Prayers of thanksgiving

Dear Heavenly Father, we thank You and praise You!

Lord, thank You for giving us the breath of life today, so that we can come before You to worship You and draw near to You. Thank You for always watching over us and protecting us in the days past. Even though we sometimes forget Your grace, You have never stopped loving us.

Heavenly Father, thank You for creating us to provide for our daily needs. Thank You for giving us food, shelter, family, and brothers and sisters, and for being our constant help when we face difficulties.

Lord Jesus, we especially thank You for the salvation You have accomplished for us. You willingly walked to the cross for us, bearing our sins, so that through Your precious blood we may be forgiven and reconciled to our Heavenly Father. Thank You for giving us new life, so that we may have hope in weakness, light in darkness, and no longer be alone on the path of life.

Lord, please forgive us. Many times we only see what we have not received, yet forget the grace You have already given; We often worry about tomorrow, forgetting that You still support us today; Sometimes we are troubled by the pressures of life and the voices outside, causing us to feel restless and lose peace.

Ask the Holy Spirit to help us quiet down and recount Your grace. When we are weary, please give us strength; When we are sad, please comfort us; When we face difficulties, please strengthen our faith.

Lord, we also offer thanks to all the brothers and sisters. Thank You for making us one family in Christ. Please protect our church, so that we may love one another, support one another, and serve You in unity. Remember sick members, families going through hardship, and those burdened in their hearts. May You personally be their comfort and strength.

Heavenly Father, please teach us that no matter the circumstances, we can come before You with a grateful heart. We may not understand the reasons behind everything, but please help us to continue trusting You, believing that Your love will never change, and Your faithfulness will endure for generations to come.

May we wake up every day and remember to thank You; Live every day and experience Your grace; And every night before sleep, may we entrust everything to You with a grateful heart.
May gratitude not only remain on our lips, but become our daily attitude; May our whole lives be people who glorify You and bear witness to Your grace.
Thank the Heavenly Father for hearing our prayers.
We give thanks and pray in this way, in the victorious holy name of the Lord Jesus Christ.
Amen!
