Please pray on my behalf

Dear Heavenly Father, we thank You because You are a God full of love, mercy, and faithfulness. You see the needs of every person and know the sorrow and burdens in every heart. Today, we come before You with humble hearts, praying not only for ourselves but also for those around us in need. Lord, please hear our intercession.

Dear Heavenly Father, first, we pray for our own families. Please protect every family and grant health, peace, and harmony. For those in the family who have conflicts, misunderstandings, or pain, please grant forgiveness and a heart of mutual love, so that broken relationships may be repaired and sorrowful people may find comfort.

Lord, we pray for all our brothers and sisters and Your church. Strengthen the faith of every believer, so that we do not lose heart in difficulties, do not fall in temptation, and remain close to You in the midst of a busy life. May the Holy Spirit help us to be one, love and support one another, so that our lives may bear witness to the love of the Lord Jesus.

Lord, we especially remember sick brothers and sisters, elderly people, and those experiencing physical pain and mental torment. Please personally be their refuge and strength, grant wisdom to medical staff, and provide the care they need. When they feel lonely, afraid, or tired, please let them experience Your presence and regain hope in their hearts.

Heavenly Father, we also pray for those facing financial difficulties, work pressure, family burdens, and confusion in life. Please open the way for them, grant them wisdom and strength, and help them overcome difficulties step by step. When they cannot see the road ahead, please be the lamp at their feet and the light on their path, so they do not lose faith.

Lord Jesus, we pray for friends and family who have not yet come to know You. Pray that the Holy Spirit will personally move them, open their hearts to You, so that they may know Your salvation, understand the love You revealed on the cross, and have the opportunity to hear the gospel and accept You as their Savior.

Lord, we also pray for those around the world who are experiencing war, natural disasters, hunger, and persecution. Please have mercy on those who suffer, protect innocent lives, comfort families who have lost loved ones, and grant wisdom to leaders everywhere so they may pursue justice, peace, and reconciliation.

Heavenly Father, when we pray for others, please also change our hearts, so that we do not just pray with words, but are more willing to care, support, and help those in need through our actions. Please make us a blessing to others, and let Your love be expressed through us.

Lord, we admit we are limited, that we cannot solve all problems, nor understand the reasons behind every matter. But we believe that Your power is greater than ours, and Your wisdom is greater than ours.

Grant us a heart that continues to intercede, so that we do not lose heart because we do not see immediate answers, but still look to You in faith, entrusting everything into Your loving hands.

May Your will be done in every family, every church, and every life in need.
Thank the Heavenly Father for hearing our prayers.
We pray this way in the victorious holy name of the Lord Jesus Christ.
Amen!
