Prayer of entrustment and guidance from God

Dear Heavenly Father, I thank You because You are the God who loves me, the Lord of my life, and the help I am always present.

Lord, today I quietly come before You, entrusting my life, family, health, work, finances, and the unknown road ahead into Your hands.

Heavenly Father, You know everything I am thinking in my heart, and also the worries I dare not speak aloud. You know what difficulties I am facing, and what makes me restless and confused.

Lord, please help me to quiet down, so that worries no longer occupy my heart, and I will no longer lose peace just because I cannot see the road ahead.

Please forgive me. Many times, I want to arrange everything according to my own will, hoping everything is under my control. When things don't go as I wish, I easily become anxious, disappointed, and even doubt whether You still watch over me.

Lord, teach me how to entrust.

Please help me entrust to You what cannot be changed, faithfully fulfill the responsibilities that need to be borne, and bring the decisions I need to make before You seeking wisdom. May the Holy Spirit shine upon my heart, so that I am not led by fear, impulsiveness, or my own desires, but am willing to act according to Your word.

Dear Heavenly Father, when I face important choices in life, please guide my path. If the direction I am taking does not align with Your truth, please remind and correct me; If I am afraid to take the step I ought to take, please grant me courage; If I am not yet sure how to decide, grant me patience so that I do not rush to act, but instead seek appropriate wisdom and help.

Lord, I also entrust my family to You. Please watch over their health, lives, and future, and help us love and understand one another within the family. For matters I cannot always care for or solve for them, please help me learn to let go, believing I can be responsible in love and also entrust them into Your hands.

Lord, I entrust the needs of work and life to You. Grant me wisdom to handle difficulties, strength to take responsibility, and a heart of contentment and gratitude. When opportunities come, please help me wait patiently; When difficulties arise, please help me not lose heart easily; When the path changes, please help me to still trust in You.

Dear Lord Jesus, please especially guard my thoughts and intentions. When I keep thinking about the future, when my heart is pulled by worries, when I cannot sleep peacefully because of certain things, ask the Holy Spirit to comfort me and help me remember Your promises once again.

Lord, I may not fully understand Your arrangement, nor do I know when the answer will come, but please help me believe that You see my needs today and know the path ahead of me.

Please grant me a heart of obedience, so that I am willing not only to ask You to fulfill my plans, but also to let Your Word guide my life.

Lord, please take away my unnecessary worries, grant me the courage to take responsibility, grant me faith to face the unknown, and grant me peace in my heart while waiting.

Today, I am willing to entrust all my burdens to You once again. I no longer ask myself to control everything for tomorrow; I only ask You to help me walk today's path well, do what I need to do today, and know You, trust You, and follow You more deeply every day.

May Your will be fulfilled in my life, may Your peace guard my heart and mind, so that no matter what circumstances I am in, I can rely on Your grace and bravely walk the path ahead.

Thank the Heavenly Father for hearing my prayers, thank the Lord Jesus for being the Lord of my life, and thank the Holy Spirit for His daily guidance and comfort.

I entrust myself, pray, and give thanks in the holy name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Amen!
