A Prayer of Thanksgiving for God's Grace:

Lord, before I make any prayer to you, I would like to give thanks first. Thank you for calling me to awaken in the morning, thank you for giving me today's life, so that I can love and experience your goodness. I don't deserve all this, but you have given me grace in vain. Lord, I am amazed by the grace of your forgiveness. No matter how many times I stumble and make mistakes, you always cover me with grace, not as enemies of my past, and do not record my failures. You remind me in Ephesians 2:8-9, You are saved by grace and by faith it is not from oneself, but from God, nor out of deeds, lest anyone boast. Father, thank you for this gift of salvation that can never be obtained through hard work. Lord, you don't ask me to be perfect to accept me as your child. Even though I am weak and flawed, you still treat me with perfect love. Your grace gives me a new beginning every day, and yesterday's failure cannot define today's possibilities. You are a God who gives second, third, and even countless chances. How wonderful is your grace! The roof on my head, the food on the table, the clothes on my body, and the breath in my mouth are all provided by your grace. Even if I have not paid attention or forgotten to be grateful, you are still silently favoring. How many dangers have been stopped by you before they come, and how many difficulties have not happened because of your protection. Your grace surrounds me like a shield. Lord, I also thank you for your grace in relationships. Those who know my shortcomings and still accompany me, those friends and family who choose to forgive in my mistakes, are all manifestations of your grace. As 1 Peter 4 verse 10 says, Let each man serve one another according to the gifts he has received, and be good stewards of all the gifts of God. Thank you for opening the door of grace through people and circumstances. Father, your grace not only forgives but also shapes me, making failure a lesson and weakness into strength. Your grace brings unexpected peace, stability in chaos, reconciliation in conflict, and the whisper in despair, Nothing is impossible with me. You open the way where there is no way and give light in the darkness. Thank you for your purposeful grace that makes my life not accidental. You have given me a unique role and mission to heal my heart, body, and relationships with grace, so that the brokenness can be repaired. You declare in 2 Corinthians 12 verse 9, My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is perfect in the weakness of man. Father, thank you for your grace that is enough to bear all my burdens. I thank you for your wise grace to guide me in confusion. Thank you for the grace of fellowship that connects me with my family and friends. Thank you for the grace of rest, so that the soul can rest. Thank you for the grace of providing for me to exceed what I ask. Thank you for your creative and renewing grace that allows me to appreciate and participate in your beauty. Lord, thank you for the grace of your eternal presence, whether it is joy or suffering, you will never leave you. Thank you for the grace of your word, every promise is the power of life, thank you for the grace of your prayers, so that I can talk to the creator of heaven and earth at any time, thank you for your eternal hope that death is not the end, but the beginning of living with you. Lord, your love never gives up on me, and even when I doubt, weaken, or stray from me, you seek me. You have also taught me that grace is not only received, but also transmitted. When I forgive others, give kindness, and a second chance, it is the grace that you extend through me. Lord, help me to live in your overflowing grace, let my gratitude overflow, and be a channel to bless others. Thank you for giving me new grace every day, which never dries up. Your grace is greater than my greatest mistake and stronger than my deepest failure. In the sacred name of the Lord Jesus Christ, Amen.
