoid idolatry and false faith.