Pray for the sick

Isaiah 53:5

"Through the punishment he has endured, we have peace; Through the wounds he has suffered, we are healed."

Lord, many times when we see the difficulties before us, we begin to worry, complain, and even doubt whether You still care for us. We often forget Your past grace, and how You once helped us through life's lows.

May the Holy Spirit help us to quiet our restless and chaotic hearts, so that we can let go of unnecessary worries and no longer be led by external sounds and environments. Please teach us to learn calmness amid the chaos, to wait when we do not understand, and to look to You even when we cannot see a way out.

Lord, please help each of us, whether at home, at work, in church, or in daily life, to faithfully fulfill the responsibilities You have entrusted to us. Let us not envy others' gifts, not underestimate what we have done, and not be discouraged because our service is not recognized by others, because we know You see our hearts and our efforts.

Please especially strengthen those brothers and sisters who are experiencing difficulties, illness, family problems, financial pressure, or hearts full of sorrow. Please personally comfort them and grant peace and strength from You. When our faith is weak, please support us; When we do not know the road ahead, please guide us; When we wait a long time without seeing an answer, please help us not lose hope.

Dear Lord, please make us a group who trust You—not just in times of good fortune, but also in times of hardship to keep our faith. Let us always count Your grace, remember Your faithfulness, and bear witness to Your glory with our lives.

May Your word be a lamp at our feet and a light on our path, so that we may walk in Your will every day.

Thank the Heavenly Father, for You are the God who was, present, and everlasted, and Your faithfulness lasts forever.

The above prayers are made in the holy name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Amen
